

THIEF AND WHEEL RETURNED.

A Bicycle Thief Called Back—Had Sold the Wheel.

Sheriff Monroe went to Concord last night and returned this morning with a colored man who is charged with stealing a bicycle from Williams & Coburn. He got the wheel Tuesday for an hour and failed to return it.

Yesterday's Concord Tribune says:

"The wheel was found this morning but the thief was gone. He had sold the wheel for $4.05 and proceeded to spend the money. The bicycle trader was not long to enjoy his freedom and cash, for Officer Cruse soon had him and to limbo he went. He gave his name at the Mayor's office as John Henry, but names don't amount to much with a bicycle thief, any old alias will do. John Henry's ride will cost him dearly before he gets through."

FINISHING THE CHURCH.

$1,000 FINE FOR GIVING PASSES.

The Southern Found Guilty at Morganton Court.

Morganton, Sept. 26.—In the cases against the Southern Railway Company for issuing free passes to Huffman and Hallyburton, there were verdicts of guilty in both cases and Judge Stevens imposed the minimum fine of $1,000 in each case. Notice of appeal was given by the railroad. When these cases were tried before the sentence was a fine of $2,500 in each case. An appeal was then taken and a new trial awarded by Judge Shaw. Counsel for the railroad stated here that the prosecution was futile, in any event, as Governor Russell would pardon the road under his agreement entered into when the lease fight was dropped.—Charlotte Observer.

"Hon. Lee S. Overman, the first speaker, is at home with a Raleigh audience and he charmed his hearers with his eloquent and able arguments. Mr. Overman is aggressive in all that he says or does and he exposed the Republican policies with earnestness and vigor."

ROAD CLOSELY INSPECTED.

Improvements to Make Possible Largely Increased Tonnage.

A large engineering party has just completed a detailed inspection of the improvements which are being made on the roadbed of the Southern, principally between Asheville and Knoxville. Superintendent Loyall of the Asheville division returned yesterday, accompanied by his secretary, T. S. Daniel, who went to Morristown during the day to join the returning road men.

The trip was made in the private car of W. H. Wells, chief engineer of the Southern system.

The Southern company is spending a great amount on improvements and as soon as the work is completed it will be possible to handle a vastly increased amount of business with comparative ease. The tonnage on all freight trains can be materially increased without necessitating a corresponding increase of the number of engines to move it, or an increase in the number of trainmen.—Asheville Gazette.

Great Work of the Southern.

The Southern Railway has handled without charge, Washington to Atlanta, relief trains numbers four and five, organized by the North American, of Philadelphia. As the numbers indicate, this makes the fifth train the Southern has handled free for the Galveston sufferers.

The Greensboro Record says: "The people are not surprised to hear of this great work by the Southern. It is a charitable work, however, which they have a right to be proud of. The Southern is always to the front."

Mr. Robinson's Brother Here.
