MR. SOLOMON TEAGUE DEAD.

Dropped Dead at His Farm at Mt Vernon Saturday.

Mr. Solomon Teague, a prominent farmer, of Mt. Vernon, this county, died suddenly Saturday. Mr. Teague was seventy years old, a widower, and leaves several children.
Mr. S. Henley tells us Mr. Teague had gone to the pasture to turn in a horse and he stayed so long that some one went to look after him. When they found him he was dead. He had probably been suddenly affected with heart trouble and fell dead.
The interment was to have been made at Cleveland yesterday if a son, Dr. R. J. Teague, could get there from Roxboro in time.

A Remarkable Man.
Dr. C. D. McIver, writing in the Greensboro Telegram, says of the son-in-law of Rev. Dr. Rumble, of Salisbury:

Rev. C. G. Vardell, the president of the Red Springs Female Seminary, is a remarkable man. He is one man who refuses to leave his State for a great increased salary. Recently he was offered $5,000 a year to take charge of a school for girls in another State, and upon refusing to accept the position, he was asked to name the salary for which he would go. This he declined to do, preferring to remain in North Carolina and continue at the head of the institution over which he has presided so successfully.

Badly Frightened.
An incident worthy of passing note occurred some days ago to Mr. D. L. Gaskill, a leading young business man of the city, in which he was badly frightened.

The incident happened in a most singular way. He was standing near the wall of the Shaver building on Main street looking up at the masons laying brick and was fearful that a brick would fall on him when a buzzard flew across the sky from the rear of the building which he mistook for a falling missile and made a precipitated retreat. Upon a second observation Mr. Gaskill discovered that it was the bird afore named making a harmless flight in quest of food, but he was much excited for a time.

This renders the action of the allied forces unnecessary. It is the first step toward the solution of the situation by Li Hung Chang.

The first team of Salisbury played the Faith boys at Faith Saturday. The game resulted in a score of 14 to 9 in favor of the Salisbury boys.

At Henderson's the Second Salisbury team played the Spencer boys and were defeated by a score of 4 to 4.

Salisbury beat Faith for the second time last Saturday morning by a score of 14 to 9. The game was played at Faith. Salisbury's regular first and second basemen were not present but their places were very creditably and gracefully filled by Linn Bernhardt and Worth Murphy, in fact they really won the game by their heavy batting at critical moments. The town team wishes to extend their sincere thanks to the Faith boys for the kind treatment they received while in their city. Another game will probably be played between these two teams soon.
