ELKS MEMORIAL DAY.

WILL BE OBSERVED TO-MORROW IN OPERA HOUSE.

Rev. Dr. L. E. Busby to Deliver the Address to the Elks. A National Affair.

Salisbury Lodge of Benevolent Protective Order of Elks will hold its first memorial service tomorrow afternoon in the opera house at 3:30 o'clock.

Rev. Dr. L. E. Busby will deliver the memorial address and Dr. Busby's reputation as an orator is a sufficient guarantee that an address equal to the occasion will be forthcoming.

All the Elks are requested to assemble in the lodge room at 3 o'clock and they will then march in a body to the opera house. The public is cordially invited to attend this service.

All over the United States memorial day will be observed by the Elks and an address will be delivered to the Elks and their friends.

ROBBED IN A CELL.

A man Loses his Watch While in the Lockup.

Officer Torrence, who went to Concord yesterday in search of some stolen property did not find the property but got another piece of game. He arrested a Concord man who was in the lockup here this week with a Salisbury man. Both the men were white. When the Salisbury man awoke he found his watch missing and immediately preferred charges against his Concord cell mate with the result that he was arrested yesterday and brought up by Mr. Torrence last night.

MR. OVERMAN'S ADVANTAGE.

The Winston Journal Says he Has Decided Advantage.

The Winston Journal has the following to say regarding Hon. Lee S. Overman's candidacy for the Senate:

"Ten newspapers in the western part of this State are committed vigorously to the senatorial candidacy of Lee S. Overman. We are bound to remark that in this Mr. Overman has a decided advantage over any of his competitors." Coming from a paper published in a city that has two senatorial candidates this paragraph is significant.

Mr. Torrence at Concord.

Officer Torrence, of the Salisbury force, was down today looking after some stolen property. A Cabarrus negro named Propst stole a number of articles from a house in Salisbury a few nights ago, and was caught last night and put in jail. The officer thought that by searching the house of Propst's wife the articles could be found.—Concord Tribune.

The Southern Railway, which operates its own lines over the entire South and forms the important link in the great highway of travel between the North and South, Florida, Cuba, Mexico, the Pacific Coast and Central America announces for the winter of 1901 and 1902 the most superb service ever offered. Its splendid regular service will be augmented by the Southern Palm Limited, a magnificent Pullman train, which will be operated between New York and St. Augustine, Florida.

ANOTHER SHOOTING.

A GOLD HILL NEGRO SHOT THREE TIMES.

All the Bullets Entered his Stomach and he is Expected to die. Assault Escapes.

William Billinger, colored, was probably fatally shot at Gold Hill yesterday by Mack Ingram, also colored. Both the men were employees of the Union Copper mine. Ingram had just come off a shift when he went to a point near where Billinger was standing and began to curse another negro. Billinger remonstrated with him and words passed between them, when Ingram drew a pistol and shot Billinger three times, the bullets taking effect in the stomach. Ingram immediately fled and has not been apprehended.

The wounded man was given medical attention by Dr. C. B. McNairy, the resident physician of the Union, but it is not believed he can live.

FIRE AT GOLD HILL.

A Building Near the Power House Burned this Morning.

A fire occurred at the Union Copper Mine this morning in which the changing room of the company was destroyed.

The room was situated close to the power house and it required heroic work to save it. The building destroyed was used by the miners as a store room in which to keep their change of apparel and all the apparel in the building was destroyed with the building.

The cause of the fire is unknown.

Dr. Senne's Friend Dead

Dr. Ernest Senne received yesterday a copy of the Brooklyn Eagle in which he read an account of the death of his family physician and intimate personal friend, Dr. Hart. CONLEY IS GUILTY.

THE JURY BROUGHT IN A VERDICT THIS MORNING.

After Deliberation They Find Conley Guilty of Murder in the First Degree. Will Appeal.

Arch Conley, the slayer of Gus Davis, was convicted of murder in the first degree this morning after the jury had deliberated for half an hour. The hearing of testimony was concluded yesterday afternoon before court adjourned and Judge Coble took under advisement whether or not he would charge the jury that the testimony was not sufficiently strong to convict of murder in the first degree. Counsel for both the State and defense agreed to make no speeches and counsel for the defense submitted to murder in the second degree.

