SALISBURY, N. C., Dec. 29, 1898.

THE DEMOCRATIC LEGISLATURE.

Governor Russell is said to be trying to "make peace" with the Democratic Legislature. It is said that it is the Governor's purpose to appoint a Democrat, Capt. W. H. Day, as superintendent of the penitentiary, vice James M. Newboorne, who has resigned. The governor, it seems, fears the legislature and will do all he can to place himself in a right light before the members. He is clearly getting ready to practice a little game in order to cover some of his past deeds.

The governor's action, however, will not deceive the Democratic Legislature. The Assembly will be likely to name the various officers to take charge of the State's institutions. The Legislature, it is believed, will not be diverted from a thorough investigation of the various offices connected with the State administration—regardless of any appointments the Governor may make.

His Honor, the governor, it appears, is trying to put all he can between himself and the Legislature. He is represented as being afraid of impeachment. It is stated that "he does not know the ground he stands on."

The Democrats, both of the House and Senate, will no doubt do their duty in every respect.

—Every member of Chicago's city council has been summoned before the grand jury, charged with bribery.

—A pickpocket got Bob Ingersoll's gold watch in New York the other day, and Bob's private opinion now is, if there isn't a warm hereafter for some people there ought to be.

—The Confederate Veterans' Association of Memphis has passed resolutions condemning Senator Butler's proposition to pension Confederate soldiers as a blundering violation of good taste and dignity.

—The national debt of Japan amounts to $1,500 per capita, but there are no foreign bondholders to squeeze her. The debt is all held by her own people and the interest instead of going out to enrich others remains at home.

—The Asheville Citizen says "the mustering out of the Third North Carolina which is announced has been determined upon will be a cruel, crushing of the hopes of many of its members. The negroes are exceedingly proud of being soldiers, and to return to the ordinary walks of life will be a hardship."

—Congressman-elect B. H. Roberts, of Utah, announces that he will hold on to his wives, and says he is no more guilty of polygamy than Abraham, Jacob and the Prophets who practised it, and that the Church can't take his wives away from him. His lawyers say there is no legal obstacle in the way of his taking his seat.

—Advocates of expansion claim that the peace treaty will be ratified by the Senate without amendment.

—It is a question in Greater New York whether there shall be another bridge constructed across East River or a tunnel constructed under it. It is contended that the tunnel can be constructed within a couple of years for about $6,000,000, whereas such a bridge as would be necessary would cost $12,000,000.

—The Confederate Monument Association at a meeting in Richmond yesterday passed a resolution asking the various Confederate ladies societies in the South to organize for raising funds for the Battle Abbey, and report amounts to General White, Wheeling, W. Va. Mrs. Jefferson Davis gave permission for the sale of Miss Winnie Davis' pictures at the museum.

Spoils System in the Colonies.

Philadelphia Record.

President McKinley has been a much more staunch civil service reformer in form than in fact. Subsistence on the part of the executive to the will of party bosses might lead to most deplorable consequences if it should result in sending to the West and East Indies such political harpies as too often attain to places of responsibility and emolument in the United States. This is precisely the kind of exploitation which has lost to Spain every vestige of her vast colonial empire.

Negro Kills a White Boy.

Yesterday's Raleigh letter to this morning's Charlotte Observer says: To-night Thomas Smith, colored, was brought here and jailed to save him from lynching. He lives four miles from Smithfield. To-day three white boys passing his house threw some firecrackers. Smith ran out and with a pocket knife cut the throat of one boy named Cawthorne. The boy fell dead. Smith then cut the throat of another, but missed the jugular vein. The third boy fled. Bloodhounds from Goldsboro trailed Smith to Smithfield. His wife was there and was forced to reveal his hiding place, which was in the negro Odd Fellows' hall, and over a negro store. He was jailed at Smithfield. Open threats of lynching were made. Had he remained there a few hours longer, he would surely have been lynched.

Two new cases of smallpox were discovered in a down-town alley, at Wilmington, N. C. Both of the afflicted are negro women of bad repute. They will be removed to the pest-house and the house where they live will be torn down. Little or no fear is manifested, as it is believed that the health authorities can stamp out the disease.

A Memphis special says J. M. Horton, the richest negro in Tennessee, owning 7,000 acres of cotton land and 5 general stores, has been convicted of receiving stolen property and sentenced to seven years in prison. Fifteen years ago Horton was a farm hand, earning $15 a month.

Patrick Haggerty died at Potsdam, N. Y., the other day, aged 109 years.

J. K. Stuckey, one of the wealthiest merchants of Spartanburg, S. C., shot and killed his bookkeeper, John Sevier, Tuesday morning. The men disagreed about a settlement. Both were well connected.

The east-bound California limited train No. 4, on the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe Railroad, was wrecked yesterday morning. The accident happened on a curve and it is supposed to have been caused by the spreading of rails. The observation car, two drawing room sleepers and a composite car left the track. The wreck immediately caught fire from an explosion of gas from the composite car and the entire four cars were burned up. No one was killed, but 12 were seriously injured. A corpse, which was en route to Philadelphia, was cremated in the fire. Physicians were taken to the scene and cared for the injured people.
