MISS EAGLE ELECTED.	SERVICES TOMORROW.	TO TALK TOWN.	MR. W. T. FRY DEAD.	MR. KLUTTZ'S SPEECH.	LOCAL DOTS AROUND SALISBURY.	NEWS FROM AFRICA.
Takes Charge of Second Grade at City School. At a meeting of the school board yesterday evening Miss Lottie Eagle was elected teacher of the second grade of the city school. She takes the place of Miss Jenkins, resigned. Miss Eagle is a competent young teacher of this city. She is a graduate of the city school and also of the Normal at Greensboro. She has had experience in teaching at other places and will no doubt give satisfaction in the position to which she was elected yesterday. Complimentary to Miss Burton. Says the Greensboro Telegram: "Miss Annie D. Dunnell gave a party at her home on East Washington street last evening complimentary to her cousin, Miss Elma Burton, of Salisbury. A number of young folks were present and assisted in making the occasion a happy one." Salisbury Girls in Charlotte. Charlotte is going to claim Miss Bessie Henderson for a week. She will be the guest of Misses Saida and Alice Jones. Misses Boyden returned to Salisbury this evening. They have had what the girls call "a rush," and are consequently "in love with Charlotte."—Charlotte News. Mr. White, of Mt. Ulla, Dead. Mr. J. H. White, of Mt. Ulla, died Thursday at 2 o'clock, aged 43 years. Mr. White was a native of Cabarrus county and was a highly esteemed citizen. Quite a number of our citizens attended the funeral at Back Creek church, in Rowan county, to day, says the Mooresville correspondent of the Charlotte Observer. A Joke. The report of the marriage of Mr. R. J. Holmes was all a joke. Mr. Holmes returned last night from Greensboro and was kept busy today denying the report. Odd Fellows' Notice. The Odd Fellows are called to meet to-morrow morning at 10 o'clock for the purpose of making arrangements to attend the funeral of Mr. W. T. Fry. By order of the Noble Grand, W. A. Fogleman. Fine Porkers Mr. J. A. Karriker, of Mitford, this county, yesterday killed two hogs, one seven months old which weighed 264 pounds, the other two years old which weighed 530. To Members of Cordon Lodge. Cordon Lodge, No 168, I. O. O. F. will meet in their old hall over Plummer's Drug Store next Monday. Their new quarters in the Savings Bank building will not be ready for occupancy until Monday, Oct. 14. Go to Raleigh Monday. Messrs. R. Lee Wright and L. H. Rothrock, Rowan's representatives in the next general assembly, will leave Monday for Raleigh. MARY AND JOHN. SCENE 1—CONCLUDED. Mary: Yes; that's the man. John: What do you suppose he will sell. Mary: Everything that is usually sold in a five and ten cent store. John (rising): Well I must be going. I'll see you again, Mary. Mary: Yes; we'll meet at Lufsev's five and ten cent store. Scene 2 will begin in Monday evening's SUN. NEW CAB—Anyone wanting a nice street cab, phone Dixie Studio. WANTED.—Two men to handle our goods in Rowan and Cabarrus counties. S. J. M. Brown from St. Paul's Episcopal church, Chestnut Hill, tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock and the interment will be made at St. Mary's, in the country. A ROMANTIC MARRIAGE. Couple Married at China Grove the Day After They Met. The Newberry, S. C., Observer prints a story of a romantic marriage which was solemnized recently at China Grove, this county. Several years ago Mr. Wm. T. Hale, of Morristown, Tenn., married Miss Belle Penland, of White Pine, Tenn. The lady had been a student at Mont Acona seminary, Mt. Pleasant, where a strong attachment had been formed between her and several of her classmates. Mrs. Hale died some time after her marriage. With a feeling of respect and the knowledge of the deep attachment which had existed between the several young ladies and his wife, the husband informed them of her death about three months after it occurred. Her friends duly expressed their condolences and a mutual and friendly correspondence from that time forward was maintained between the gentleman and each of the young ladies. This correspondence ripened into a deeper attachment in regard to one of the young ladies, Miss Cornelia Beatrice Hentz, and resulted in the marriage of Mr. Hale and Miss Hentz at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. J. Q. Wertz, at China Grove, on December 26th. Mr. William Taylor Hale the expectant bridegroom, arrived at China Grove on Christmas day, and met his bride for the first time that evening at the parsonage. Miss Julia Hentz, a sister of the bride, being present, and both being introduced to him as the Misses Hentz, he at once pointed out the woman of his choice. He had never met either of the young ladies. The marriage of the romantic couple followed the next afternoon at 5 o'clock as the happy sequel to the plighting of their troth. