In a Ringing Editorial Representative Watts, of Iredell County Endorses Mr. Overman for the Senate.

Representative A D Watts, of Iredell county, comes out in a ringing editorial in his paper, the Mascot, this week in endorsement of Hon. Lee S. Overman's candidacy for the United States Senate. Mr. Watts says: "Senator Pitchard's term in the United States Senate will expire March 4th, 1903, and the Legislature to be elected next year will elect his successor. That a Democrat will be elected is a foregone conclusion and already three able and worthy Democrats—Hon. Lee S. Overman of Rowan; Robert B Glenn, of Forsyth, and Locke Craig, of Buncombe, are in the field for the Democratic nomination. As Senator Simmons is an eastern man, only a western Democrat will be considered.

In conversations with a great many Iredell Democrats we find them almost solid for that able man, clever gentleman and sturdy Democrat, Hon. Lee S. Overman, of our neighbor county, Rowan. While each of the other candidates has warm admirers and staunch friends in the county, it is felt by most of our Democrats that Mr. Overman, by reason of his being our next door neighbor and associated with us in both congressional and judicial districts, has the first claim on us.

The Mascot will advocate his claim during the campaign which is now opening. We believe him to be in every way well qualified for the high office to which he aspires, and that he will, if elected, make a Senator of whom the entire State will be proud—a worthy successor of the lamented Vance.

In his young manhood Mr. Overman was private secretary to Governors Vance and Jarvis and was president of the North Carolina Railroad for a time, but it was as a member of five Legislatures, in all of which he was a leader and in one the Speaker, that he has most impressed the State. During the two decades just past no member of our Legislatures has had more influence or used it more for the good of State than this favorite son of old Rowan. Distinguished and handsome in person, friendly and magnetic in manner, with an able and resourceful mind and a life and character as pure and irreproachable as a good woman's, a Democrat in whom there is no guess, Lee Overman deserves to be Senator, and his friends believe he will be.

Rev. Dr. R. G. Pearson, who held such a successful meeting here last month, will begin a meeting in Raleigh tomorrow. Dr. Pearson has just closed his meeting at Gastonia.

VALUABLE GOLD FIND.

MR. MAUNEY CITS 700 PENNYWEIGHTS OF GOLD.

In 10 Days With Two Men He Gets Out 700 Pennyweights of Gold From a Cabarrus Property.

Mr F H. Mauney, of Gold Hill, struck luck this week on a heretofore unexplored and undeveloped property in Cabarrus county, that gives promise of being a great mine.

This morning Mr. Mauney came to Salisbury with a shot sack full of pretty gold as was ever shown. Mr. Mauney has an option on a property 15 miles southwest of Gold Hill in Cabarrus county, and in ten days with two men using the old hand rocker he got out 700 pennyweights of gold. One nugget was taken out weighing 14 pounds.

500 acres are included in Mr. Mauney's tract and he will probably begin the active development of the property at once.

HORSES IMPROVING.

24 More of Buffalo Bill's Horses Will be Shipped Soon.

Dr. Manogue, the skilled veterinarian who was employed by the Southern to look after the horses injured in Buffalo Bill's wreck on the Southern, tells us that another lot of horses will be sufficiently improved in a few days to be shipped away. 34 of these horses were shipped last Sunday and 24 more will be sent off in a few days.

Col Cody sent a veterinary surgeon down from Washington, this week to examine the horses. Dr. Manogue, however, had done everything that could be done for the horses and his success is a tribute to his skill.

PROMINENT VISITORS.

THE WOMAN'S HOME MISSION SOCIETY IN SESSION.

Some Prominent Workers in the Mission Field are Here. Miss Mary Helm to Make Address.

The annual meeting of the Woman's Home Mission Society of the Western North Carolina Conference is in session at the Methodist church and the public is cordially invited to attend. Mrs. W. J. Branner, Pres., Mrs. T. F. Marr, Cor. Sec., and Mrs. Ross, treasurer, are in attendance and a number of delegates from other parts of the State. The morning session opens at 10 o'clock, the afternoon at 3 o'clock and evening at 7. Interesting information in regard to the work of the Society will be given at each session.

Miss Mary Helm, of Nashville, editor of "Our Homes," the official of the Woman's Home Mission Society of the M. E. Church South, arrived in the city last evening and is the guest of Mrs. A. L. Smoot.

Miss Helm has just returned from a visit to England, where she studied City Missionary and Deaconess work. She attended the Third Ecumenical Conference held in London, which represented twenty four branches of Methodism.

Miss Helm is thoroughly acquainted with all the departments of the work. She will deliver a short address tonight and there will be other interesting addresses Sunday at 11 a. m. There will be an anniversary sermon by the pastor, Rev. H. L. Atkins. Immediately after Sunday school there will be a missionary experience meeting. At 7 o'clock there will be a mass meeting addressed by Miss Helm.

CONFERENCE WORK. The morning session today was opened with devotional exercises by Miss Mary Helm, the editor of Our Home Mission Society organ, "for homes," Nashville, Tenn. After this came the reading of the minutes of Friday, these sessions, morning, noon and night, which was followed by the report of Mrs. T. F. Marr, of Winston, which was indeed surprising in its details of the wonderful possibilities of the young society. Rev. Barrett, of East Salisbury, was introduced by the president to the society and made a talk concerning his work etc, giving the hope that by next year he may be able to report a home mission society in his charge. Miss Helm spoke of the urgent need of more workers among the women of the church, there being in the conference only 14 home mission societies. Miss Helm presented her magazine. The report of Mrs. Bass, of Trinity church, Charlotte, was full of encouragement and represents the honest efforts of a few earnest women who realize that this is their "day of small things." Mrs. Harley made a very satisfactory report from Bevard, hopeful indeed. Mrs. England made a report from Canton, which was good news of the little beginning toward a better day for the comfort of the parsonage. Mrs. Branner spoke in this connection of the heroic work of the few women on this charge. Miss Helm gave figures as to the work done by the women of the church and the pastor closed the session by devotional exercises.
