THE GRIM VISITOR.

MRS. LAURA WORKMAN AND MISS SALLIE HARRISON DEAD.

Both of Them Die of Pneumonia. Neither of Them Sick But a Few Days. The Funerals.

Mrs. Laura A. Workman, after an illness of two weeks with a severe attack of bronchial pneumonia, died at her home on East Council street this morning at 3:30 o'clock, surrounded by her family.

Mrs. Workman was 64 years of age and was born in Davidson county. Being left a widow she moved to Salisbury about ten years ago and reared a family of three sons and three daughters, Mess. James, Thomas and Robert, and Misses Louise and Belle and Mrs. Nannie Sanford, the latter of Davie county.

Mrs. Workman was formerly a Lutheran but later connected herself with and was a faithful member of the Baptist church, and although her age prevented her from attending services regularly she was true to the doctrines of her church and was a devout Christian. She was devoted to her family and her delight was in serving those of her household. A kind friend, a good neighbor, she will be missed by all of her acquaintances.

The funeral services will be held from the Baptist church tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, conducted by Revs. M. E. Parrish and L. E. Busby, and the interment will take place in Chestnut Hill Cemetery.

Miss Sallie Harrison died at the home of her father, Mr. S. R. Harrison, yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock, after an illness of a few days with pneumonia. Her recovery was despaired of yesterday. The deceased was 39 years old and was the only daughter of Mr. S. R. Harrison. She has been a consumptive for years and her failing health had prepared her family for the end. Miss Harrison was a member of St. Luke's Episcopal church and regularly attended the services. She was held in high esteem by all who knew her.

The funeral services will be held from St. Luke's Episcopal church tomorrow afternoon at 4:30 o'clock, Rev. F. J. Murdoch officiating.

COURT MONDAY.

The Folger Case one of the Most Interesting Ones.

The February term of Rowan county Superior court convenes Monday, Judge Shaw presiding. The docket is a very heavy one but the case that is most interesting is that of W. H. Folger, who killed Bob Moore. Several sentences are promised in this trial.

Lady Kicked by a Lunatic.

A lunatic in the custody of an officer gave a Salisbury lady a severe fight at the depot last night. The lady was in front of the unfortunate man when he kicked her violently. She was worse frightened than injured, however, and the man was put under closer surveillance.

CHILD BADLY BURNED.

Mr. Wm. R. Lyerly's Little Son Caught in Fire.

Thomas, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. R. Lyerly, narrowly escaped being burned to death today. Mrs. Lyerly left the boy in the kitchen in charge of two larger children, the latter of whom left the room. The child was standing in front of an open fire when its dress caught. It began screaming and Mrs. Lyerly rushed into the room and extinguished the flames, but not before the child had been badly burned. The severest burns are about the body, but it is thought that the little fellow will recover without any permanent marks of injury.

DAVIS SHOT TO DEATH.

THE MURDERER OF MR. JOHN L. ODELL KILLED.

Was Serving out a Term of 30 Years. Tried to Cut Those Who Were With Him.

M. C. Davis, who killed Mr. John L. Odell, a long time resident of Salisbury, was shot to death by a guard of the State convict force Wednesday. He was working with a convict gang in Mitchell county.

The Concord Standard says of the way in which he met his death:

Davis has been manifesting something of the old elephant insubordination and had threatened to kill the son of Maj. McIver for threatening to report him for punishment for indolence at work.

On the morning of the 5th he refused to go to work and Superintendent McIver sent a negro to bring him to his office where he hoped to wield a reasonable influence over him. When the negro came to lead him he caught around him and slipping a knife out of his sleeve, ripped the negro so that his lung protruded from the wound.

Davis then made for the stockade gate holding everybody at bay by slashing with his knife. He got out of the gate and was making his way when a guardman was ordered to fire. Davis fell with his heart punctured with buckshot and died instantly.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT.

The Ma-onic Order Mourns Capt Woodrum's Death.

