

NO REVIVAL HERE.

MR. PEARSON CANNOT COME.

The Great Evangelist is Suffering From Heart Trouble.

The following item from the Asheville Citizen will be read with much regret by Dr. Pearson's many friends in Salisbury, and the many citizens who had anticipated a glorious revival under the Dr's preaching:

Rev. Dr. R. G. Pearson, although able to be up and about, is suffering from very serious heart trouble.

On the advice of his physicians, he has canceled his engagement for some months to come, and will spend a season in perfect rest and quite.

Dr. Pearson was to have conducted a meeting in Salisbury the latter part of this month, but will be unable to do so.

It is feared that he will lose the sight of the injured member. Austin is 6 feet 9 inches in height.

THE LUCKY WINNERS.

Spencer Outplayed Concord and Could Have Done More.

The Concord Tribune says of the Spencer-Concord game of ball: Spencer struck town yesterday arrived with bat and ball and full of win—and win they did. They did not get the disappointment we hinted at the other day but shuffled their cards so as to throw the little duce on the other fellow. Throwing sixes themselves and if necessary could have thrown double sixes. They then went Concord one better and quit off leaving the score 7 runs to Spencer's credit while Concord had to pocket the little duce and keep quiet. Pick your flint boys and go 'at 'em again." You will have better luck next time.

The Colored Tournament.

The colored people who attend the State tournaments are of the best element of their race. There is seldom any disorder of any kind and it is most probable that those who come to Salisbury next week will be sober and gentleman-like while here.

The money being secured for defraying expenses is kept accounted for in a business way and there need not be any fear of it being misused.

May go to Richmond.

We understand the Spencer firemen are thinking of going to the tournament at Richmond. The Spencer boys would no doubt make a good showing at Richmond.

Fields Monday Night.

Al G. Fields will be here Monday night. Fields has a national reputation for giving a clean, up-to-date minstrel and the performance here will no doubt be largely attended.

It is Worth a Trial.

Sassafras oil will destroy all narcotic poison, and all insect and germ life. I believe it will cure bubonic plague, yellow fever and cholera. I have known bloody flux cured by it in a few hours. 12 drops is the maximum dose for an adult. There is two kinds, the white and the red. The white is almost inert. I believe, however, the difference in color is caused by the age of the oil. The white is the new and the red the old. It is worth a trial. I discovered its value in flux accidentally. C. P.

DEFY THE POWERS.

EMPRESS ISSUES AN EDICT.

Wants to Push the War and Get Vengeance from the Allies.

[SPECIAL TO DAILY SUN.]

Shanghai, Sept. 5.—The Empress Dowager defies the allied army of Europe. She will have no peace—she is for a war of vengeance. The edict of defiance signed by the Empress at Tai Tuan Fu on August 20, has just appeared here. In it the viceroys are exhorted to unite and avenge the wrongs done China and are ordered to raise taxes and enroll troops in order to prosecute the war upon the allies. In the whole edict she breathes definite and undying hate of foreigners.

She explains to the viceroys that the court fled from Peking because it was feared the christians would kill the Empress.

London, Sept. 5.—No official announcement is yet forth coming here regarding the decision of the powers. But there are suggestions of a compromise on the proposition now under consideration.

In the meanwhile there is little authority indicating that the Empress Dowager is ready to treat for peace even if the allies reach an agreement in regard to the best way to open negotiations.

On the contrary many rumors gathered at Shanghai suggest that she is carrying on the anti-foreign policy with increased zeal.

London, Sept. 5.—A despatch from Pretoria says Dewet captured a British train in the neighborhood of Kroonstand securing forty-four car loads of supplies.

Washington, September 5.—A cablegram was sent Gen. Chaffee to day advising him of pending negotiations for joint occupation of Peking or joint withdrawal therefrom and in instructions were given to him to remain until further notice. He is ordered to be in readiness for prompt retirement if that course is adopted.

[SPECIAL TO DAILY SUN.]

Portland, Me., September 5.—Arthur Sewall, the great ship owner and the Democratic candidate for vice-president on the ticket with Mr. Bryan in 1896, died at Bath this morning at 8:30 after a severe attack of apoplexy.

[Coincident with the death of Mr. Sewall was the death of Garrett A. Hobart, who was Sewall's opponent in the campaign of '96 and who was elected on the ticket with McKinley. Both men died before the term of office, for which they ran, had expired.]

Many were the orders given at Burt's shoe store yesterday for the celebrated "Stetson" patent kid shoes.
