WEEK OF PRAYER.

Last Night's Service Led by Revs. Atkins and Stallings.

The fourth service of the Week of Prayer was held last evening at the Presbyterian church. On account of the inclement weather the congregation was not as large as on the previous night, nevertheless, the service was most instructive and edifying. The subject of "Foreign Missions" was discussed by Revs. Atkins and Stallings.

Dr. Atkins spoke at length upon the great need of foreign missions, and showed how the present age offered greater opportunities for carrying on this Christian work than any previous age. The speaker was listened to with careful attention throughout his interesting address.

Dr. Stallings followed in a 20 minutes talk upon the same subject. He expressed the opinion that the Church was full of young men and women who were ready and willing to take upon themselves the work of foreign missions, but that the Church was not financially able to send them to the foreign field. What the Church needs is a greater missionary spirit; a greater impetus should be lent to our missionary workers at home, and the people should give more liberally to help on the work of the Church. Let the missionary fund be increased and the Church will have no trouble in securing volunteers to go to the foreign field.

Dr. Stallings spoke earnestly, and his talk throughout was instructive as well as interesting.

After prayer by Dr. Atkins the benediction was pronounced by Rev. Busby.

Rev. C. Brown Cox Called to Knoxville.

The following announcing a call to the son of Rev. Geo. H. Cox, of this county, is taken from the Asheville Gazette:

Rev. C. Brown Cox, pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran church, this city, has received a call from the Lutheran church at Knoxville, Tenn. Mr. Cox is asked to fill the pulpit occupied by his father, George H. Cox, for seventeen years.

Rev. C. Brown Cox received a call from this church several months ago, but declined and the second call came a few days ago urging him to accept. He has not decided whether he will or not.

Mr. Cox has been living in Asheville about two years and has made many warm friends here, who will regret his leaving, and still hope he will not accept.

A Good Salesman.

Mr. J. Rowan Davis, who has been traveling for John R. Cary & Co., wholesale grocers of Richmond, Va., for several years has resigned, and, as noted in yesterday's Sun, has accepted a similar position with Mr. J. K. Link, of this city. Mr. Davis is a good business man and is one of the most popular salesmen on the road, and will be able to bring a large portion of his already well established trade to Salisbury.

STORE AND GOODS BURNED.

Lyerly Bros., of Cleveland, Lose By Early Morning Fire.

The store and stock of goods of Lyerly Bros., Cleveland, were destroyed by fire early this morning. A card received by Mr. J. Allen Brown, from Lyerly Bros., this morning brought the news that the store and stock of goods were destroyed.

These were insured in the Hamburg-Bremen Company, represented by Mr. Brown, for $1,600. The card stated that the fire occurred about 5 o'clock this morning and caught from a nearby warehouse.

We learn that two other buildings, one belonging to Mr. B. A. Knox, and another to Mr. J. T. Carson, were also burned.

Railroad Items.

The Asheville Citizen of the 17th says: The Asheville division of the Southern railway made a record yesterday that probably will not be duplicated in six months. All of the 12 regular passenger trains were exactly on time; the 12 freights from Asheville to Spartanburg consumed only four hours and fifty minutes on the run; the two eastbound fast freights made up two hours and forty minutes on schedule, and the two westbound fast freights left Salisbury and arrived at Morristown exactly "on the dot." Dispatchers, yard men and train crews have earned the congratulations and a respectful bow from the public.

The vestibule, Nos. 37 and 38, now makes regular stops at High Point, to transfer passengers for Pinehurst.

C. R. Walton, who has been appointed roadmaster of the Southern railway at Asheville assumed his new duties Wednesday. He has heretofore been roadmaster for the Southern at Charlotte.

More Work on Stamps.

We saw Register of Deeds Woodson making some marks on a revenue stamp the other day. The explanation is given below:

Every documentary stamp of the denomination of 10 cents or more, authorized by the act of June 13, 1898, and affixed to any document, must not only be canceled by writing or stamping on it in ink the initials of the person affixing it, with the date, but it must be cut in two, in three parallel lines, the incision beginning within one-fourth of an inch of the margin on one side and ending within one-fourth of an inch on the other.

Service To-night.

The last of the Week of Prayer services will be held to-night at Faith Reformed church. The leaders are Revs. R. C. Craven and L. E. Busby. The subject is home missions.

The services of the week have been largely attended.

