GRAND JURY'S REPORT

THE CONDITION OF OFFICERS' OFFICES IS COMMENDED.

All the County Buildings Found in Good Order. Repairs on the Jail Interior Recommended.

The report of the grand jury is as follows:

To His Honor, Judge A. L. Coble, Judge of the Superior Court of Rowan county for November term 1901:

We, the grand jury of said county, most respectfully report: That we have acted upon all papers which have been presented to us and have made presentment of all cases of which we have any knowledge and have endeavored to dispose of all business brought before us in an effectual manner and have, in our opinion, performed all the duties required of us as grand jury.

The various county offices have been visited and we find that they are kept in a manner which merits commendation.

We have visited and thoroughly inspected the county jail. The interior is neatly and orderly kept. The prisoners report that they are properly cared for and have no complaint to make, except that occasionally their quarters are not kept at a comfortable temperature. We find in the prisoners' quarters that a number of window panes are missing and that the ceiling in one of the cells is loose. In the jailer's quarters by patching the plastering and painting the rooms the appearance of the same could be vastly improved and the comfort of the occupants be very much increased.

We have a no visited the annex to the jail in which the county insane are confined and found it to be in excellent condition. The county home was found to be in a condition which was thought to be entirely satisfactory to all the occupants and to the jurors.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

J. A. THOMASON,
Foreman.

Zeal in the Search More Intense.

The mysterious disappearance of Ella Cropsey from Elizabeth City, N. C., is still baffling the authorities. The latter have offered a reward of $100 for the recovery of her body and $200 for evidence sufficient to convict her abductors. Governor Aycock has offered a similar reward and a mass meeting of citizens will subscribe another sum. The missing girl is reported to have been seen driving with a man in South Mills, Camden county, and also at Plymouth, but neither report has yet been substantiated.

Want to Witness Hanging.

Sheriff Julian has already had over 50 applications from persons anxious to witness the execution of Arch Conley. The law requires that the execution shall be private and that only 35 witnesses shall be admitted.

AN INTERESTING ADDRESS.

Walter Murphy, Esq., Pleases the Winston People.

The Winston Sentinel says of the address of Walter Murphy, Esq., of this city, there Sunday:

The memorial address was delivered by Mr. Walter Murphy, an honored member of the Elk Lodge in Salisbury. The speaker was introduced by the presiding officer. Mr. Murphy's address was appropriate and interesting. He is a pleasing and entertaining speaker and the audience was convinced that the Lodge made no mistake in selecting him for this occasion. He gave all the "secrets" of the order that could be made public. There are six lodges in the State, Winston-Salem, Greensboro, Salisbury, Charlotte, Wilmington and Raleigh. The last one was instituted only a few days ago. There are today about one thousand Elks in the State. The membership is not confined to any profession or calling. The order is essentially American and believes in honoring and protecting womanhood. Its principles are Charity, Brotherly Love, Justice and Fidelity. Every Elk Lodge in the U. S. holds memorial services on the Sunday in December. In conclusion the speaker said that all is well with an Elk when he passes into eternity, provided he has been true and faithful to the obligations of the order.

No Clue To Fire Origin.

There is no clue yet to the origin of the fire which occurred at Spencer yesterday morning. Capt. Parker's supply of oil was very short at the time and it is not thought that there could have been an explosion, as he would have heard it. The losses of those interested in the buildings and stock was much larger than was at first thought. It is believed that the fire was of incendiary origin.

Sol Smith Russell Can Play no More.

A special from Washington City brings the sad news that the inimitable Sol Smith Russell can never play again. Recently he was stricken with locomotor ataxia. The malady has advanced so far that the kindly Thespian is denied the use of his legs. He is pushed about in a go-cart by a colored man. There is no chance that he will ever be able to resume his old part on the stage, which is indebted to him for some of its quaintest and drollest impersonations.

Go to Jail.

Judge Coble put the finishing touches on the two white men who attempted to take possession of Gold Hill, after the Conley trial Saturday. He gave them four months each in jail with permission to hire out. They are still in jail.

Mrs. Robertson Recovered.

Mrs. C. E. Robertson has about entirely recovered from her recent attack of illness. She is entirely out of danger now.

THE ANNUAL SERMON.

ROYAL ARCANNUM WILL HAVE ANNUAL SERMON SUNDAY NIGHT.

Rev. George H. Crowell, of High Point to Preach the Sermon. Money Paid by Arcannum.

The following notice has been issued by the Salisbury Council Royal Arcannum:

The annual sermon will be preached to the Royal Arcannum of Salisbury next Sunday night, 8th inst., by Rev. George H. Crowell, of High Point. The sermon will be delivered at the First Methodist church and it is expected that all denominations will participate in this service. The public generally is invited to be present.

