ACCIDENTALLY SHOT.	DR. W. A. NEWMAN MARRIED.	HOME WEDDING.	THANKSGIVING SERVICES.	LAST SPAN IN PLACE.	DELIGHTFUL GERMAN.	NEWS OF THE STATE.
Master Ed Neave Received a Load in His Arm Pit. The number of accidents in the county yesterday was very small considering the number of people using guns out hunting. We have heard of only one serious accident. That befell young Ed Neave, son of Mr. E. B. Neave. He was out at Mr. Charlie McKenzie's, near China Grove, when, in taking a gun from the buggy the hammer struck an axle and the weapon was discharged, the load entering his body at his left arm pit. As soon as possible the boy was brought home and placed in the Stokes-Whitehead sanatorium. The wound is painful and quite serious but not necessarily fatal.	Dr. W. A. Newman Married. Ceremony in Richmond Wednesday Afternoon. Dr. W. A. Newman, of this city, of the staff of the W. G. Newman, Jr., hospital, was married in Richmond, Va., Wednesday afternoon to Miss Mary Lee Page. The Richmond News, of Wednesday says: "Owing to a recent bereavement in the family of Mrs. Leigh R. Page, the marriage of her daughter, Miss Mary Lee Page, to Dr. Walter A. Newman, of Salisbury, N. C., which took place to-day, at 2 o'clock p. m., from her mother's residence, 512 west Franklin street, was witnessed only by the immediate families of the contracting couple. The ceremony was performed by Dr. J. J. Gravatt, of Holy Trinity church. After a wedding breakfast, Dr. and Mrs. Newman left for an extended wedding journey."	Mr. O. R. Sweet and Miss Mills Married—Left for Portsmouth. Mr. O. R. Sweet, of Portsmouth, Va., and Miss Jennie Whitehead Mills, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Mills, this city, were married at 9 o'clock Wednesday evening at the home of the bride, on Innis street, Rev. Dr. F. J. Murdoch officiating. The affair was a quiet home wedding, only a few relatives and intimate friends being present to witness the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Sweet were the recipients of quite a number of nice and useful presents. Mr. Sweet is electrician for the Southern Railway Company at Pinner's Point, Va., and was for some time electrician for the Southern at the Spencer shops, but was promoted several months ago. He is a splendid young man and made many friends while here. Mrs. Sweet was one of Salisbury's charming young ladies. She will be missed by a circle of friends. The bride and groom left on train 34 Wednesday night for Portsmouth, Va., the groom's home.	Orphans Remembered at the Churches of the City. Services were conducted at nearly all of the city churches yesterday—Thanksgiving services—and at most of them collections were taken for the orphans. At the First Presbyterian church yesterday morning a collection amounting to $100 was taken for the Barium Springs Orphanage, and a large box of good things was also contributed. Dr. Brooks preached at the Methodist church yesterday morning. The congregation was rather small. A collection was taken for the Oxford Orphanage. At the Baptist regular church service was held. The collection was for the Thomasville Orphanage. Service was held at the Lutheran church at 11 o'clock. Rev. Mr. Busby read a Psalm and announced the subjects. There were three by as many speakers, the subjects and speakers being, what we have to thank God for nationally and civilly, Jno. M. Julian; what are we to be thankful for educationally, Prof. C. L. Coon; what are we to be thankful for religiously, Rev. Mr. Busby. The collection was for the Lutheran orphanage at Salem, Va. Last night at the Methodist church a special Thanksgiving service was conducted by the Epworth League. Mr. H. T. Simpson read the scripture lesson. Several nice addresses were made by Messrs. P. N. Peacock, Geo. F. Seyffert and Rev. J. W. Jones. The collection was for the Brevard school.	The Steel Bridge Will be Ready for Traffic Soon. A large number of Salisburyans drove out to the river yesterday to see the new toll bridge, now in course of erection. The last span of the structure had been placed and persons were able to walk across to the Davidson side. The floor and sides are yet to be put on, but the bridge will be ready for travel within the next few days. At a meeting to be held next week the company will elect a toll keeper and decide upon the price of toll.	Given by the Young Men Wednesday Evening. A pleasant german was given in the opera house by the young men of the city Wednesday night. There were eleven couples present. The German was led by Mr. Ernest Brown in his most attractive style. Dancing began at 10 o'clock and was continued until a late hour. A dozen or more visitors dropped in during the evening and enjoyed the day.	Condensed From Exchanges—Tar Heel Happenings. The railroad business at Lexington has doubled this year compared with last. The University of North Carolina football team defeated the Georgia boys at Atlanta yesterday, five to nothing. Madam Elrado, the palmist and fortune teller, expects to invest recent earnings in a poultry farm near Durham. A. B. Covington, brother of R. G. Covington, of Wadesboro, committed suicide at Camden, S. C., Tuesday. He failed to win a woman's love. While making some blackboard demonstrations in the room of the fourth grade of the Union school of Wilmington, Tuesday, Miss Leo. B. Cameron, the teacher, dropped dead. Mr. Willie L. Smith, while on a hunting trip up Northeast river yesterday, killed a wild cat, which measured 5 feet 3 inches from "tip to tip." He was exhibiting it to friends last night and will have the hide stuffed as a souvenir of the day's sport.