MRS. WYATT'S FUNERAL SUNDAY

Awaiting Arrival of Her Children. The Funeral Sunday Afternoon.

The funeral services over the remains of Mrs. N. C. Wyatt, who died Wednesday night, will be held from St. John's Lutheran church Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock if her sons, Dr. W. W. Wyatt and Mr. Z. V. Wyatt, arrive by that time. In the event of their failure to get here the funeral will be postponed until Monday. The remains will be interred in Oak Grove cemetery.

THEY SHOT A COW.

Four Nimrods Claim a Rabbit and Find a Dead Cow.

A farmer who came to Salisbury this afternoon tells of rather an interesting episode that distinguished the experiences of a party of Salisbury hunters today. This morning Mess. J. M. Maupin, J. E. Hennessy, Col. O. W. Spencer and Chief of Police Miller went gunning for rabbits. Only one rabbit was started during the entire morning (although Mr. Maupin had 14 hounds which he has had in training for two years, along). As soon as the cotton tail appeared four guns were levelled, four loads of buckshot went spinning through the air. An object was seen to fall and every one of the quartette claimed the spoils. Much to their horror when they approached the victim of their deadly fire they discovered that they had missed the rabbit and killed a $60 Jersey cow. The cow was shot in four different places and no argument followed as to the propriety of costs. The rabbit they didn't get cost these gentlemen exactly $15 each.

MRS. HALE DEAD.

The Wife of a Southern Conductor Dies of Convulsions.

Mrs. Hale, wife of Capt. Hale, a conductor on the north end of the Southern out of Spencer, died today of convulsions. Particulars of Mrs. Hale's death were unobtainable at the hour of going to press.

MR. PFOFF DEAD.

Head Brakeman in the Bessemer City Wreck Dies.

Mr. J. A. Pfoff, head brakeman on the freight train that was wrecked at Bessemer City October 27th, died in the hospital at Charlotte Wednesday night. The funeral was held in Winston today and a number of Spencer friends and the deceased were in attendance.

Church News.

The North Carolina Conference of the Tennessee Synod of the Evangelical Lutheran Church will meet at Mt. Calvary church, Claremont, Catawba county, next Thursday, 12th, and will continue in session through the following Sunday. The conference is composed of 25 parishes in Catawba, Lincoln, Gaston, Caldwell, Iredell, Rowan and Cabarrus counties—Statesville landmark.

Salisburians in Greensboro.

About 25 Salisburians took in the Barnum & Bailey circus at Greensboro yesterday. 12,000 people saw the performance. The show breaks up in Richmond on the 12th, and sails for Europe on December 1st.

Carpenters and Joiners.

A meeting of the Carpenters and Joiners will be held to-night. Business of importance is to be transacted and every member is requested to be present.

New white beans, prepared horseradish, horseradish mustard, lard and bulk pork sausage, mountain buckwheat flour and maple syrup at Max Moses. 2t

Everybody holding our receipts dated Oct. 13, 1903, will please bring them in. They are worth their face value in goods. We still give to each CASH buyer a receipt and refund one day's sales each month. Whitlock & Rainey, boots, shoes and rubbers.

"IT MEANS A DEMOCRAT."

So Says Mayor Boyden with Reference to Tuesday's Results.

"The result of the elections on Tuesday indicates to my mind a Democratic victory next year," said Mayor Boyden yesterday. "We cleaned up all doubtful territory and were never in better fighting trim." "And who do you think is the man to nominate at the next Democratic national convention?" Col. Boyden was asked. "Cleveland," he replied emphatically.

But Salisbury and Rowan county Democrats are divided on that question. Senator Overman's preference has not been ascertained; Representative Klutz favors Parker; that splendid and enthusiastic champion of Democracy, W. B. Smoot, wants Whitney, while scores of party workers are ardent Gorman followers. It has developed within the past two weeks that W. R. Hearst, editor of the New York Journal, also has some following in this city and the county.

A REMARKABLE MELODRAMA.

A Fatiguing Role That Requires Two Players.

So exacting and fatiguing is the role of Jessi, (The Little Mother) in "The Fatal Wedding," which will be the attraction at Meroney's opera house Saturday night that Sullivan, Harris & Woods have engaged the services of two child artists to interpret the part. Each of these very young women will alternate with the other at the various performances, thus giving each from four to five performances a week, instead of the usual nine. This character of "The Little Mother" is one that appeals instantly to every feminine heart, and to that fact may be ascribed much of the success of this remarkable melodrama.

MR. BROUGHTON'S ADDRESS.

Hon. John W. Oates is Coming Here Next Sunday.

A good sized crowd of people were at the tabernacle last night to hear Mr. N. B. Broughton, of Raleigh, on the question of licensing saloons. Dr. Stallings presided, and Rev. Mr. Tate, of the Methodist church, offered prayer. Mr. Broughton spoke as a business man and as his remarks greatly pleased the prohibitionists. It was announced that Hon. John W. Oates, of Fayetteville, will speak at the tabernacle Sunday afternoon and Rev. Dr. John C. Kilgus, next Tuesday night. The audience was dismissed by Rev. J. H. Wilson.

Engineer Hendrix Here.

Engineer J. F. Hendrix, who was scalded in a wreck on the Western yesterday, is in Salisbury today with Mrs. Hendrix visiting the latter's mother. Mr. Hendrix was only slightly scalded.

Mr. Wyatt at Home.

Mr. Travis Wyatt has arrived from Birmingham, Alabama, having been summoned by a telegram announcing the death of his mother, Mrs. N. C. Wyatt.

A Change in Temperature.

There was a decided change in the temperature this morning and a cold wind has been blowing all day. It is a typical fall day.

