License Granted Requirement of Tax Collector.	Office to be in Salisbury—Capital Stock $300,000.	They Have Taken an Active Hand in the Matter.	Items Picked Up by the Reporter on His Daily Round.	Building Going On—Lutherans Select Church Lot.	Happenings of the Commonwealth Briefly Told.
The city aldermen met in regular session at the city hall last night. The Salisbury Telephone Company asked for a franchise for twenty-five years. This was referred to the city attorney. It was moved that the tax collector be required to meet the finance committee on May 4th, prepared to settle all taxes. The request of the merchants to have the fire bell tolled as a signal for closing stores was not granted. The aldermen thought it was not wise as it might interfere with the fire company. License to retail liquors was granted to John W. Hammill, Moyle Bros., John Moyle, D. L. Arey, H. C. Trott, J. T. Harrison and P. W. Brown. License to sell malt liquors to J. C. The principal office will be in Salisbury. The company will operate in Rowan and Cabarrus counties, and its charter is for 60 years. It will do mining, working and manufacturing of ore, minerals, metals and earths. The capital stock is $300,000. South Yadkin S. S. P. Murphy, Miss M. L. Carter, Miss Jennie Brown, Mrs. Jerry Brown, Miss Minnie Crenshaw, Mrs. P. B. Beard, Miss L. Wharton, Mrs. C. F. Allen, Mrs. S. W. Harry, Miss Bertha Knox, Miss Mary Watson, Merle Dupuy, Mrs. S. S. Cole, Mrs. Carrie McAlister, Mrs. Sue Cole Smith, Miss Sallie Shelton Smith. W. C. T. U. Mrs. F. V. Barrier, B. B. Overman, who has been sick for some time, is improving, and it is hoped, will soon be out again. Mr. J. A. Rusher, who has opened a grocery store on corner of Inniss and Lee streets, will also handle fresh meat. The Southern has had fences built along the railroad from the covered bridge toward the depot, between the railroad and the side walks. There being protracted services at the Methodist church and because of the absence of the pastor of the First Presbyterian church, there will be no services at the latter church this evening. Dr. J. N. Stallings will preach at Calvary next Saturday at 2 p. m., and Sunday at 11 a. m.; at Pisgah Saturday at 7:45 p. m.; at Fall's Sunday, at 3 p. m. and at the Academy on Chestnut Hill, Sunday, at 7:45 p. m.	Mr. Jacob Yost, of the St. Paul settlement, is hauling lumber on his lots at Faith where he will build. This is a good place for any one to locate, for any kind of business, because the granite that is moving off from here in a continual stream is moving money back in another stream. The money comes to pay for the granite, and he who does business here of any kind has a good chance to handle some of these dollars. The WEEKLY SUN is a regular visitor to many homes here. Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Heilig, of Salisbury, passed through Faith and he left an order with J. T. Wyatt for granite curbing for his front yard. Capt. J. A. Arey, of near China Grove, was at Faith last week. He brought along some nice curiosities for some of the little ones in his settlement and sold them to the Faith museum. Among them were some nice Indian arrowheads and two long-handled gourds measuring four feet, four and three quarter inches in length. Mr. Hinceman has a pair of calves, twins. There were three sermons preached and one Sunday school at Faith Sunday. This is one of the signs of good times. The largest building here doesn't hold the people who come to preaching. The Lutherans selected the lot for their church Sunday on D. A. Wiley's land—a beautiful sandy knoll. Peeler Bros. and J. W. Frick have their new saw mill running, down the country. D. A. Frick has completed a handsome residence for his father-in-law, J. F. Castor, near Rock Grove church, and is now putting up one for J. M. Eller, near Organ Church. Mr. Eller is now in Danville, but will move when his house is completed. The public roads are now worse than we have ever seen them. Faith, April 11.	