RETURNING TO WORK

THE METAL TRADES ASSOCIATION CLAIMS SO.

Says Machinists Are Returning With out Condition. Nothing New in the Situation at Spencer To-Day.

New York, June 15 .--- The National Metal Trades Association officers declare that striking machinists in all parts of the country are returning to work without conditions.

There is no change in the local situation. Several new machinists have been taken in at the Spencer shops this week, two of them being Salisbury machinists who Epworth League devotional meet were not in the service of the Southern when the strike was declared. The shops are still under guard.