A Dangerous Well.

The public well on East Innis street is in a dangerous condition. A portion of the boxing is gone and there is a large opening into which a child could easily fall.

A Firm to Dissolve.

The firm of Powell & Harper, grain and feed merchants, will be dissolved on January 1st, 1904. A notice to this effect appears on fourth page.

PRESBYTERIAN SYNOD

WORK OF SYNOD YESTERDAY.

Rev. Dr. Rumble Makes Report on Barium Springs Orphanage.

Wilmington, Nov. 5.—The third day's sessions of the North Carolina Synod were replete with interesting features and profitable discussion.

The morning session opened with devotional exercises by Rev. Wm. Black, of Davidson, synodical evangelist.

The report of Dr. J. B. Seaver, Chairman of the Committee on Church and Christian Education, showed a steady increase of interest in the cause throughout the Southern churches, especially in North Carolina. Double appointments were recommended for the coming year.

A response to Dr. McKelway's address in behalf of the Presbyterian Standard was made, approving his method of conducting the paper and urging Synod's support of it.

Dr. Egbert Smith, of Greensboro, made a plea for more adequate support of a Presbyterian pastor at the State University. A strong, effective man was recommended to exert a Presbyterian influence at that great institution. The church at Chapel Hill can pay only a small salary and the Synod pledged $145 to supplement that amount to be collected and distributed through the Synod's Home Mission Committee.

The report on Union Theological Seminary was presented by Dr. McKelway. The prosperity of the institution during the past year was marked. Fifty-eight students are in attendance and thirteen were graduated this year.

Rev. G. B. Strickler, D. D., president of the seminary, spoke of the work being done there, and called attention to increasing needs. The college work was reported in excellent condition.

A committee appointed to respond to Dr. Smith in regard to Davidson College made a report and the Synod expressed its appreciation of the president and the college. More liberal financial support was urged and the work of the "Davidson League" was recommended.

Dr. J. Rumble reported for the regents of the Barium Springs Orphanage. After reading appropriate scripture and singing of hymns, a review of the work was gone into. Note was made of the fact that Mr. George Howard, of Tarboro, recently presented to the orphanage a fine brick building. Receipts from all sources were about $15,000, expenditures $14,000. Support from outside sources during the year amounted to about $8,000, an increase of nearly $3,000 over last year. In connection with the orphanage subject Dr. H. G. Hill, of Maxton, preached a special sermon from the theme, "Jehovah's wards." The report on the orphanage was received and placed in the hands of a special committee.

FORMER SALISBURIAN HURT.

Engineer Hendrix Scalded in Wreck Yesterday.

Asheville, Nov. 5.—The freight train No. 54 was wrecked near the high trestle at Tryon, about one o'clock this morning, and three of the trainmen were injured. The injured men are: Engineer Frank Hendrix, scalded; Fireman T. D. Lord, bruised; Brakeman L. Moore out on the head and back hurt. Six cars loaded with coal and the engine were ditched. The track was blocked until 11 o'clock this morning, when the first train passed over. A broken flange is said to have been the cause of accident.

Leave Tonight for Washington.

Sen. Overman and Representative Klutz leave tonight for Washington, to be present at the opening of Congress on Monday morning. Both will probably return to Salisbury to be present at the opening of court on the 23rd inst.

THE REGISTRATION TO-DAY.

A Record Breaking Registration on the Prohibition Election.

The first day's registration on the prohibition election to be held next Thursday closed last night at 8 o'clock and marked a record breaker in the matter of registration in Salisbury. Both sides were at work early in the day urging the voters to register and an unusual feature of the day's work was the early registration of many who have heretofore taken but a desultory interest in elections of any character.

The total registration by wards up to 3 o'clock today was as follows:

East Ward	88
West "	90
North "	84
South "	150

THE ALDERMEN MEET.

But Little Business Was Transacted Last Night, However.

The board of aldermen met in regular monthly session last night. Nothing excepting routine business was transacted, however, and the session was a short one.

CALLED PICKPOCKET DOWN.

Alderman Huff Was on to the Artist's Game.

A pickpocket who ran his hand in Alderman W. H. Huff's pocket at Charlotte Wednesday was quickly called down. Mr. Huff carried his money in an inside pocket and in his hip pocket had a belt which his son had removed. In the jam for tickets when 2,000 hands were held up with cash for tickets Mr. Huff felt a movement in the neighborhood of his hip pocket. Turning to a well-dressed individual who was purposely pushing him Mr. Huff quietly remarked, "Don't do that again, pardner." The man quickly disappeared and although Mr. Huff searched for him several hours he could not be found.

9 O'POSSUMS LANDED.

Deputy Sheriff Krider Heads a Successful Party.

Deputy Sheriff J. Hodge Krider headed a party that went out for 'possums last night and nine fine members of the 'possum family were landed. Mr. Krider's famous 'possum dog was along. Tomorrow afternoon at 5 o'clock the gentlemen in the hunting party will give an 'possum supper to a party of friends.

WOMAN FOUND ON TRACK.

The Remains of a White Woman Discovered Yesterday.

An Asheville special says: A passenger train from Spartanburg, ran over a woman near Arden, ten miles from Asheville, about 8 o'clock tonight.

When the train stopped and the woman was picked up it was found that the body was almost cold. Her head was entirely severed from her shoulders and badly crushed. It is believed that the woman was either murdered or placed on the track or that a former train had run her down without the knowledge of the engineer.

It is stated tonight that the woman is believed to be a Mrs. Murray, living in the southern section of Buncombe.

Meals served at all hours at J. Risher's restaurant, East Innis street.