When court convened this morning Judge Coble charged the jury, stating to them clearly and explicitly what their duties were under certain conditions.

Immediately after the jury had returned its verdict counsel for the defense asked that the verdict be set aside as not being justified by the testimony. Walter Murphy, Esq., the only lawyer for the State in court, made an earnest appeal to the judge to sustain the jury.

Judge Coble announced that he would take the matter under advisement and would announce his decision when court convened after the noon recess.

The verdict has been received with general satisfaction and the popular opinion is that justice has been done in Conley's conviction.

SENTENCED TO HANG

At 2:45 o'clock this afternoon Judge Coble refused to grant Conley a new trial and sentenced him to be hanged on Thursday, February 20th. Conley was unmoved when sentence was pronounced.

TWO MANNING WEDDINGS.

The Wedding Bells Ring in That Vicinity This Week.

Correspondence Sun.

Manning, N. C., Nov. 30.—Once again as winter approaches the wedding bells ring out. On last Wednesday evening at 7 p. m. A Physician Testifies.

"I have taken Kodol Dyspepsia Cure and never used anything that did me the good that did," says County Physician Geo. W. Scroggs, Hall County, Ga. "As a physician I have prescribed it with the best results." If food remains undigested in your stomach it decays. To prevent this by dieting means starvation. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat. You need suffer neither dyspepsia nor starvation. James Plummer.

A PRETTY WEDDING.

THE HOUCK-SLOAN WEDDING AT HILL BRIDGE.

Miss Mary Houck and Mr. J. Cowan Sloan Married at Thyratria Church Thanksgiving Day.

(Correspondence Sun)

Mill Bridge, N. C., Nov. 29.—The most beautiful marriage ever solemnized in our village church was celebrated last evening when Mr. J. Cowan Sloan and Miss Mary Houck took upon them the sacred vows that made them man and wife. The church had been beautifully decorated with variegated chrysanthemums arranged in a magnificent arched belfry before the pulpit. The groom came in with his brother, Mr. S. E. Sloan, of Concord, and took a seat near the altar. Then, as the organ, presided over by Miss Laura Goodman, poured forth the stirring melody of Mendelssohn, the bride, beautifully and becomingly attired in a suit of gray broadcloth with chiffon front, came up the other aisle on the arm of her brother, Mr. G. F. Houck, and met the groom at the altar where in the presence of a large assembly of friends, the beautiful Presbyterian form of marriage was very impressively rendered by the pastor, Rev. J. A. Gilmer. Then followed a reception at the manse, given by Mrs. Gilmer to the special friends of the couple, and the most delicious refreshments were served.

Mr. Sloan is in the employment of Dayvault Bros., of Concord and the place that he holds in their esteem was proven by the presence of the whole store force of sixteen, employers and clerks, and by the beautiful decorated china dinner set presented to the bride.

Miss Houck is the youngest daughter of the late Col. W. A. Houck, and deserves the love and esteem expressed, to some degree, by the numerous friends who are presents sent in by her friends and neighbors.

NOTES OF THE WEDDING.

Miss Maude Phifer, of Morganton, a student of Statesville Female College, is spending her Thanksgiving holidays here with her aunt Mrs. Gilmer.

Misses Addie Patterson, Lizzie Kincaid, and Dora Hicks were among the party, that drove up from Concord for the marriage of their fellow clerk last evening.

Messrs. I. C. Griffin, W. A. Goodman and J. C. Foutz, of Salisbury, were also among the guests last night.

Rev. Barrett at Statesville.

The Statesville Landmark says: Rev. R. G. Barrett was in town Wednesday looking after his business affairs here. Mr. Barrett was returned to Salisbury by the Conference, to the same charge he had the past year. Mr. Barrett is famous as a church builder among his people and he was sent to Salisbury to build a new Methodist church, which he did. By the end of next year, when Mr. Barrett has things in ship-shape in Salisbury, it will be just like the Conference to send him to another field to build up a waste place, for he is a success in that line.
