Since going to Mobile, Mr. Ramay has been connected with the architectural business of Mr. Charles Pearson, who has offices in both Mobile and Raleigh. These gentlemen have now associated themselves in business and will open up an office here.

Mr. Ramay is an architect both by bent and training and has drawn plans for some of the prettiest structures in the South. He will be accorded a cordial welcome on his return to Salisbury. The firm will have offices in the Bell block.

BURTON AT MOCKSVILLE.

Claims He Killed Officer Wood in Self Defense.

Luke Burton, the murderer of Will Wood, is in Mocksville jail. On the 8th of June he murdered Wood in cold blood, and since that time the officials of Davie, Rowan, Davidson and other counties have been on the lookout for him. He was at last captured at Ivanhoe, Va., and the Governor issued a requisition on the Governor of Virginia for his return to this State. Sheriff Sheek brought him back from Virginia.

Burton protests that he killed Wood in self defense. He says he is only eighteen years old, and is very youthful looking. Wood was an officer, and tried to arrest Burton for some offense. The prosecution claims that Burton took down his shotgun and killed him on sight. Burton claims that Wood had fired twice with a 38-calibre pistol before he shot, and that two of Wood's shots had passed through Burton's clothing.—Raleigh Times.

A HOLINESS PREACHER

SOUTH RIVER IS AFFLICTED WITH ONE.

Rev. Osborne and an old Comrade Meet for the First Time Since the Civil War.

South River, N. C., July 19.—This unprecedented year finds farmers in the middle of their crops, and little part as yet laid by. Despite the terrific rains, wheat is yielding very well, and bread for next year is by no means a "fond thing vainly imagined." This is a rebuff to the capricious of the weather.

The visits of Bishop Cheshire were ended Sunday. His meetings were interesting and well attended. He had a large class, several of whom were classed with the Mormons. This was near Rev. Mr. Trot's home. The Mormons have never done much in our community. We're "not in our ways."

Rev. E. A. Osborne, of Charlotte, spent a good part of last week with the Episcopalians of this parish. While here, an agreeable coincidence, with pa thetic circumstances, took place thirty eight years ago. Mr. Osborne was in the Confederate service, and was dangerously wounded. While lying on the ground, he saw a wounded soldier preparing to shoot him again. With characteristic bravery, Mr. Osborne covered the Federal with a pistol, and forced him to carry him back to the Confederate position. Mr. Osborne rode the Union soldier. Then Mr. Michael Beaver and Mr. Ike O'Neill, of Salisbury, carried Mr. Osborne of the field to the hospital. He was nearly killed. When Mr. Osborne came into this section last week, he met Mr. Beaver for the first time since they parted on the battle ground. They had lost sight of each other. Their meeting was full of feeling. Mr. Osborne spent the night with Mr. Beaver, and as a result of their reunion, Mr. Beaver was baptized and confirmed by Bishop Cheshire last Sunday. So they are soldiers again, having gone from under the flag of the Southern Confederacy, to the oriflame of the Church Militant.

Your correspondent was in error as to the Mormons, some days ago. They didn't come this time to call our "sinners unto repentance." Their sole mission, they said, was to "visit the saints." Please publish to the world that we have up-to-date saints in our county. Just as these Latter Day lunatics leave us, another holy fraud in the shape of a Holiness preacher bobs us. He has been operating about Cooleemee. His service is made up mostly in taking up collection, abusing the good people of Cooleemee, and performing various gyrations and gymnastics while lying in the middle of the floor. He also tries to crack his heels together twice before touching the floor. His pulpit methods are brand new. They make the Rev. Sam Jones "pale as an iridescent dream." This perennial idiot is eighteen years old, and is sure that he has been ordained off-hand to guide sinners. He has every symptom of a nervous nunnyhammer, and for that reason people treat him as a crazy humbug, rather than as a man who mistakes chronic laziness and unspeakable cussedness for a call to preach. If he were a sensible fakir, those Cooleemee people would dispose of him by driving his spinal column through his plug hat with a No. 10 shoe. But as he is, it is thought proper to get two big niggers to trepan his gourd with an ablebodied bucksaw.

