CASES DISPOSED OF.

In the Superior Court—The Mill Grinds On.

Since Tuesday noon the following cases have been disposed of in the Superior Court:

John McCathan and Joe Miller, affray; guilty. Five months on roads. Miller conducted his own defence and the case was very amusing.

Clay Grubb, assault and battery; plead guilty. Motion continued.

Jim James, false pretense; guilty.

Two divorces were granted Tuesday.

Claude Roberts and C. H. Cox, assault and battery; guilty. Judgment suspended upon payment of costs.

Dorsett Brooks, Sol Carter and Wm. Hargrave; Hargrave not taken; Brooks and Carter plead guilty. Judgment suspended upon payment of costs.

The case of Thos Brown was dismissed, the grand jury finding not a true bill.

George Miller, buggery; not guilty.

This morning Maggie Shoaf was given a divorce from E. R. Shoaf, Peter J. Swink was given a divorce from Ida G. Swink, and Allen N. Shoe a divorce from Mary Jane Shoe.

Marshal Rush, assault; guilty of simple assault. Judgment suspended.

Marshal Rush, carrying concealed weapon; plead guilty. Four months on roads.

New Train on the Southern.

This morning's Charlotte Observer says:

The Southern's travel has grown to such proportions that another train is needed. The Charlotte, Columbia & Augusta, which comes in at 8.10 p. m. brings several sleepers, which are switched over to the main line, at this point, being attached to the vestibule. The addition of these coaches makes this train too heavy. To remedy the matter a new train is to be added, running direct from Columbia, S. C., to Washington. The trains will be known as Nos. 33 and 34.

The new trains will pass Salisbury, going south about 6.40 a. m., and north, shortly after the vestibule at night.

Birthday Dinner.

A surprise birthday dinner was given the 19th inst at the home of Mr. Jesse Wyatt, who lives on the Bailey place, two or three miles out from Salisbury, in honor of his mother who was 75 years old on that day.

Mrs. Nancy Luvisa Wyatt is the widow of Thomas Wyatt and was born Feb. 19th, 1824. She is living with her only son, who is a good farmer, and a dutiful son.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bringle were present, and others too numerous to mention. They give her several nice presents.

Divorces.

The present court had granted five divorces up to noon to-day. This is more business than courts generally do in Rowan on that line.

Four of the divorces were granted to people whose names begin with S—Allen Shoe, Peter J. Swink, Maggie Shoaf and W. H. Sutfner.

STATE C. E. CONVENTION HERE.

Business Board Definitely Decides Upon April 21st to 23d.

Yesterday afternoon Rev. T. M. Johnson, of Greensboro, and the local members of the Christian Endeavor State Business Board were in session in Winston.

The Sentinel says: The dates for the State Convention were definitely decided upon, April 21st to 23d. The first service will doubtless be on that Friday evening, instead of in the afternoon, on account of the difficulty of reaching Salisbury before a late hour, according to the present railroad schedules. Mr. John Willis Baer, the General Secretary of the United Society, will be the honored guest of the Convention, and will probably speak twice, on Saturday evening and on Sunday afternoon.

The programme was carefully discussed, and as soon as acceptance of the various addresses are received the names will be made public. Several special features were proposed for this Convention: for instance, particular emphasis upon Christian citizenship, the Endeavorers' business life, Bible study and prayer. Each convention usually has its marked characteristic, when all has been summed up, and it is hoped that this may be the "Convention of Prayer," Saturday afternoon, the Juniors will have their rally, and the sermon will be preached in the closing meeting on Sunday night. Reduced rates will be asked for on all railroads.

Restraining Order Issued.

A special from Richmond says: A bill was filed in the United States Court here to-day by Mr. Charles Price, of North Carolina, representing Coler & Co., of New York, asking for an injunction upon the corporate authorities of Wilkes county, North Carolina, restraining them from disposing of the interest on the bonds issued by the county in aid of the building of the Northwestern North Carolina Railroad. Circuit Judge Goff granted the injunction and will hear the motion to make it permanent at Asheville in March. This bill is filed to validate the county bonds declared unconstitutional by the Supreme Court of North Carolina some months ago.

Another Notice to Subscribers.

Now that the weather is once more favorable it is necessary to push the improvement on the Lutheran church with all haste.

This work cannot be done unless all subscribers pay into the treasurer at once. The time is exceedingly short till the meeting of Synod, and it is our intention and wish to complete the work before Synod meets. The work cannot be done without funds.

Every subscriber is urged to call on the treasurer, A. W. Winecoff, this week, and not wait for the committee to call personally as our own private business consumes all the time at our command. BUILDING COMMITTEE.

JIM CROW CAR BILL.

As it Passed the House Yesterday—A Substitute.

The Jim Crow car bill passed third reading in the House yesterday. It is a substitute for the original bill and the text of the substitute is as follows:

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

Section 1. That all railroad and steamboat companies as common carriers in the transportation of passengers for hire in the State of North Carolina, other than street railroads, shall provide separate but equal accommodations for the white and colored races on all passenger trains and steamboats carrying passengers. Such accommodations may be furnished by railroad companies either by separate passenger cars, or by compartments to passenger cars, which shall be provided by the railroads, under the supervision and direction of the board of railroad commissioners, or the officers succeeding to their powers. Provided that this shall not apply to relief trains in cases of accident, to Pullman or sleeping cars or through express trains that do not stop at all stations and are not used ordinarily for traveling from station to station, to negro servants in attendance on their employers, to officers on guard transporting prisoners, nor to prisoners so transported.

