ALLISON-NEELY NUPTIALS.

A Pretty Home Wedding Here Yesterday Evening

At Mr. J. Sam McCubbins' handsome home on South Main street at 7 o'clock yesterday evening there was a pretty home wedding.

Rev. T. J. Allison and Miss Bessie F. Neely were the contracting parties.

The interior of the house had been daintily decorated in flowers and evergreens.

Miss Lillian Foust played the wedding march as the bridal party entered the parlor. Little Misses Rachel Gill, of Statesville and Frances Harry, of Greensboro, flower girls, came down the stairs followed by little Miss Mildred McCubbins bearing the ring on a waiter. These little ladies were all sweetly dressed in white organdie. The bride entered with her maid of honor, Miss Beulah Witherspoon, of Newton; the groom advanced from the rear of the hall with Rev. W. R. McLeland, of Statesville, the bride and groom meeting at the archway that forms the entrance to the parlor. Here the ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. Kumpfle.

A number of friends witnessed the ceremony. There were many valuable and handsome presents.

Mr. and Mrs. Allison left on the Western for Waynesville to spend a week. They will live at Sugar Creek, where Mr. Allison is pastor of a Presbyterian church.

Mrs. Allison is an accomplished lady and has successfully taught in schools in Salisbury, Charlotte and Statesville.

Mr. Allison, pastor Sugar Creek church, has had among his charges Elmwood and Third Creek churches in Concord Presbytery, and the church at Waycross, Ga. He is a graduate of Davidson College and is one of the most earnest and useful members of Mecklenburg Presbytery.

Reception Postponed.
The reception of Rowan Lodge No. 100, which it was announced several days ago, was to be held Monday night, June the 19th, has been postponed on account of the hot weather and because a few of the prominent leaders in the reception can not be present on that night.

The SUN is assured that it will be given later in the season.

Mr. F. F. Speddin, of the Spencer shops, received a telegram yesterday afternoon announcing the critical illness of his father and sister and left this morning for Baltimore to visit them. Mr. Speddin's father lives in Baltimore and his sister in Smyrna, Delaware.

WILLING TO SELL.

Probably No Trouble for City to Buy the Water Works.

Mayor Lord has, in answer to letters written by him upon instruction of the committee of which he is chairman, received letters from several civil engineers. This correspondence is in regard to surveying for the purpose of ascertaining the amount of bonds needed for the putting in of a system of sewerage.

Mayor Lord has also received a letter from the Water Works Company, and we understand, they express a willingness to sell the water works to the city. There will probably be no trouble in making the purchase. The purchase price is to be fixed by a committee, one representing the city and one representing the company, to be called in if necessary.

The committee will have a meeting the first of next week.

Not True.
Every newspaper, we suppose, is imposed upon occasionally by its correspondents in furnishing incorrect news, and the SUN is no exception.

Mr. S. J. Poreh, who it was stated yesterday, was to take charge of the Baldwin Locomotive Works, at Philadelphia, Pa., informs us that such is not the case. We are sorry the error occurred and gladly make the correction; and further, the SUN is glad to hear that Mr. Poreh will remain at the Southern's shops at Spencer.

Dedication of Cathedral at Valdese.
July 4th the new Church or Cathedral, for it is entitled to that name, at Valdese, is expected to be dedicated. It is built of solid stone and is the work throughout of the colony at that place. Its cost is estimated at about $10,000, rating work at European instead of American wages. It is a marvel of architectural beauty and reminds one of the old world rather than the new. We are gratified to know that the crops of the colony are excellent this year and that the people are in good health.—Morganton Herald.

Slight Wreck on Western.
Yesterday's Asheville Citizen says:
Two freight trains collided at Paint Rock about 1:30 to-day. One of Conductor Barber's arms was badly sprained. One engine was badly damaged. No. 12 was delayed 20 minutes by the collision.

Closed Several Days.
The electro-plating plant of Messrs. Finger and Anthony has been closed for several days on account of breakage and repairs on the engine. The proprietors hope to begin operation again some time to-day.

The School Concert, To-night.
It is strenuously requested that Ladies and Misses attending the Neave School concert to-night, will wear no head-gear that—in the least—obstructs a clear view of all the bright and promising young performers. It feels constraining to the music parlor, it is hoped that she will remove it from her head to her lap during the concert. Woman, bare headed, as she should be indoors, whether in parlor, concert or church, seems to personify the Poet's dream of an ideal womanhood, viz., "She was neatly and plainly dressed, because she needed no lavish outward adornment; for winsome, womanly attractiveness—at any age—asserts itself without any meretricious external trappings."

N. B.—Bodily and lingual movement should be restrained, by reason and will because such noise disconcerts the pupils' performance.
Respectfully,
W. H. N.

SKETCHES OF N. C. REGIMENTS.

Col. Burgwyn Writing the One of the 35th Regiment.

Col. W. H. S. Burgwyn, now national bank examiner again, but who so efficiently commanded the Second Regiment, N. C. Volunteers during the Spanish war, is preparing a sketch of the Thirty-fifth N. C. Regiment, C. S. A., one of the many immortal regiments of heroes contributed by North Carolina to the Confederate Army, in pursuance of the arrangements made by the last legislature.

It will be remembered that the General Assembly last March made a small appropriation to cover the actual cost of printing and binding, etc., for the publication of sketches of all the North Carolina regiments in the War between the States of which Judge Walter Clark has general supervision.

The Raleigh Post says Col. Burgwyn's work, like that of Col. Clark, is a labor of love, and it will be faithfully and intelligently done. He is now in Raleigh hunting up some data and details to which he can secure access nowhere else.

Col. Capers
The Sunny South has this of a visit from Col. Capers who has recently come to Salisbury:

We have been refreshed by a most pleasing call from this distinguished Carolina friend, but who is now located in or near beautiful Nacoochee valley, in north Georgia. His exuberant spirits do not wane nor does his pen grow dull and rusty. He has just been confirmed by Bishop Nelson in the Episcopal church, and on last Sabbath evening he delivered an impressive lecture in the cathedral on "Christ Before Pilate" for the benefit of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew. He is a brother to the distinguished Bishop Ellison Capers, of South Carolina fame and memory, and has held many places of trust and responsibility. Long life and much happiness to our friend and brother.

Crushed Granite Wanted.
There is a big demand for crushed granite all over the country for various purposes.

J. T. Wyatt, of Faith, continues to receive calls for it from all over the country. He has just received a letter from Georgia to know what he would charge per car load on board cars at Salisbury.

Mr. Wyatt says he would like to have a partner to help him put up a crusher on the side track at Woodside, so that he could fill the orders that he is constantly receiving. If he had a crusher up he could supply the demand and this would put more money in old Rowan. Our granite is known to be the hardest and best for all kinds of purposes.

To Greensboro.
This quad of men who have been putting up the Postal Telegraph Company's poles and wires in Salisbury have finished the work. They left last night for Greensboro.

The National House.
Mr. Jim Ramsay, who stays at Holmes' store, has taken charge of the National House. Mr. Jim Burkehead is clerk and is ready to wait on the public.

At the Central.
Mr. O. W. Spencer's place, the Central hotel, is undergoing some changes. New carpets are being placed, rooms renovated and other work is being done.

It will always be a source of regret to you if you miss the bargain offered in embroideries at Harry Bros.

Complaint is made by the Wilmington Messenger that the good old word "function" is being worn threadbare by people who talk of "social functions."
