VOL. VI.

SALISBURY, N. C., MONDAY EVENING, OCTOBER 9, 1899.

NO. 33.

ABOUT THE CITY.

General Summary of Local Happenings in and About Salisbury.

Woodmen of the World meet to-morrow night.

The telephone company is putting up nice large poles on Main street.

A child of Mr. Haywood Redwine died on Chestnut Hill yesterday.

Jos. H. McNeely & Co., coal dealers, have a new ad. in the Sun to-day.

The new jewelry store, in the Mansion house will soon be opened.

M. L. Jackson, the butcher, won the race. See his new ad. on fourth page.

The little child of Agent W. G. Crutchfield, of the Southern, is dangerously ill.

Mr. Rouche, of the Sun, is kept at home to-day by the critical illness of his mother.

Mr. Ed. L. Heilig is moving to-day into his house on Council street, near the Baptist church.

Mr. R. L. Wilder, an employe of the Spencer shops, moved his family to Salisbury from Macon, Ga., Saturday.

Painting houses at Coolemeec will soon be commenced. The work will be done by Charlie Howard, of this city.

A big line of men's patent leather shoes, in bals and buttons, comprising all the new lasts and toes. Burt Shoe Co.

Mr. M. L. Jackson, who has been kept at home by sickness for the past week, is again at his post around the butcher's meat block.

The Fair has vacated the room under the opera house and, we understand, a gent's furnishing store may soon be opened there.

The "World Known" $3 shoe and the Crossett $3.50 shoe are two of the great favorites that we are now showing. Burt Shoe Co.

Master Chester Sechler, of China Grove, while scuffling with another boy, fell and broke both bones in his arm just below his elbow.

Mrs. Geo. L. Klutz has moved from Spencer to Mr. P. A. Hartman's. Mr. Klutz, who recently became unbalanced, mentally, is still confined in jail here.

Minstrels have the lead at the opera house this season. Two have been here and another is billed for Saturday. Comedy and drama will be on later.

Mr. Eugene Houser, of the Western, who has been off for several weeks on account of two mashed fingers, reported for duty this morning and will take up his work to-morrow.

J. V. Barringer, who has been staying at the Western Union telegraph office for a few days, has gone back to running his public carriage, and would like for friends to call upon him.

Mrs. Bettie Bringle, of Chestnut Hill, returned from Randleman where she had gone to see her son, Mr. Will Peeler, Saturday night. She is not very much taken with the town. She would much rather live in Salisbury regardless of its dark streets.

Judge Allen Called Here.

Judge Allen passed through last night on his way to his home at Kingston. The judge was presiding over Mitchell court but adjourned it at the end of the first week on receipt of a message announcing sickness in his family at Kingston.

Ladies Coats worth $5 for $2.—Lichtenstein's closing out sale.

FOR RENT: Four desirable rooms for housekeeping. Furnished or unfurnished. Apply to P. O. box 252.

Go to see the Bargain Counter at Lichtenstein's closing out sale.

AT GOLD HILL.

Concentrators and Smelters Arriving for the Union Copper Mine.

The Southern is now receiving concentrators and smelting machinery for the Union Copper Mine at Gold Hill. A car load of this machinery was received Saturday, and three car loads arrived to-day.

Mr. Newman arrived Saturday morning and went down to Gold Hill on a special. This was the first train to run over the two miles of new road, from the mainline of the Yadkin out to the mine.

Mr. Newman was accompanied by Mr. T. C. Buck, of the firm of Samuel Whitney & Co., of New York, and Dr. Robert H. Green. Since the death of his child Mr. Newman has been in bad health and he has as his constant companion his private physician, Dr. Greene. Dr. Greene was formerly physician to Gen. Sherman.

"Nigger" in the Woodshed.

Saturday night Fletcher King, a well-known colored character about town, alarmed the neighborhood on South Church street by cries for help.

Dr. Weaver and others heeded the call for help and found Fletcher suspended in the air in a woodshed with his arm securely fastened in a crack at the top of the shed. Just what King's idea was in climbing to the top of the shed is not known. He will probably "explain" to Mayor Lord when the case is called this afternoon.

A Chafing Dish Party.