Whereas, The Supreme Ruler of the Universe has called our brother W. J. Woodrum, from labor, in the lodge below to the pleasures of the Celestial lodge above and while we bow in humble submission to Him "who doeth all things well" yet in this affliction we pay this tribute to the memory of our friend and associate, therefore be it:

Resolved, That in the death of brother Woodrum, Fulton lodge has lost a faithful and useful member, every brother a kindly, considerate and self-sacrificing friend, and his family a wise, tenderly loving and faithful companion and counselor.

Resolved, That our deepest sympathy and condolence be extended to the family of the deceased in this, their sad affliction, commending them in their grief to Him whose mercies endure forever.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be forwarded to the family of our deceased brother, be published in the Daily Sun and a page in the minutes of this lodge be appropriately inscribed and dedicated to the memory of our departed brother.

COL. JOHN A. HOLT.

A Tribute From a Friend to the Late Col. Holt.

Communication.

After an illness of two months Col. John Allen Holt passed away at ten minutes after ten, Thursday night at his home on Fulton street. His many friends throughout the State read the above with deep regret. Always courteous, with a cordial greeting his friends were accustomed to meet him. No more will his familiar face and commanding figure be seen on our streets where for over half a century he has gone out and in among us. 'Tis sad indeed to see one by one our oldest citizens pass away and sadder still, is the thought that the old time gentlemen's places are not being filled. Col. Holt was born in Lexington, N.C., Dec. 29, 1830. He came to Salisbury when quite a young man. Married and has lived here since. He has been connected with the railroad since 1854, was conductor of the first train which left this town. He has held many positions from agent to superintendent. Faithful, chivalrous, a great heart, a genial churchman. He fell asleep surrounded by a loving wife and four children, with a firm faith in his Savior.

He was laid to rest on Saturday afternoon. The lovely lot of offering from Salisbury and other places were just tributes to his popularity.

Among those who attended the funeral were noted his kinsmen, William Erwin, of West Durham, William Hart, of Lexington, Erwin Holt, of Burlington, Charles Holt, of Lexington, and Mrs. W. T. Carter, of Winston-Salem.

ADMIRAL SCHLEY HERE HAS THE PNEUMONIA.

GREETED BY ABOUT 200 PEOPLE AT THE DEPOT.

He Talks to Our People About Santiago and His Suggested Candidacy For the Presidency.

Admiral W. S. Schley, the hero of Santiago, was in Salisbury for 30 minutes last night.

The Admiral arrived here on the Western train at 7:41 o'clock and was traveling in the private car of Superintendent W. H. Peddle, superintendent of transportation of the Southern. When the train backed into the station about 200 people were waiting to meet him.

They gathered around the rear end of the car and the Admiral came out on the platform. Three cheers and a tiger were given with a hearty good will. The Admiral stated that he was hoarse and could not remain in the night air long. He desired, he said, however, to express his gratitude to the people of Salisbury, for the attention shown him.

"Tell us something about Santiago, Admiral," said some one in the crowd.

"I feel very great pleasure in the fact that I was there," he responded.

"How about the talk of your becoming a candidate for the Presidency?" he was asked.

"It is too far off," he replied. "I should dislike to sacrifice the love of the people by making any mistakes that would jeopardize it."

The Admiral was apprised of the fact that counsel for Admiral Sampson had filed papers with the President protesting to the statement that Schley was in command at Santiago. He expressed some surprise but refused to discuss the matter.

MISS WATSON'S FUNERAL.

Many Beautiful Floral Offerings, One From the Soldiers.

The funeral services over the remains of Miss Mary Watson were held this afternoon at 3 o'clock from the Presbyterian church, Rev. Dr. J. Rumpel officiating. A large concourse of friends and acquaintances of the deceased were numerous and beautiful.

Another Cold Wave.

Chicago, Feb. 8.—Another return of the cold wave in the north-west this morning sent the mercury three degrees below zero. The suffering is intense.

One on Schley.

A wag in the crowd that greeted Admiral Schley at the depot last night got off a bright question. Someone in the crowd said, "Admiral, I want to shake your hand."

"My good friends in the West have about pulled my arm off," said the admiral as he extended his hand.

"So they pulled your arm and not your leg, did they?" queried the wag.

And Admiral Schley joined in the laugh that followed.
