THE OLD NORTH STATE.

Happenings, Chronicled By the Press, Condensed for Hasty Readers.

Caldwell county now has five roller mills in operation.

The Stanly Enterprise, of which Mr. J. D. Bivin is editor, has been enlarged to an eight column paper.

M. W. Norfleet & Co. have purchased a ten thousand dollar site at Winston, N. C., for the erection of the biggest tobacco warehouse in the South.

North Wilkesboro voted on the issuing of bonds Tuesday, and the issue carried. This is for the purpose of building a bridge across the Yadkin in the lower end of town, which will be quite a convenience to the people.

A petition was circulated yesterday among the merchants of Charlotte in regard to the purchase tax law very much in substance like the resolutions passed by the Salisbury merchants and business men in mass meeting here Wednesday. The petition was signed, says the News, by nearly every merchant of that city.

The News suggests that the Methodists of Mt. Airy arrange with Rev. Jas. Needham for him to preach in Mt. Airy the day he is 100 years old. It is quite likely that Father Needham will feel it his duty to his neighbors and friends to preach on that day. The News says: "Thousands of people will be extremely anxious to see him on his one hundredth birthday, if God sees fit to spare him until that time. If we are not mistaken, the 22nd of May is the date."

Sam Lucas, colored, under sentence of death for killing Henry Woods, but waiting the action of the Supreme Court in Guilford jail, is trying an experiment. The other day some of the prisoners heard the guards below popping corn and some of it was given to them to eat. Lucas said he was going to try an experiment by eating just one grain of it a day and see how long he would live, but he only made a test of one day. The next day he was so hungry that he devoured everything in sight. A "gentleman of color" is about the last man to commit suicide in this or any other way.

John D. Rockefeller, his millions, carries a plain, cheap silver watch given him when he was a boy.

Mr. S. A. Fackler, editor of the Micadopy, Fla., Hustler, with his wife and children, suffered terribly from La Grippe. One Minute Cough Cure was the only remedy that helped them. It acted quickly. Thousands of others use this remedy as a specific for La Grippe, and its exhausting after effects. James Plummer.

The smallest things may exert the greatest influence. De Witt's Little-Early Risers are unequalled for overcoming constipation and liver troubles. Small pill, best pill, safe pill. James Plummer.

A Remarkable

Merchandising event appears on the mercantile firmament of Salisbury—the greatest, perhaps, in its history. A SALE of such gigantic proportions that all similar movements, past or present, are dwarfed into insignificance. Sales will come and sales will go—but we doubt if ever again such an opportunity will be presented to this people.

Economy to the Fore!

With our reliable stock of CLOTHING, our matchless stock of FURNISHINGS, our superb stock of HATS, our incomparable stock of NECKWEAR, announces A SALE in which these several stocks will suffer most disastrously. What are known as AFTER-HOLIDAY PRICES play no conspicuous part in this massacre of values. Don't ask for prices, but go the round, take in all the bargain (?) shops, then come here, there'll be an awakening, a revelation, as the IMMEDIATE CLEARANCE OR CLOSING OUT OF THE GOODS IS IMPERATIVE.

☞ We Want Your Christmas Order for FRESH OYSTERS.

Two Views and Two Conclusions.

Neither of Which is Right.

To view the goods going out of our store for the last two weeks you would conclude that very little was left.

To view the goods still on hand you would conclude that very little had been sold.

Both are wrong. We have sold much and have much left.

The right conclusion is to come down and view stock and prices and avail yourself of the genuine cost prices offered at this sale.

Our stock is still large and well assorted and every article on it, except Bazaar Patterns and Coats' Thread, goes at cost.

You can trust us, your little child will get the same prices the shrewdest buyer gets. We give you the benefit of 25 years experience in buying and you pay no profit. The only cost sale in Salisbury.