Miss Mamie Mock entertained a number of friends Saturday evening from 8:30 to 12 at a chafing dish party. It was a delightful event to the young people present. The game of "Consequences" was played with laughable results. Miss Mock was assisted at the chafing dish by Misses Claudie Mock and Marion Mallett. She is a charming hostess.

Mrs. Poole's Funeral.

The funeral service over the remains of Mrs. O. V. Pool, of Craven, was conducted from St. Matthew's church Saturday by the pastor, Rev. E. W. Leslie. The funeral procession was a long one and a large concourse of friends were at the church.

The interment was made in the cemetery at the church.

In Need of Hands.

The Union Copper Mine, at Gold Hill, we understand, is needing several hundred hands to work. Farmers in the neighborhood are busy with their crops and colored labor doesn't give very good satisfaction. It is possible that foreign labor may have to be introduced.

Macadamizing.

The chain gang has finished the work of widening and grading Main street public road to Spencer, and will begin macadamizing this week. The force will work from the camp to town at present.

STORE ROOM FOR RENT—On Main Street, opposite post office. Good stand for any business. Apply to R. L. Shaver.

"It did me more good than anything I ever used. My dyspepsia was of months' standing, after eating it was terrible. Now I am well," writes S. B. Keener, Hoiington, Kan., of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. It decides what you eat. James Plummer.

SALISBURY, N. C., Oct. 5, 1899. Notice is hereby given that the regular annual meeting of the Dutch Creek Mining Company, will be held in the office of J. J. Newman, in the city of Salisbury, N. C., on the 11th day of October 1899, at 12 o'clock noon, it being the second Wednesday of the month, for the election of officers and for such other business as may come before the meeting.

J. J. NEWMAN, President.

"A FRAUD AND SWINDLE"

Rev. J. M. L. Lyerly's Opinion of His Former Partner at Crescent.

Rev. J. M. L. Lyerly, of Crescent, in the following tale of woe in the last number of Crescent Rays:

Since our last issue of Crescent Rays, we have had the experience of falling a victim to a fraud and professional dead end in the person of H. Marnix, of Norfolk, Va. In June, 1899, a partnership was formed under the title of Lyerly & Marnix, to continue a period of five years. The contract was duly signed by both parties. In July, said H. Marnix came to Crescent with his family, and went into a house specially built for him. For a week he boarded here and then began to nose-keep. He said that he was well pleased with the place; found it just as represented, in fact, said the place was a paradise. School began on August 1st and the "Prof." entered upon his duties. He seemed to give satisfaction for a few weeks, but after collecting money from all the students he could—in two cases for board, washing, tuition and all other expenses, ordering a lot of pens, c. o. d., which his partner had to pay for, getting supplies from the stores at Crescent and Faith on credit, he became greatly dissatisfied, fell out with one of the students, calling him a dog and other ugly names, saying he had not a cent or he would refund the money. He decided to break up housekeeping, shipped his household effects to Norfolk, his wife prepared to go to her folks, but the "Prof." was to stay until Christmas. On Sept. 9th Mrs. M. started to Norfolk, and the honorable "Prof." went to see her off from Salisbury, having pulled down the shades and locked the door of his house for the purpose of deception, but under the pretext of returning, has not been seen in our city since. He absconded, leaving bills, rent, interest, and school accounts all unsettled. None of the students shall lose anything. All of their money shall be made good by myself. I publish this in justification to myself and students, also to warn the public of a fraud. I have nothing to say of his qualifications, as he is a fine penman, but he is a man void of principle.

The firm of Lyerly & Marnix no longer exists.

Prof. James Fisher, a graduate of Roanoke College, is assisting in the school and is giving perfect satisfaction.

Our schooling cost us dear, but it is lasting. J. M. L. LYERLY.

The Law in the Case.

The vaccinating of the children attending the city schools is the result of the following resolution which was passed by the school board at its meeting last Tuesday:

Resolved, That the children attending the graded schools of the city shall be vaccinated by the Health Officers of the county and city within the next eight days, and that after said date unvaccinated children shall not be permitted to attend said schools until they have been vaccinated.

COMING AND GOING

Brief Items About Salisbury and Their Friends.

