NO CURE—NO PAY
That is the way all druggists sell GROVE'S TASTELESS CHILL TONIC for Malaria, Chills and Fever. It is simply Iron and Quinine in a tasteless form. Children love it. Adults prefer it to bitter, nauseating Tonics. Price 50 cents.

The smallest things may exert the greatest influence. De Witt's Little Early Risers are unequalled for overcoming constipation and liver troubles. Small pill, best pill, safe pill. James Plummer.

A GOOD CONCERT.

The Louise Brehany Ballad and Concert Company.

This morning's Charlotte Observer says of the concert company to be here next Tuesday:

The last but one of the star course entertainments was given at the Y. M. C. A. hall last night by the Louise Brehany Ballad and Concert Company. A large crowd was in attendance, and the audience was lavish in its applause, almost every number on the programme was encored.

Miss Brehany sang the ballads, "Calm as the Night" and "Marguerite." She has a voice of unusual power, sweetness and range. She was well received. Miss Waters sang "Bel Roggio," and did it well. Mr. George Dethless, the baritone, and Mr. Wheatley, were not up to the standard of the female singers, but came in for a liberal share of applause.

The concert concluded with the second act of Flotow's "Martha." This opera was well rendered, the singers being oftentimes applauded during its rendition. Mr. Guillemme Sawlet presided at the piano. His playing was unusually fine.

Land Purchased.

Those interested in the proposed cotton mill at the shoals have, this week, purchased a couple of farms in the vicinity of the shoals.

We understand that the company proposes to have tenants raise cotton near the mill.

Yesterday's Winston Sentinel says:

The promoters of the cotton mill enterprise at the Shoals, Davie county, have been on hand this week paying for the land bought and damage rights. Several farms pass into their hands. The company owns all the land from the Shoals to the railroad. They pay the Hairstons $15,000 for the Shoals and adjoining lands. The Times learns that the company will begin at once the erection of the largest cotton mill plant in the State. They will invest a half a million dollars in the enterprise.

TWELVE DIRECTORS.

Of The Penitentiary Elected—Other Assembly News.

SENATE.

The following bills were introduced: By Ward, to amend chapter 69, relating to usury law. By Whitaker, by request, to amend chapter 239, laws of 1895. By Glenn, to provide for the safety of travelers and employes on railroads. By Lowe, by request, to amend chapter 411, laws of 1897. By Cocke, to ask Senators and Congressmen in Washington to secure $26,000 as expenses to the State in recruiting and mustering out soldiers in the late war.

The calendar was taken up. Bills as follows passed final reading: To establish a dispensary at Jackson; to amend chapter 148, laws of 1897 (Council's bill removing the disabilities of married women); for the relief of sheriffs and tax collectors (by allowing them uncollected taxes for years of 1895, 1896, 1897).

On motion of Senator Brown, the Senate took up a special order of business for the nomination of directors of the penitentiary (names of directors appear in House proceedings).

Senator Jones' bill to establish a dispensary at Smithfield passed final reading, as did bills to repeal chapter 109, laws of 1897, as to non suits; to regulate a special tax for Montgomery county; to punish public drunkenness; to provide for the appointment of additional commissioners for Warren county; to amend chapter 380, laws of 1889; to increase the number of county commissioners of Rowan county from 3 to 5; to abolish the county board of education; to establish a graded school at Albemarle.

The following bills also passed: To request our Representatives in Washington to secure an appropriation sufficient to cover the State's war claims against the government. By leave, Senator Justice introduced a bill to establish a dispensary at Greensboro.

THE HOUSE.

A resolution was introduced by McIntosh, against the acquisition of foreign territory by the United States.

Bills were introduced as follows: By Reeves, to regulate sale of patent and proprietary medicines. By Winston, to regulate and reduce fees of county officers, reduction averaging 25 per cent. By Rountree, to improve the State encampment grounds at Wrightsville. By Justice, to require the purchaser of a railroad, sold under judicial sale, to organize a new corporation. By Boushall, to give a lien to persons finding and storing animals for hire.

The calendar was taken up. Bills passed to amend the law as to limited partnerships; (resolution) for the removal of the arsenal from the capital square.

There was some discussion of a bill to allow the commissioners of Pitt county to put vagrants at work on the public roads or county farm.

Reeves' bill regarding patent medicines is of general interest. It provides that "it shall be unlawful for any merchant, druggist or other person or persons to sell or offer for sale any patent or proprietary medicines or other like nostrums which do not have printed on the labels in plain Roman letters and in the English language the name and exact amount of each ingredient from which the compound is made.