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Jos. Q. Wertz. The couple left China Grove that evening for the groom's home in Tennessee. Spencer Livery Stable. For first-class teams call at my stable. Fine horses, nice buggies. Bailey.	Defends North Carolina in Elquent Speech in Congress. Mr. Klutzz, in the House today, made a fine speech that should awake the echoes in the Old North State. He defended her against the disfranchisement resolution of Mr. Olmstead, of Pennsylvania, in a way that won for him much applause and credit, says the Washington correspondent of the Charlotte Observer. Mr. Klutzz's opening remarks were: "Mr. Speaker, coming from the good old State of North Carolina, one loyal, as I believe myself to be, and as I know her people to be to the flag that hangs behind the Speaker's desk, desiring only the greatness and glory of the whole country and the prosperity of all its people, for one, I regret with the gentlemen who have preceded me on this side of this House that such a firebrand should have been thrown into legislation at this time. I regret that the opening days of the new century and the era of good feeling between all sections should be marred by this attempt to re-open sectional bitterness for purely partisan effect." Mr. Klutzz referred to the fact that a number of States had educational, tax-paying and other qualifications without which men were deprived of votes. The speaker was interrupted by Mr. Stewart, of New Jersey, who denied that his State denies the right of suffrage to any one, but he was silenced by Mr. Klutzz promptly quoting from the New Jersey constitution: "Article 2, section 1: 'And no pauper, idiot or insane person shall enjoy the right of an elector.' The gentleman (Mr. Stewart) is, I trust answered." "Now, sir," continued Mr. Klutzz, "I come from the State of North Carolina where we are trying in good faith, in the fear of God and with the desire to do justice to all our people and to work out justice to all races. I find that in North Carolina, in the last election, where we have nine congressional districts, there was an average vote of 32,555 vote in each district showing that there was no suppression of the vote. I find from the report of the Auditor of that State, recently made, that the total revenues of North Carolina for 1899 from all sources were $3,084,460.52 and of this sum $1,555 00 or more than one-half that was given to the cause of education and that money was given pro rata with the whites, to the education of the colored race at our doors, although they contribute but about 10 per cent. of the taxes. (Applause.) I ask the majority to join us in frowning upon all such legislation as is proposed in this resolution." Gone to Columbus, Ga. Mr. T. Clayton Brown, who has been at Fort Mill, S. C., putting up cotton mill machinery, has gone to Columbus, Ga., where he goes to construct other mill property. New Ads. Chas. S. C., Jan. 4.—After a lingering illness, due in part to the weight of years, ex-Governor Curtis H. Brogden passed away at his home near this city at the hour of 4 o'clock this afternoon. Governor Brogden was a most remarkable man in many respects. At one time in life, by rigid economy, he amassed quite a fortune, the bulk of which he lost on personal security for his party confederates. He was born in 1816 and was therefore in his eighty-fifth year. He served his native county, Wayne, in the Legislatures of 1838 and 1840. Following this, for some fifteen years he was comptroller of the treasury. In 1872 he was elected Lieutenant Governor on the Republican ticket with Governor Tod E. Caldwell, and succeeded to the Governor's office on the death of the latter. Subsequently he served two terms in Congress as the representative from this district. His was an irreproachable life—honest in all his dealings. He leaves an estate worth between $5,000 and $10,000. He never married.