Stock is being subscribed for a cotton seed oil mill at Concord, the capital stock for the beginning being $40,000. It is reported that there were several mad dogs in upper Cleveland county last week. Several dogs and hogs were bitten. Saturday night the Statesville Democratic convention nominated R. R. Clark, editor of the Statesville Landmark, for mayor. The nomination was by acclamation. Ed. Chambers Smith says there appears to be no doubt that Raleigh will get another cotton mill; that $125,000 has been raised and that the Holts will put up the other $75,000. Cards are out announcing the marriage of Miss Annie Lee Shober, of Greensboro, to Mr. J. A. Gorham, of Charlotte. The ceremony will take place in the First Presbyterian church, Greensboro, April 27th. Mr. J. P. Caldwell, editor of the Charlotte Observer, who has been sick at his home in Statesville, is improving. He is not yet able to be out of bed, however, and will probably be kept from his office for several weeks yet. The "Tolar-Hart & Holt Mills" have been incorporated at Fayetteville by the secretary of state, with a capital stock of $100,000. The incorporators are W. L. Holt, John R. Tolar, J. H. Hart, J. R. Tolar, Jr., and E. H. Williamson. Bids are being received for the erection of the Carr building at State University which will cost $15,000. No bids will be received after the 14th of April, and the contracts will be awarded and building commenced as soon thereafter as possible. The Supreme Court yesterday afternoon filed an opinion in the case of State of North Carolina vs. W. H. Day. Justice Montgomery wrote the opinion, which reverses the decision of the Superior Court and declares Day entitled to the office of superintendent of the penitentiary. Robert Whittemore, probably the most noted blockader in the State, was captured in Big Ivy yesterday by Deputy Marshal Chambers and ex-Deputy Collector F. H. Reeves. Whittemore is regarded as a dangerous customer by every revenue man in the fifth district.—Asheville Gazette.
A Treat in Store. It is now definitely settled that Hickory Camp No. 49, Woodmen of the World, will present that popular temperance play, "The Social Glass," in the opera house during the latter part of next month. The Woodmen have had this matter in view for some time and in selecting a play it was the desire of the order to present something that would add to the moral good of the community. This play has the endorsement of the press and pulpit and is said to be one of the finest temperance pieces ever written. The play is in five acts and requires nine characters, six male and three female. A strong cast will be selected and our people may expect a treat when "The Social Glass" is presented.	Wedding. M. S. Brown, of Salisbury, and Miss Frances Wortham, of Richmond, are to be married this evening at 7:30 o'clock in Richmond. They go to Atlantic City for a while and will visit Salisbury next month. Joined U. S. Army. George Murphy, son of Mr. J. A. Horah went over to Greensboro this morning.	The Famous Mexican Bull Fighters. This mammoth organization of Mexican Matadors, Espadas, Toreros, Banderilleros, Capeadores, Picadores and Chulais, will give a true representation of Mexico's National Sport, the Bull Fight, in Salisbury Saturday April 15th. Prominent among this noted caudrilla of Mexicans is Antonio Fernandez, the greatest of all Mexican Bull Fighters. This renowned Matador will appear at each and every performance. His inconceivable suppleness and agility, while tormenting the formidable bull, is unrivaled in his native country. The honor bestowed upon him for his daring exploits entitles him Matador De Antonio Fernandez. Admission 25c.	Personal. M. L. This report was untrue as there is no smallpox in the town or county. The woman who, it was said, had the disease, was seen by Dr. W. W. McKenzie, and he tells us she has roseola. People should be careful not to start or keep a-going such reports. Building Notes. Contractor Lefler is finishing one house on Chestnut Hill and Contractor Loflin is finishing two on the Hill. Both of them went to Hickory this morning for lumber. Mr. Loflin will begin houses near North Main street next week for Messrs. Will and Sam Johnston. Will Give It a Trial. I will close my store early for the remainder of this week, and after that time unless all close early I will remain open as formerly. Some went close early for the simple reason that others do and they get trade thereby at night. D. M.
