THE FLOWERS COLLECTION

Just Because You have tried hot drinks at other places and didn't like them, that is no sign of a duck nest. A wholesome hot drink, made of imported chocolate, served with whipped cream with orange wafers on the side, will cause any old spinster to make Dem Goo Goo Eyes. JAMES PLUMMER, Prescriber.

TWO AGED ONES DEAD.

TWO OCTOGENARIANS PASS INTO THE GREAT BEYOND.

Homes That the Death Angel has Visited Since Saturday Morning. Mrs. Rosa Hartman Dead.

Mrs. Rosa Hartman, who has been confined to her bed for the past fourteen months, died Saturday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock at the home of her daughter, Mrs. R. V. Lanier. The end had been expected for many days, as Mrs. Hartman failed to recognize even the immediate members of the family. She passed away as though she were falling asleep and death was perfectly painless to her.

Mrs. Hartman was in her 83rd year and until three years ago had been hale and vigorous for one of her years. She began growing weak from old age about three years ago and since that time has been gradually sinking. She was a consecrated woman and her chief delight was her ability to read her Bible and to attend regularly upon the services of the Lutheran church, of which she was a member. She was a woman of sunny disposition and imparted a cheer to the home circle that will be sadly missed. She leaves 5 children, three of whom—Mrs. R. V. Lanier, Mrs. E. K. James and Mrs. Warren—live in Salisbury.

The funeral services were held from St. John's Lutheran church yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock, Rev. Dr. L. E. Busby officiating, and the remains were interred in the Lutheran cemetery.

Mr. F. W. Scott, who lived in Salisbury until about 12 years ago, died at his home in Richmond Saturday morning at 5 o'clock. Mr. Scott was 84 years old and spent much of his life here, being most of the while in the tailoring business. He went to Richmond with members of his family about 12 years ago and has since then resided in that city. He contracted pneumonia on Christmas day and his death followed in 10 days. His Salisbury friends will learn of his demise with regret.

Gracie May, the 14 months old daughter of Mr. L. J. Taylor, died at Mr. Taylor's home on Chestnut Hill this morning of meningitis. The funeral services will be conducted from the residence tomorrow and the remains will be interred in Chestnut Hill cemetery.

CONCEALED CRIMINAL

A NEGRO DANGEROUSLY CUT SHIELDS HIS ASSAILANT.

Was Spirited From the Country to Salisbury and Concealed in a House in Salisbury.

Most of the trouble that falls nowadays to the lot of the officers of the law in capturing lawbreakers is the disposition of the colored class of colored people to shield the criminals of their own race.

Last Thursday night Ed Ford was very dangerously cut on Mr. George Fink's plantation near Salisbury. His assailant was Jim Gay, also colored. The wounded man was brought to Salisbury by friends who secreted him in a building occupied by several colored families on Fisher street near the second bridge. Their desire to save Gay overcome their friendship for Ford and they failed to report the matter to the officers. The sheriff got wind of it Friday afternoon, however, and all the officers were put on the watch. Saturday afternoon Gay was captured by Officer Torrence and Saturday night Sheriff Julian and a deputy arrested Gay's wife and Ford. All three of them were locked up and will remain in jail until the February term of court.
