Some Havemeyer Sayings.

Washington Post.
Here are some of Mr. Havemeyer's phrases:

The mother of all trusts is the tariff bill.

There appears to be in the public mind a distinction between robbery by an individual and by a corporation.

What is commendable in an individual appears to be dishonest in a corporation.

The day of the individual has passed.

If the mass of the people profit at the expense of the individual, the individual must and should go.

It is a good business proposition to get out of the consumer all you can.

Hands off? Every man for himself and the devil take the hindmost.

If the farmers are not satisfied, let them get together and form their own trust.

I have never known a corporation to have anybody under its thumb very long.

Citizens are divided into two classes—the industrious and those who wish to live by the industry of others. It is they who are without capital who are hostile to it. This is only another mode of stating the obvious proposition that it is those who are without means who wish to have it without work.

We are not in business for philanthropic motives. If we sell cheaply it is for the purpose of crushing competition, and we will even up afterwards.

Marriageable Ages.

In Germany a man must be at least 18 years of age before he can marry.

In Portugal a boy of 14 is considered marriageable and a woman at 12.

In Greece the man must have seen at least fourteen summers and the woman twelve.

In France he must be 18 and the woman 16. In Belgium the same ages.

In Spain the intended husband must have passed his fourteenth year and the woman her twelfth.

In Switzerland men from the age of 14 and women from the age of 12 are allowed to marry.

In Austria a "man" and a "woman" are supposed to be capable of conducting a home of their own from the age of 14.

In Turkey any youth and maiden who can walk properly and can understand the necessary religious service are allowed to marry.

In Hungary the man must be 18 years and the woman 15.

In Russia and Saxony they are a little more sensible, and a youth must refrain from entering into matrimony till he can count 18 years and a woman till she can count 16.

Alexander Dewitt, who has lived in Poughkeepsie, N. Y., for the past forty years practically on the bounty of his friends, is now dead, and it is found that he has left a fortune of $40,000. Of this he has bequeathed $39,000 to a nephew, who once sent him $15, and who is the only relative who ever manifested any interest in his welfare.

De Witt's Little Early Risers act as a faultless pill should, cleansing and reviving the system instead of weakening it. They are mild and sure, small and pleasant to take, and entirely free from objectionable drugs. They assist rather than compel. James Plummer.

Thomas Thurman, deputy sheriff of Troy, Mo., says if everyone in the United States should discover the virtue of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve for piles, rectal troubles and skin diseases, the demand could not be supplied. James Plummer.

Kodol Dyspepsia cure completely digests food within the stomach and intestines and renders all classes of food capable of being assimilated and converted into strength giving and tissue building substances. James Plummer.