C. T. BERNHARDT,
W. L. KLUTZ,
D. M. MILLER,
Committee.

The Royal Arcannum has done a great work in Salisbury as well as all over the country. The Salisbury council has lost 27 members since its organization and $81,000 has been paid out in benefits. In the past year $15,000 has been paid out to widows and fatherless children in this city.

The council is now stronger than at any time in its history, numbering 225 members.

Mr. Murphy's Change.

Mr. Clarence Murphy, a native of this city who has been traveling freight and passenger agent of the Southern Pacific with head quarters at San Francisco, has become general passenger agent with head quarters at Waco, Texas. This is a very material and deserved promotion for Mr. Murphy.

The Waco Telegram has this to say of Mr. Murphy:

Mr. Murphy has already reached Waco and is familiarizing himself with the situation in his district. He is a worthy successor of Anderson, showing that he is a courteous, affable, live energetic and capable man chosen for the peculiar needs and opportunities of this particular work. He has created a most favorable impression on the railroad men and others who have met him since reaching Waco and there seems to be no doubt but that he will push out into and occupy all the room in the place assigned to him. He took right hold of matters, showing his entire familiarity with his business and a keen desire to be "at it," which is a sure sign of proficiency, and success. He will be welcomed to the community by the people of Waco, and comes highly recommended by the press of his section as a man and an official.

ROOSEVELT

ON TRUSTS.

SAYS THAT OUR YOUTHFUL INDUSTRIES SHOULD BE UNFETTERED.

TALKS OF ANARCHY.

SAYS IT IS THE DEADLY FOE OF SOCIETY.

GIVE COURTS POWER.

The President Opposes Any Legislation That Would Curb the Trusts in their Operations. Says the Youthful Nation Must not be Fettered. Thinks the Federal Court Should Deal With Anarchists, Attempting the Life of the President or His Successor.

Washington, D. C., Dec. 3.—

Today when the first serious work will be done in Congress, it is raining and ice is in abundance. There has not been such a day since McKinley's inauguration, March 4th last. The consequence is that few were present to hear the reading of Roosevelt's first message. There were no signs of the flowers of yesterday, all having been taken by souvenir hunters. Through the medium of the message, which follows, Senate and House announcement was made of the death of McKinley. The reading of the message required about two hours, after which adjournment followed out of respect for the dead Executive's memory. Immediately there will be appropriate exercises in branches of Congress. Some comment was occasioned by the fact that when Garfield was assassinated the House of representatives when assembled, was officially informed by the then representative McKinley. Supreme court decisions yesterday will necessitate appropriate legislation for the Philippines. Both parties agree on reducing war tax. Republicans oppose tariff revision, opposition to reciprocity non-partisan. There is no serious antagonism to the construction of Pacific cable. All democrats and some republicans are opposed to the ship subsidy bill.

Washington, Dec. 3.—The President's message was released of which the following is a synopsis:

"President Roosevelt's first message was read at noon today in both houses. His utterances on leading subjects are: 'The anarchist is everywhere the dread foe of liberty. The Federal courts should be given jurisdiction over every man who kills or attempts to kill the president or any man in line of succession. Anarchy is no more an expression of social discontent than picking pockets or wife beating. Anarchy is a crime against the whole human race. No matter calls more urgently for the wisest thought of Congress.' 'Trusts are the captains of industry, who have driven our railway systems across the continent and have built up our commerce and developed our manufactures. They have on the whole done great good to our people. Under such conditions it would be most unwise to cramp or fetter the youthful strength of our nation. There is a widespread conviction in the minds of the American people that great corporations known as trusts are in certain of their features and tendencies hurtful to the general welfare. It is based upon a sincere conviction that combination and concentration should not be prohibited but supervised and within reasonable limits controlled. In my judgment this conviction is right. Navy.—The work of up-building the navy must be steadily continued. No one point of our policy, foreign or domestic, is more important than this, to the honor and material welfare, and above all to the peace of our nation in the future.

Philippines.—We hope to make our administration of the islands honorable to our nation by making it of the highest benefit to the Filipinos themselves, and as in earnest of what we intend to do we point to what we have done.

Washington, Dec. 3.—Hale of Maine, and Morgan of Alabama, with committee from the House, called on the President at 2:30.

Washington, Dec. 3.—The Supreme Court has decided that no duty is collectible on goods passing from the United States to the Philippines.

Washington, Dec. 3.—McLaurin, of South Carolina, offered a resolution admitting free of duty all goods for the Charleston exposition.