At 12:30 the House went into election of twelve additional directors for the State's prison; one from each judicial district. The following were elected: First district, Benjamin H. Thompson, of Beaufort; second, Edward L. Travis, of Halifax; third, Robert H. Ricks, of Nash; fourth, Joseph W. Perry, of Johnston; fifth, Wm. H. Osborn, of Guilford; sixth, James C. Davis, of Carteret; seventh, James T. LeGrand, of Richmond; eighth, Alfred B. Young, of Cabarrus; ninth, John L. Gwaltney, of Alexander; tenth, M. F. Morphew, of McDowell; eleventh, J. Henderson Weddington, of Mecklenburg; twelfth, Samuel L. Rogers, of Macon.

"Side Tracked."

One of the best attractions on the road this season is "Side Tracked," which is now headed this way and is booked to appear here on the night of the 9th. It is an up-to-date comedy drama, bordering on the farce. It is bright and clean, full of original humor, startling surprises, catchy music, bright specialties and striking situations. The company is an unusually strong one, and the attraction is appearing to crowded houses wherever presented.

Reception.

There will be a reception at the parsonage of the Church Street Methodist Church next Tuesday evening, given by the ladies of the Woman's Missionary Society.

There will be a pleasing program of music and recitations, and substantial refreshments.

Two young ladies will receive at the door, any amount you will feel free to give.

The public generally and the members of other churches in town are most cordially invited.

Hours 5.30 p. m. to 10 p. m.

Young Lady Dead.

Miss Florence Poplin died last night about 12 o'clock at her father's home near the Salisbury Cotton Mill. Death was caused by neuralgia of the brain.

The deceased was 16 years of age.

The body was taken to Stanly county this afternoon for burial.

Dr. Booker Here.

Dr. Booker, of Johns Hopkins hospital, Baltimore, spent a few hours here this morning. He came in answer to a message to see Dr. Whitehead's child.

Dr. Booker arrived on the vestibule and returned to Baltimore on the 11 o'clock train.

Death.

Mrs. Kathrine Earnhardt, aged 84, died Thursday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Alex Hartman, in the county.

The interment was made yesterday at Union church.

One-Half Interest.

A. H. Newsom and wife to-day purchased a fourth interest in the North Side Roller Mill. They already owned one-fourth.

Mr. James L. Alexander, who conducted a small grocery store on west Front Street, was found dead in his store Wednesday afternoon between 4 and 5 o'clock.—Statesville Landmark.

NORTH STATE ITEMS.

Happenings of the Commonwealth Briefly Told.

A large silk mill is projected for Wilmington.

The Legislature has decided to adjourn on the 25th of this month.

Judge Park, of Virginia, will preside at the hearing of the cases of the First National Bank, of Asheville, at that place, commencing February 15th.

A party from Omaha wishes to take out papers of incorporation in this State with a capital of $400,000 for buying and establishing a game preserve in North Carolina.

The Monroe Enquirer says a Union county man recently purchased three tombstones and had them placed at the head of the graves of three of his wives who are buried side by side.

The Chronicle says it is understood that the Southern Railway will apply to the Federal court at an early day asking that a receiver be appointed to hold the railroad funds of Wilkes county.

A company to publish a new Methodist paper to be known as the Raleigh Christian Advocate, has been organized in Raleigh with a capital of $10,000. The paper is to appear on the 15th.

There is a gold mining company operating in Burke county, with its head office in Syracuse, N. Y., that is capitalized at $1,250,000. This was brought out in the course of a trial before Justice W. E. Powe in Morganton last week and will no doubt be news to most of our readers.

News.

Mrs. S. T. Mathews, of Conrad, Yadkin county, was badly burned a few days ago, as also was a girl cooking there. It is said that some hot lard was on the fire in which Mrs. Mathews placed some gunpowder to make a horse medicine. When the powder fell in the lard it caused an explosion, painfully burning Mrs. Mathews and the girl.

Prof. J. A. Holmes has drawn a road bill which is attracting considerable attention. It allows the tax to be increased; requires all to work 4 days or pay $2; allows a county road superintendent under $2,000 bond to be paid not over $50 a month; allows one or more township road supervisors; provides that the county furnish tools. One other provision of the bill is noteworthy; whenever the force of road hands number less than ten, the county may alternate with a neighboring county.

A few days ago a young lady of Salem ran away and married a young farmer in the country. She is only 17 years of age and the groom secured the license by forging a letter from the young lady's parents, saying they had no objections to the marriage. He was assisted in the forgery by two of his friends. The father of the girl has employed counsel and had warrants issued for the arrest of the two young men who assisted in the procuring of the license. Unless the matter is otherwise adjusted it will have to be settled in the court.