—Raleigh Post. YOUNG IVEY'S TROUBLES. May be Sent to Reformatory at Once by Judge. Yesterday's Asheville Citizen says: Hugh Ivey, the lad who, as recounted in The Citizen yesterday had got into trouble over the rifling of letters, is supposed to have been mixed up in another matter. It is now believed that the wheel on which he made off, after trying to get the Hewitt check cashed, and which he said belonged to the Paragon pharmacy, did not belong to that firm but belonged to Robert Brown, who is employed by the Asheville Printing company. Young Brown's wheel was standing near Sawyer's grocery store at the time Ivey was in the store, but when the owner went to get it later it was gone. At the Paragon it is said that so far as they remember Ivey did not have one of the firm's wheels at the time. Ivey's parents have arrived from Salisbury and it is understood that as young Ivey has confessed to everything the judge will be asked to send Ivey to the reformatory at once, and not wait for a trial in May. Don't Get drunk, partake of all good things in moderation and buy Royster's best candy for your sweethearts and wives. Buerbaum has Royster's candies in 1/2, 1, 2, 3 and 5 lb boxes. It sells at 50c per pound. Buerbaum has a choice selection of goods suitable for holiday presents, the wonderful and tremendous trade has been unable to exhaust his extensive stock. Picture frames made to order at any time, at prices to suit the times. Plenty of nice gift books from 25c to $15.	Boers' Recent Actions Told By Kitchener. [SPECIAL TO DAILY SUN.] London, Jan. 5.—Kitchener cables the war office from Pretoria, yesterday's date, that the western party of Boers in Cape Colony seems to be making toward Calvinia, west of Carnarvon, 108 miles from Capetown. The eastern forces appear to have broken up in small parties. Another small party of Boers crossed Orange River west of Aliwal North Thursday. The Boers also reappeared along the railway in the neighborhood of Rhenoster. It is doubtful whether Gen. De Wet accompanies them. ALL BUT ONE LOST. Vessel a Complete Wreck and Many Lives Lost. [SPECIAL TO DAILY SUN.] San Francisco, Jan. 5.—The steamer Iagna was wrecked last night on Duxbury reef, outside of the golden gate. All on board except Chief Engineer Burrell are believed to have perished, 40 in all. Burrell was washed ashore on an overturned boat. Burrell drifted for hours on the boat and at last was washed ashore nearly dead by the buffeting waves. Capt. Bosch and the crew and all passengers were lost. The vessel was a total wreck. The Iagna struck a reef in the fog. She got near the reef in the fog and heavy waves carried her on top of the reef. Cervera Ill. [SPECIAL TO DAILY SUN.] Madrid, Jan. 5.—Admiral Cervera is seriously ill. Grave anxiety is caused here by the report that an eminent physician has been called from the capital to attend him. Guns Destroyed. [SPECIAL TO DAILY SUN.] Tien Tsin, Jan. 5.—The German expedition which started Christmas for Lien Cseug Meu, under command of Col. Grusher, report the capture of forty-three Kruppis and the destruction of a thousand rifles and large quantities of ammunition. In the State. Three murder cases are to be tried at the term of Superior Court in Raleigh next week. The Southern is to build a new freight depot at High Point, this being made necessary by the increased business at that point. The board of aldermen, of Raleigh, by a nearly unanimous vote, adopted an ordinance against spitting on the sidewalks. The penalty is a dollar for each offense. Special sale of white goods at Reids'. NOTICE. The annual meeting of the share holders of the First National Bank of Salisbury, N. C., will be held at their Banking House in Salisbury, N. C., on the second Tuesday in January next at 12 o'clock m., it being the 8th day of said month. At said meeting a resolution will be introduced to change the by-laws of said Bank, reducing the number of directors from six to five. Respectfully, W. C. BLACKMEER, Cashier. Salisbury, N. C., Dec. 6th, 1900. Lost.—Discharge ticket for $28.66 made out to James Newland by Southern. Leave at SUN office for $1 reward. North Carolina College. This now popular institution has closed one term which must go down in history as a grand success. With 90 on the roll and 62 of these boarders every one says "well done." The next term opens Jan. 2, 1901. Prices low. Work thorough. Strict discipline. Bad habits not tolerated in the students. Parents can trust their sons in our care. Address W. A. LUTZ, Pres. Mt. Pleasant, N. C.