Section 2. The railroad commissioners of this State or the officers succeeding to their powers are hereby authorized to exempt from the provisions of this act branch lines and narrow gauge railroads, if in their judgement the enforcement of this act be unnecessary to secure the comfort of passengers by reason of the light volume of passenger traffic or the small number of colored passengers traveling on such narrow gauge or branch lines.

Section 3. That when any coach or compartment of car for either race shall be completely filled at a station where no extra coach can be had and the increased number of passengers could not be foreseen, the conductor in charge of such train is hereby authorized to assign and set apart a portion of a car or compartment assigned for passengers for one race to passengers of the other race.

Section 4. That all railroad companies shall furnish first and second-class passenger accommodations.

Section 5. That any railroad company failing to comply in good faith with the requirements of this act shall be liable to a penalty of $1,000 per day, to be recovered in an action brought against such company by the railroad commissioners or the officers succeeding to their powers in the county of Wake and covered into the State Treasury.

Section 6. That this act shall be in force from and after its ratification.

THE STATE LAW-MAKERS.

What They are Doing in the House and Senate.

SENATE.

The following were among the bills introduced: By Senator Travis, for the support of the Soldiers' Home; for the relief of ex-Confederate soldiers; by Senator Glenn, that no bills shall be introduced after the 24th of February; to incorporate the Winston-Salem Gas and Lighting Company; by Senator Liadsay, to purge the public schools of certain histories. (This bill declares that it will be a misdemeanor to teach a history in this State that styles the civil war "The war of the rebellion," or that calls Confederates "rebels" or "traitors".)

The bill to increase the permanent school fund by devoting about $150,000 in 4 per cent. bonds to the use of the permanent school fund passed second reading.

At 2 o'clock the Senate adjourned in honor of George Washington's birthday.

THE HOUSE.

The following bills were introduced: By Overman, to allow Salisbury to issue bonds for electric lights; also to submit to the people of Rowan the question whether whiskey shall be manufactured and sold there; by Allen, of Wayne, to abolish the railroad commission and establish the railroad, insurance, banking and building and loan commission; by Winston, to regulate elections; (this being a new law); by Overman, to employ John M. Julian to prepare the side notes to the captions of the acts of the present Legislature.

Under a suspension of the rules the last named bill passed.

On Mr. Holman's motion the House, at 10.20, went into committee of the whole on the revenue act, beginning with section B, taking it up by sections.

At 1.30 the House took up the separate car bill. Mr. Craige offered a substitute for the whole matter. The bill passed its third reading. The text of the bill is printed elsewhere in the Sun.

At 2.30, on motion of Mr. Wall, the House took a recess until 8 p. m., in memory of George Washington's birthday.

NIGHT SESSION.

The House was called to order at 8 p. m., Mr. Overman in the chair, and the following bills were passed: To establish a dispensary at Greensboro; to incorporate the Guilford Power Company.

By unanimous vote the House decided to withdraw the charges of impeachment against Judge W. L. Norwood, his resignation having been accepted.

Bills passed their final reading: To abolish the Criminal Circuit composed of Buncombe, Madison, Haywood, Henderson and McDowell; to authorize Raleigh to issue bonds; to authorize Lincolnton to issue bonds for sewerage and water-works; to incorporate Goldsboro; to allow Beaufort county to issue bonds and levy a special tax; to allow Shelby to issue bonds; to allow Alamance county to issue bonds for permanent road improvements ($100,000); to allow Mecklenburg county to issue bonds to macadamize and improve roads ($100,000); to allow Cabarrus county to issue bonds.

Fayetteville Observer: There was 43 feet of water in the Cape Fear at 8 o'clock Monday morning with the water falling. The high-water mark for the freshet was reached during Sunday night 43½ feet.

Winston Sentinel: Miss Louise Helsabeck died Sunday afternoon near Rural Hall. She was 70 years old. She received a stroke of paralysis a few days ago and this was the cause of her death.

Fayetteville Observer: Henry Hales, the man captured in Beavertown Friday night charged with homicide, by Sheriff Burns and Deputies E. E. Gorham and E. D. Pigford, was taken to Carthage Monday afternoon by Mr. Gorham to be turned over to the authorities there.

Winston Journal: Mrs. Carrie Jenkins Harris of Washington City, has written a book entitled "State Trials," which is said to be a work of value. Mrs. Harris is a native of North Carolina and a sister of Capt. Robert Jenkins of Salem, and is a frequent contributor to the magazines, under the pen name of Chales Edward Lloyd.

There was a deep regret here today at the news of the death of Rev. Dr. Bennett Smedes, rector of St. Mary's School, which occurred at 6.20 this morning and which was due to pneumonia. He was sick only a week and his last act was to sign a check for the poor during last week's dreadful blizzard. Dr. Smedes was almost 55 years of age, and was the son of Rev. Dr. Albert Smedes, who was for a quarter of a century rector of St. Mary's. Rev. Dr. Bennett Smedes had as teacher and as rector, spent over 30 years of his life at the school. He was in all respects a truly admirable man. His death will be deplored all over the State. He is the last of his name, in the male line, as his brothers all died comparatively young.—Raleigh correspondent Charlotte Observer.
