VOL. VII.

SALISBURY, N. C., SATURDAY EVENING, APRIL 14, 1900.

THE JUNIOR MEETING.

Large Number Present-Two Speakers Could Not Come.

The Juniors' meeting at the tended-the seating capacity of the house well taxed.

. Two of the speakers-Mr. Mc-Gathey, of Charlotte, and Rev. C. A. G. Thomas, were not present, it being impossible for them running late.

Mr. J. M. Julian and Mr. R. Lee Wright addressed the audience, speaking of the Juniors, their purpose and work.

After these gentlemen had finished it was decided not to wait longer on the speakers who had not arrived and the meeting ad journed.

On a Slower Train.

Mr. Penniman, the gentleman, who, it will be remembered, chartered a special train at Salisbury the latter part of January to take him to Atlanta in time to overtake the vestibule, passed through Salisbury yesterday mornbe remembered that the Southern made a record-breaking run for him, by which he caught the vestibule in Atlanta.

He was returning on a slower train with his family for whom he had gone to Southern California.

Another Sudden Death.

Mr. May, whose home was near the Salisbury mill, died suddenly vesterday evening. He was in his usual health until he became suddenly ill after noon, and in a couple of hours he was dead.

Heart trouble was given as the members. cause of death.

Special Service.

The Golden Rod society of the First Methodist church will give an Easter entertainment at their church tomorrow evening at 7:30 o'clock. The service will take the place of the regular evening sermon.

To Work For Southern.

Mr. J. H. Swaim, who has been working at Gold Hill for several months but recently gave up his job, has accepted a position in the round house at Spencer and will commence duty Monday.

School Closing.

Several went out to Franklin last night to attend the school closing exercises at that place. A large crowd was present and the exercises were enjoyed very much.

To Winston.

Mrs. A. H. Boyden and two daughters and Misses Jennie team in the city. Mitchell Rankin, Bessie Henderson and Sallie Cotten went to Winston this morning to attend the Easter gala day exercises.

Who Gen. Toon Is.

A good many who are interested in politics are asking "who is Mr. Toon," the Democratic nominee State Superintendent Public Instruction to succeed Mr Mebane. The Raleigh News and Observer says: "Prof. Toon, who was yesterday nominated for Superintendent of Public Instruction, served in the Confederate army as Colonel of the Twentieth North Carolina Regiment.
