VOL. X.

SALISBURY, N. C., THURSDAY EVENING, JANUARY 30, 1902.

NO. 149

UNION IS ENLARGING.

A CAGE WILL BE PUT IN THE NO. 3 SHAFT.

Improvements to be made on the General Contractor. Capt. Wiley, General Manager, Talks of Mine's Future.

Capt. W. Murdoch Wiley, general manager of the Union Copper Mine, came up from Gold Hill last night and was interviewed regarding the rumor current here yesterday that the Union had suspended operations. Capt. Wiley said: "The rumor is so far from the actual facts that it is hardly worthy consideration. The event which has in all probability given rise to this report really concerns only the directors and stockholders of the company. But, in order to allay any anxiety that may have arisen in the minds of the friends of the Union Copper Mine I will state that the program now being carried out at the Union is the result of long and careful consideration on the part of the directors and has for its immediate purpose the material increase of the output of the mine. The facts are simply these: The capacity of the present concentrator will be inadequate to handle the output of the mine after the cage is installed in No. 3 shaft. As the enlargement of the mill cannot be carried on while it is running, it has been decided to shut down the mill while the cage is being put in the shaft. This being the reason of work at the mill, as no one can be hoisted while the cage is being put in, the blowing out of the smelter is, of course, a natural consequence of shutting down the mill. The causes which led to the selection of the present time for the putting into execution of this long planned program were the facts that the company has just completed a contract for the delivery of a certain amount of matte to the American Metal Company and it was deemed best, owing to the break in the price of copper, to delay signing any further contract and in the meantime to proceed with the work of the betterment and enlargement already alluded to, hoping and believing that by the time this work was completed there would be a substantial advance in the price of copper and that the Union would then be in a position to meet the improved conditions of a better market with an enormous increased output. The reduction in the force has affected only the mill and smelter employees and the heads and principle foremen of the departments have been retained on salary, pending the early resumption of work."

In an interview in Washington last week with the correspondent of the Charlotte Observer, Capt. Wiley stated that he was convinced from conversations which he had had with men thoroughly conversant with the situation that an advance in the price of copper was imminent and inevitable. Yesterday's market report justified that prediction and the immediate and rapid advance of Amalgamated Copper indicates the dawn of more prosperous days for copper mines and their owners. Owing to the prominent position North Carolina now occupies as a copper producer she will undoubtedly reap her portion of the harvest in the yield. The Sun is gratified to learn that the Union was never on a mere substantial basis than now.
