FIRE IN TELEGRAPH OFFICE.

About 4 O'clock This Morning—Only Slight Damage.

About 4 o'clock this morning the cry of "fire," "police," awoke the citizens on Main street in the neighborhood of the postoffice. On investigating the cause of the alarm it was found that the Western Union Telegraph office was on fire.

Mr. Armistead, the operator, who sleeps in the rear of the office, was fortunately awakened at the hour named above to discover the building on fire. His cry brought Policeman Eagle and others to the rescue.

The fire alarm bell was sounded for a short time, but the fire having only a short headway, burning the overhead ceiling, was extinguished in a few minutes by those first there, and the fire companies were not needed.

The fire was caused by the crossing of the wires. The insulation was burned from the wires and the ceiling burned partially. The telegraph wires were soon repaired and there was no delay of the business in the office. The damage was slight.

Two Men Sent to Court for Burning House at Gold Hill.

Messrs. J. H. Weant and J. F. Martin came up from Gold Hill last night bringing with them Jim Howell and Chas. Small, two young men charged with burning the house at Gold Hill mention of which fire was made yesterday.

Howell conducted the restaurant in one end of the building; Small worked for him. Howell was arrested at Gladstone and Small at the Union Mine shortly after the fire.

A preliminary hearing was to have been held yesterday but Howell objected to Esquire Jenkins and the case was moved before Esquire Klutz to be heard to-day at 1 o'clock at Gold Hill.

The two prisoners were brought up last night for safe keeping in the jail.

Howell was recently burned out of a building at Gold Hill. His stock was insured but there was no evidence that he had started the fire. His restaurant which was burned yesterday was insured for several hundred dollars. The building which was owned by Mrs. Martin was insured for one hundred dollars and the grocery stock in one end of the building owned by Lentz & Ludwick was insured for several hundred.

To-day, without being taken to Gold Hill, Howell and Small waived examination and were sent up to court. Bonds required will probably be $1,500.