Jas. Johnson returned last night from Washington.

Mrs. J. E. Smoot, of Concord, is visiting her parents in the city.

J. Ed Young has returned from Raleigh and gone to Alabama to work.

Miss Nellie Cramer came from Thomasville this morning.

Mr. H. C. Carter, a prominent lawyer of Stateville, is in the city to-day.

Judge Avery, of Morganton, was here this morning going to Raleigh to appear before the Supreme court.

Miss Burritt, who has been visiting Miss Janie Klutz, left this morning for her home in Washington.

The Great Show Coming.

It is all very well for the lovers of old time minstrelsy to "holer" for the good old companies with "pomp" and men and genuine minstrel managers to-day come pretty near finding out what the public want and has long since given up any idea of retiring to the old style of minstrelsy. Everything new and up-to-date goes to the extent of giving a person or of the modern negro who never saw the beautiful land of sunny skies, five or six encores, while the minstrel who tries to do anything but an up-to-date con, gets much less appreciation. The managers of "The Great Southern Minstrelsy" are entitled to no small credit, in as much as this, their greatest and latest venture bespeaks a liberal amount of real genius and an investment of capital which approaches a great deal more ordinary generosity. The most extravagant expenditures have been made in engaging the best talent available. Special attention has been given to the vocal and musical portion of the entertainment, as well as the comedians and specialty artists. Reserved seats at Klutz's Drug Store.

State Fair.

The State Fair will be on in Raleigh next week. Prospects are for a very large attendance and an excellent fair. The State Fair should interest all North Carolinians and all from this section who can should take advantage of the cheap rates offered by the Southern and attend.

Tickets will be sold on October 14th, 15th, 16th, 17th and 20th for one fare for the round trip, plus 50 cents for one admission into the Fair.

Special rate October 18th and 19th, $2.00 round trip, plus 50 cents for one admission into the Fair. Final limits for all tickets October 23rd.

Dinner to Bride and Groom.

Rev. Mr. Davenport and bride came up from Concord Saturday night and left this morning for Graham where they will spend awhile with Mr. John McCracken before going to Mr. Davenport's charge at Coinjock.

Yesterday a dinner was given the couple at the home of Mrs. Barrier, the bride's sister.

Last night Mr. Davenport preached to a large congregation at the Baptist church.

Joseph Stockford, Hodgdon, Me., healed a sore running for seventeen years and cared his piles of long standing by using DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. It cures all skin diseases. James Plummer.

THE WORK OF FRIENDS.

Residence of S. C. Holder, of Anson, Riddled With Bullets.

Wadesboro Messenger-Intelligencer: There was perpetrated in Lilesville township Sunday morning at 3 o'clock one of the most diabolical outrages it has been the province of the Messenger and Intelligencer to record. The residence of a good and peaceful citizen was surrounded by would-be assassins and, while the occupants slept, the miserably scoundrels opened fire upon it with a Winchester rifle and pistols. Mr. S. Z. Holder, who lives on Pee Dee river, is the gentleman whose home was so ruthlessly fired into.

He and his family, consisting of a wife and grown daughter, were awakened at 3 o'clock in the morning by the shooting. Those doing the shooting were concealed in an old unoccupied house about one hundred and seventy-five yards from Mr. Holder's residence and in front of it. While the women sought safety in the back part of the house Mr. Holder went to the front door to reconnoitre. Through a glass panel on the side of the door he could see at least two parties standing in the doorway of the old house, and when they fired he could see them well enough from the powder's flash to tell that they were white men and that one of them wore a mustache. While looking through the glass panel a bullet that had penetrated the house struck a lock and rebounding hit Mr. Holder on the foot, but did not hurt him much. Another bullet entered the house so near his head that it threw splinters in his face.

Mr. Holder thinks he could have slipped from the house to some woods near by and captured or shot his assailants. He did get his gun and start to do this, but his wife and daughter clung to him so he could not shake them off. As stated above, Mr. Holder is a good citizen and a Confederate veteran, and the shooting into his house—at least forty-eight bullets in all were fired into it—is an outrage that calls for the most condign punishment should the perpetrators of it be captured.

Spencer Notes.
