WILL TAKE A HAND IN THE SCHLEY CASE. All Washington is Praising Dewey for his Decision. Schley Says he is Satisfied. Washington, D. C., Dec. 14.—It is said today that the finding of the Schley court makes almost certain the result of further investigation of Admiral Schley's case by congress. A movement is already afoot among Schley's friends to bring the matter up. A congressional inquiry, it is said, will include the conduct of Sampson during the Spanish-American campaign. Representative Mudd, of Maryland, is taking the lead in the house in the fight for Schley and all Washington is ringing in acclaim for Dewey for his personal vindication of Schley. The admiral made an important point by saying that Schley was absolute commander. If congress sustains Dewey the result will be that the emoluments which have gone to Sampson will go to Schley. "My honor has been vindicated and I am satisfied with the decision of the court," said Schley today.

DEWEY IS LIONIZED. Washington, Dec. 14.—Admiral Dewey is the most popular man in the city today. All day a stream of message have poured in to him complimenting him for his stand taken against the administration in support of justice for Schley. They drove through the county and when they arrived at Ludwick & Black's stable were promptly arrested.

The specific charge against Crump is that of larceny and carrying concealed weapons. Yesterday he went to the home of an industrious negro named Loftin and in company with Loftin's wife took a sewing machine and three pistols from the purse. The Loftin woman has been a source of great trouble to her husband on account of her connection with Crump and has conspired at various times to rob him at Crump's suggestion. Crump is a bad character and has been frequently arrested before. Both the men and woman were put in jail.

THE MAJORITY REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE RENDERED. Admiral Dewey Sticks to Schley and Gives him Credit for the Great Santiago Victory. Washington, D. C., Dec. 13.—The majority report of the Court of Inquiry censures Admiral Schley on twelve counts. There is no finding of cowardice but rather of negligence in certain details. Admiral Dewey submits a minority report, which is as follows: "In the opinion of the undersigned the passage from Key West to Cienfuegos was made by the flying squadron with all possible dispatch, Commodore Schley having in view the importance of arriving off Cienfuegos with as much coal as possible in the ship's bunkers. The blockade of Cienfuegos was effective. Commodore Schley, in permitting the steamer Adula to enter the port of Cienfuegos expected to obtain information concerning the Spanish squadron from her when she was captured. The passage from Cienfuegos to a point about 23 miles south of Santiago was made with as much dispatch as was possible while keeping the squadron united. The blockade of Santiago was effective. Commodore Schley was the senior officer of our squadron off Santiago when the Spanish squadron attempted to escape on the morning of July 3rd, 1898. He was in absolute command and is entitled to the credit due to such commanding officer for the glorious victory which resulted in the total destruction of the Spanish ships. THE REUNION YESTERDAY. Only 24 Were Present. Those who Were Present. The reunion of the 57th North Carolina regiment held in the court house here yesterday was an enjoyable event in the lives of the old veterans and through the medium of an organization it is believed a large attendance can be secured next year. The election of Capt. John Beard as president was a fitting recognition of his gallantry during the war. Although only 24 were present yesterday, the small attendance was attributed to the short notice of the meeting and the inclemency of the weather.