—Wilmington Star. Mr. P. C. Cowling, of Chicago, has bought about 1,000 acres of land in the country a few miles north of Greensboro. He proposes to use the land for a stock farm for sheep, goats, hogs and cattle. Mr. Cowling has been in the business for years and is thoroughly experienced. The artesian well at Wilmington gives out salt water, and State Geologist Holmes, upon careful examination, reports, so the Dispatch tells us, that the source of the water is in the sand hills near Fayetteville, and there it is fresh, but it passes over a salt bed between Fayetteville and Wilmington. Fresh water may be reached, however, Professor Holmes thinks by deeper boring. The Star says that Mr. L. A. Gettys, of Cleveland, the monazite dealer, shipped 218,000 pounds of monazite to his house at Gloucester, N. J., last Thursday. On the same day he bought 16,000 pounds from Blanton & Co. This shipment filled four cars and represented what he has bought in the last three weeks. Mr. Gettys speaks hopefully of the rise in price of cheap sand at an early day. The crowning social event in Durham's history came off Wednesday night when Miss Annie Louise Watts, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Watts, became the wife of Mr. John Sprunt Hill, of New York. The affair was solemnized in the First Presbyterian church at 8:30 o'clock by Dr. L. B. Turnbull. The bridal party left, after the reception, over the Seaboard Air Line, in the private car of E. St. John, vice president and general manager of the Seaboard. The train, due to leave at 10 o'clock, was held until after the reception.
Visit of Mr. Thaeler. Rev. A. D. Thaeler, of Winston, delivered an address at the First Presbyterian church Wednesday night. He is president of the State Christian Endeavor and his presence here was for the purpose of paying a visit to and addressing the society at this place. His principal theme was the deepening of spiritual life.	The Building & Loan Association. The Association, after being quiet a long time, has begun to make loans again. In prosperous times it borrowed much money and loaned it out, but has deemed it wiser to pay off its borrowed money. It has reduced this debt from $38,000 to less than $16,000, and intends to pay off the remainder at the rate of $5,000 per annum. It has to pay between now and April 1st, 1900, only $1,000 more on its debts and $1,100 for stock that has matured. All its receipts until April 1st, in excess of these amounts will be loaned out. The payments made to the Association show that times are more prosperous than they were a year ago.	Opera House. Manager Marsh has secured for the patrons of his house, the special engagement, for two nights, commencing Monday Dec. 4th, of the Herald Square Opera Company of New York. This is an organization of twenty artists, all of recognized ability and is proclaimed both by press and public as being one of the best companies that is presenting comic opera this season. The cast includes: Etta Stetson, Mae Glover, Lou Humiston, Helen Powers, Harry Nelson, Harry Carter, Thos. Callahan and Geo. J. Williams. There is also a strong and well-drilled chorus. The company will present Monday evening the Chimes of Normandy followed the next evening by the Bohemian Girl. The costumes for both of these operas are very elaborate and the scenic effects grand.	COMING AND GOING. Brief Items About Salisburyans and Their Friends. Lieut. Bailey, of Mocksville, died at the State Normal and Industrial College this morning at 10 o'clock, of typhoid fever. Miss Bailey was 19 years old and had been ill since November 6th. Mr. and Mrs. Bailey were with her at the time of her death. Another daughter, Miss Evelyn, is desperately ill with fever. The sadly distressed parents have been nursing their two daughters for the past fortnight. Miss Fannie Turner, matron at the Normal, died to-night at 10 o'clock of typhoid fever. Miss Turner was 25 years old. She was from Hillsboro and was a niece of Hon. Josiah Turner. Miss Turner had proved herself a heroine in her devoted care for the sick at the Normal and only gave up her duties when compelled to do so by sickness. Her's was a noble character. Greensboro, Nov. 30.—Miss McGowan, of Robeson county, a student at the Normal, died this morning of typhoid fever. She has been sick about ten days. During the last days of her illness she was nursed by her mother, who to-day carried the body of her daughter to her home at Lumber Bridge. The total number of deaths from the fever at the Normal is seven.—Charlotte Observer. Raleigh, Nov. 30.—Dr. Richard H. Lewis, secretary of the State board of health, received to-night a telegram from Dr. Anderson, one of the bacteriologists of the board, stating that the water in the Teague house, a rented dormitory, and at that of the central well, which was used by all the students of the State Normal and Industrial College, recently afflicted with a serious outbreak of typhoid fever, is bad. This fully explains the epidemic and is a cause that can be promptly and completely removed, so that this most useful and popular institution can be re-opened with safety on the date to which it was suspended, January 2, 1900.	ABOUT THE CITY. General Summary of Local Happenings in and About Salisbury. The Rowan Rifles meet to-night for drill. McCulloh has some fine turkeys.
