THE NEGRO CAUGHT.

In Anson and Brought to Jail at Albemarle.

Parties coming up on the Yadin this morning brought the news that the negro who attempted to assault the 12-year-old girl at Albemarle Thursday, had been captured.

The large searching party kept close after the negro and finally captured him in Anson county, 18 miles from Norwood yesterday evening.

He was brought back to Albemarle last night, the crowd passing through Norwood about 2 o'clock and arriving at Albemarle at 6 this morning when the prisoner was placed in jail.

It seems that the crowd which captured the negro did not try to lynch him, but it is thought there may be a lynching bee to-night.

The Concord Standard gives the following particulars of the negro's attempt to assault or murder:

About 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon when little Mary Saunders, the 10-year-old daughter of Mr. William Saunders, of Albemarle, went from her home to the railroad trestle near the public road, to change the cow from its place of grazing a burly and vicious negro, Henry Hyatt by name, approached her and drew from his pocket a pistol, and after making his wishes known, brutally attempted to criminally assault her, at the same time threatening to kill her if she gave an alarm. Mary's little brother had accompanied her, however, and when he learned of the negro's purposes he began to scream. The agonizing cries of the two children attracted the attention of Mr. Lowder, who was passing, and as he came in view of the scene, the brute let go his hold upon the little girl and fled.

The negro was foiled in his hellish intent, and succeeded in eluding the range of bullets from Mr. Lowder's pistol.

The alarm was spread over the town and community in a very little while, and within a short time quite a posse of men were in pursuit of the negro.

From a party direct from that community the Standard learns that the people are indignant and that if the negro is captured summary punishment will be his lot.

The child was uninjured except being rendered prostrate from fright. She is of a highly respected family.

The negro is a son of Henry Hyatt, a one armed negro who lives at Cottonville.

From the Narrows.

A. Madole, assistant engineer of the work at the Narrows, was here this morning going to Spartanburg, S. C.

His son and daughter were also here on their way to Pennsylvania where they go to attend school.

Chief Eglehart and Mr. Smith, draftsman, were here this morning on their way to Baltimore.

Sycamores Peeling Off.

Mr. J. B. Kerns tells us that sycamore trees are shedding their old rough bark.

This does not occur every year. Will some one who knows please enlighten us as to how often the shedding occurs?

CHANGE IN STAR ROUTES.

Postal Changes That Effect Several Offices in Rowan.

Changes in the postal star routes are soon to be made that will effect several offices in Rowan county.

The government advertises for bids to be submitted within ten days for carrying the mail from Verble by Bingham to Salisbury three times a week. This goes into effect September 19th and the contract will cover the time till June 1st, 1900.

Woodleaf will be furnished by the train on the new Mocksville-Mooresville road after August 1st, and a star route will be established from that place to Mt. Vernon.

The route from Rowan to Salisbury will be curtailed, the service to begin at Blackmer, omitting Rowan and Bear Poplar which connect with the new railroad.

It is probable that the Mocksville route will soon be cut in two, one route going from the river to Mocksville, the other from South River to Salisbury.

SCHOOL TRUSTEES MEET.

And Appoint Committeemen For Schools of the Township.

The Board of School Trustees for Salisbury Township met today in the office of the County Superintendent. The board is composed of J. A. Hedrick, chairman; J. B. Kerns, Secretary, and J. E. Hayworth. Committees for the different school districts in the township were elected as follows:

A Hornet Attacks the Crew.

The crew of No. 11, the 12:05 train from Richmond, had an unpleasant experience yesterday. While the train was standing at a station on the route, a hornet attacked the engineer. In fighting it, he knocked it on the fireman; the fireman in turn knocked it on the porter, and the porter on the conductor. The hornet was from Mecklenburg and fought with the spirit of the signers.—Charlotte Observer.

Made Four Holes in Him.

Last night Charlie Graham a young man of Chestnut Hill, was shot with a pistol in the hand of a man named Misenheimer. The bullet went through the fleshy part of Graham's hand and then passed through the calf of his leg.

It is said the shooting was accidental.

Dr. Brown attended the wounded man.

AWFUL OUTRAGE IN GEORGIA.

A Man Sees Two Negroes Assault His Wife.

Bainbridge, Ga., July 21.—At 8 o'clock last night two negroes entered the store of J. E. Ogletree, which adjoins the depot at Saffold, and made a few trivial purchases. When the sales were completed Mr. Ogletree asked for his money. At his demand one of the negroes presented a pistol at the agent's head and said: "I owe you nothing. We are robbers and want your money." Ogletree emptied his pockets, the other negro standing guard at the front door.

Then the two negroes ordered Ogletree to march up stairs where Mrs. Ogletree was and they ordered her to give up what money she had. She gave them $4, and while one of the brutes held a pistol to Ogletree's head the other one assaulted her. Then the other committed the same deed. About this time a train was heard coming to the station, and the negroes fled in the direction of the Chattahoochee river.

Five Italians Strung Up. Tallulah, La., July 21.—Five Italians were lynched here last night for the fatal wounding of Dr. J. Ford Hodge. The dead men are of a class which has been troublesome for some time, and it is believed that they had planned to kill the doctor. Some of them, it is said, have families in Europe, but they have no relatives here.

Two Deaths in one Family. A gentleman who came in from Mooresville to-day reports the death of Mrs. E. F. Brawley and her daughter, Miss Oona, which occurred last night. The mother died about 12:30 and the daughter an hour later. Typhoid fever was the cause of their deaths. They were sick only a week or two. The funeral services were to be held this afternoon and it was understood that the mother and daughter would be buried in the same grave. Our informant says there are several cases of fever in Mooresville.—Winston Sentinel.

The company has not yet selected an office here.—Winston Sentinel.

The young man Chas. Ridges, who did a big business in forged county orders in Randolph, was tried in the Supreme Court at Asheville Monday and convicted in two cases. He was given 30 months on the chain gang in the first case and 14 months in the second. The defendant appealed, gave bond in the sum of $500 and was released.

Freaks of Lightning. While the lawyers were here in the court house Saturday night arguing a case involving the ownership of the Fort hotel, at Wake Forest, the hotel was struck by lightning and damaged some $200 worth.

A man living near Garner, this county, had lightning rods put on his house. The agent completed the job about noon. That evening a storm came up. The lightning struck his house, ran down the rod and killed a calf standing close to it. Next day the man had the lightning rod taken down, swearing he'd have no such infernal thing around killing his cattle.—Raleigh News & Observer.

Water Company Sued. Capt. B. J. Fisher, through his attorney, Col. John N. Staples, has brought suit returnable at December term of court, against the Greensboro Water Company, charging failure to have a sufficient water pressure, at the time his hotel, the Benbow, was burned, to be of any service.

Capt. Fisher will put his damages at $30,000 or $40,000.
