A CONCORD ENTERTAINMENT.

Yesterday's Concord Tribune says:

The residence of Dr. J. Edward Smoot, on Grove street, presented a scene of beauty last night, the occasion being a lawn fete given by Mrs. Smoot complimentary to her visitors, the Misses Lawrence, of Woodleaf, and Miss Cora Smoot, of Salisbury.

Those who were so fortunate as to receive an invitation began to arrive about 9 o'clock and were met at the gate by Mrs. Smoot, who extended them a hearty welcome in her own becoming way. She was assisted most admirably by Misses Grace and Lottie Lawrence and Cora Smoot.

The decorations were most beautiful. During the evening elegant refreshments were served, and everything was artistically arranged and conducted for the enjoyment of those present.

It was with an unwilling heart and reluctant spirit that "good-bye" was said at 12 o'clock.

AT CITY COURT.

Mr. Hammill Submits to One Charge—Not Guilty as to Other.

As a result of statements made by Rev. H. L. Atkins in a sermon Sunday with reference to the rear doors of saloons there was a trial at the city hall this morning. Mr. J. W. Hammill, of the Mt. Vernon bar, was the defendant.

There were two charges—selling whiskey or other drinks on Sunday, and allowing persons to enter the saloon on Sunday.

Mr. Hammill was represented by L. H. Clement, Esq., who, after the hearing of the evidence, entered a submission as to the second charge. The mayor stated that there had been no evidence that drinks had been sold on Sunday by Mr. Hammill and the first charge was, therefore, dismissed.

It is fair to Mr. Atkins to state that the charges against Mr. Hammill were not made by him—that when the committee from the aldermen had waited upon him he gave the names of such witnesses as he had to the officers and did nothing more. Also that the allegations made in the sermon Sunday—that men passed in and out of the rear door on Sunday—was sustained as shown by the submission.

Witnesses stated that they had drunk with Mr. Hammill on Sunday in his office in the rear of the saloon and had seen others drink there but that no money had been passed. One stated that he had offered pay but it had been refused.

There is an ordinance fixing a fine of $20 for proprietors allowing others to enter their saloons on Sunday and this fine was

ANOTHER CASE.

Officers Sunday night found two clerks in the Klondyke saloon. Yesterday afternoon Mr. Marable, the proprietor, submitted to the charge of allowing others to enter his place of business and a fine of $20 was imposed by Mayor Lord. It should be said in justice to the police that they had no way of knowing when parties entered the rear of the Mt. Vernon bar as the entrance is not from the outside of the building. Members of the force caught the men in the Klondyke and were responsible for the arrest in that case.

A Charge on the Southern.

Greensboro Record: The train to Norfolk over the Southern that has been running via Selma is to be changed and after the 22nd will run via Danville. The Southern had an arrangement with the Coast Line for the use of its tracks, but was unable to haul passengers between Selma and Norfolk, depending on its through traffic for work. Therefore it has not been very profitable.

Some months ago the Southern bought the Atlantic & Danville and has been busy putting the road bed in first-class shape by adding new cross ties and other things necessary, until now it is in tip top shape.

There will be no change in the schedule, the sleeper that comes in from the south going on to Danville where it will be transferred to the A. & D. division and returning it will do the same. The only difference is that passengers, other than those in the sleeper, will have to change cars in Danville going and coming. The departure and arrival from Norfolk is practically the same.

A mixed train will run between Greensboro and Raleigh, leaving here about midnight and returning at 5:30.

North Carolina College is surely the place for young men this year. The strength of faculty and low expenses seem surprising. Patronize this wide awake school.

MR. PROPST DOING WELL.

In His Illinois Home—A Crop Report From Him.

Mr. L. E. Probst, who is living at Wetaug, Ill., in renewing his subscription to the WEEKLY SUN writes a letter from which the following is taken:

I am threshing wheat. I have 64 acres threshed and it yielded 1,650 bushels and I have 125 acres yet to thresh which we will continue to thresh immediately. Wheat is good through the country, after all the damage done by rain. We were one month harvesting wheat and some is not cut yet. But the weather is fine for threshing now and machines are humming everywhere. No. 2 wheat is selling now for 70 cents per bushel. Most wheat will be No. 3 owing to so much rain which has bleached and lightened wheat. Oats are good. I have a big corn crop but the community is almost without corn on account of so much rain and the corn being planted in low land was drowned out, which will make corn scarce in southern Illinois. Corn is 50 cents per bushel now and very scarce.