Watch Harry Bros. ad for a few days. They'll tell you about new black dress goods.

FOR SALE—Over $600.00 worth of furniture and fixtures of Day house. Will sell at a bargain for cash. If not sold soon Mrs. Day will remain. Apply to Maupin Bros., agts., Overman building, Phone 256.

THE ALDERMEN MEET.

MR. P. H. MERONEY IS ELECTED CHIEF.

Arrangements Made to Borrow Money for the Purchase of the Graded School Property in South Ward.

The aldermen met in regular monthly session last night at the city hall. In the absence of the city clerk, H. J. Overman, Esq., Alderman Heilig acted as secretary.

The matter of electing a chief of the fire department was taken up and Mr. P. Hautie Meroney, who was elected by the firemen, was endorsed by the board. It was moved and carried that $30 be appropriated for uniforms recently purchased for the department, and that $50 be appropriated to defray the expenses of the representatives of the Salisbury department to the Charlotte tournament.

Arrangements were made to borrow money for the purchase of the property in the South ward upon which it is expected a school building will be erected.

Other matters of minor importance were brought to the attention of the board.

MAYOR BOYDEN'S APPEAL.

Calls Upon the Women to Meet Monday Afternoon.

Mayor Boyden has addressed the following appeal to Salisbury's patriotic women:

It must be apparent to every one who attended the funeral of my friend, Capt. W. H. Overman, that the city of Salisbury has never done its duty by its dead, and it is my wish and ambition that Chestnut Hill cemetery shall be made a beautiful spot and one which every one would be proud of and love to visit to administer the last honors and obsequies to their dead. And in order to accomplish this, I must have the hearty cooperation of the good women of Salisbury. To this end I cordially invite one and all to meet me in the city hall Monday evening at 5:30 o'clock and then and there discuss the ways and means for the accomplishment of this purpose. A. H. BOYDEN, Mayor.

CAN'T ASSESS OFFICERS.

Mayor Johnson Calls a Halt on Assessing Officers.

Cleveland, Ohio, July 19.—Mayor Tom L. Johnson, learning that office holders were being assessed for campaign expenses, called the collectors before him today and ordered the money returned. He said the campaign fund will have to be made up by voluntary contributions in which he would give a little.

CHARGES IT TO MASONRY.

Officer Says British Didn't Try to get Dewet and Botha.

London, July 19.—A non-commissioned officer of the Irish Fusiliers, who is invalided and at home, declares that the British never captured the Boer leaders Dewet and Botha so long as the British leaders are Free Masons. He charges that the failures were intentional, halts bring ordered at critical moments.

THE STRIKE GROWS.

TRUST ATTEMPTS TO OPERATE A PLANT.

Twelve Sheet Workers are Taken to Wellsville, Ohio, to Work More Firemen Fare out Today.

Pittsburg, July 19.—The steel trust will do all in its power to operate the plant at Wellsville, Ohio, today. Twelve sheet workers were taken there this morning by the trust missionaries who have been working here for several days. The Amalgamated office declares that the men will join the strikers when they reach Wellsville. The strike leaders are working on the men at Doncansville today. If the bridge men go out the Steel Hoop Trust will not have a mill at work.

President Shaffer says the Amalgamated is not yet ready to force the Carnegie strike. He believes the strike will be long and fierce.

Shamokin, Pa., July 19.—Seven of the sixteen collieries between here and Mount Carmel were tied up this morning by the stationary firemen going on a strike. The result is that 4,000 miners are idle. The firemen at Royal Oak, Greensburg, Natalia and Enterprise collieries, individual concerns, have granted their demands for eight hours a day but will stay out until a general settlement is made.