Mrs. Keever's Funeral.

The funeral services over the remains of Mrs. J. F. Keever, which service was postponed awaiting the arrival of Mrs. Sargeant, a sister of the deceased, was conducted this afternoon.

Mrs. Sargeant could not come as she is sick at her home in Cincinnati.

Mrs. Keever was an excellent Christian lady, with a most amiable and genial disposition, and honored and loved by all who knew her.

Her loss will be sadly felt, and especially by her sorrowing relatives. But the dear ones left behind should be consoled with the blessed thought that God doeth all things well, and that He has called, to eternal reward in heaven, another of his jewels.

MRS. OVERMAN'S GIFT.

Presented a Gavel to Stonewall Jackson Chapter U. D. C.

From this morning's Charlotte Observer we take this:

The Stonewall Jackson Chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy met in the parlor of the Y. M. C. A. yesterday afternoon. In the absence of Mrs. Jackson, the president, Mrs. Rufus Barringer, the first vice president, presided. At the conclusion of the regular business, a gavel, made from wood from the bier on which the body of Jefferson Davis was carried to Richmond, donated by Mrs. W. H. Overman, of Salisbury, was presented to the society by Miss Julia Alexander. The colors of the Confederacy and the Charlotte Chapter were on the gavel. In presenting the gavel Miss Alexander said:

"Mrs. W. H. Overman has presented this gavel to the Stonewall Jackson Chapter of the daughters of the Confederacy, of Charlotte. We value it highly as a gift from a daughter of the true and loyal Confederacy. But its value is greatly enhanced by the fact that it is made from wood taken from the bier on which was carried to its last resting place the body of our dear Confederate President, Jefferson Davis. And it shall ever be the loving duty of the United daughters of the Confederacy to cherish and love his memory."

"To the president is entrusted the keeping of this gavel. And as we gather from time to time in the interest of this noble work may this gavel be a reminder of him who stood at the head of the Confederate government, and of which government it may truthfully be said: 'No nation e'er rose so free and fair, or fell so free from crime.'"

Mrs. Overman takes much interest in the Stonewall Jackson Chapter. She has ably and delightfully represented the chapter on several occasions at annual conventions.

James Plummer.

MORE BUILDING.

A Couple of Store Rooms To Be Built—Factories Needed.

We learn that two more store rooms are to be built on Fisher street in the near future, plans for which are now being made. These stores will expand the "business portion" of the town out several points.

Other parties are contemplating building business houses during the coming spring.

It is alright to build business houses and dwellings—they are needed—but, as a real estate man remarked this morning, what we need just now is diversified manufacturing.

A factory or shop that will give employment to as many as a dozen experienced mechanics is more to be desired at the present than either a business block or a dwelling house.

Miss Cramer's Singing.

The Lexington Dispatch says of a young lady well known here:

"Seldom have we listened to vocal solos of such rare sweetness as those at the morning and evening services at the Presbyterian church Sunday when Miss Nell Cramer, of Thomasville, charmed the entire congregation with the rich sweetness of her voice in the solos, 'The Good Shepherd' and 'Come Unto Me.' Her high notes have a liquid clearness seldom attained and she dwells on them with such ease that each moment is an added ecstasy to the music-loving soul."

After Murderer.

Officers here have been advised to look out for Mack Fesperman, the negro who deliberately shot and killed his wife in Charlotte.

Fifty dollars reward has been offered for his arrest, and it is believed that he will be arrested in a few days. His mother says she believes he will commit suicide before his capture is effected.

February Court.

The February term of court, Judge Timberlake presiding, will convene one month from to-day. The interior of the court room will be much changed from its appearance at the last term of court.

Mortgage of $5,000.00.

The Raleigh Post says possibly the largest mortgage ever given in North Carolina was recorded with the register of deeds of Wake county yesterday.

It was the trust deed authorized by the stockholders of the Raleigh & Gaston railroad Wednesday last in favor of the Continental Trust Company of Baltimore, to secure an issue of $50,000,000 first consolidated mortgage.

It required $3,520 in war stamps to legally put the mortgage on record. Fifty $50 stamps and two 10 cent stamps were used. The amount received by the county for recording the mortgage was only $27, a mere bagatelle when compared with the tariff paid the government. The railroad paid the county $23.50 for registration of the document and $3.50 for probate and seal certificates.
