The bride wore a traveling dress of brown and immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Porter left for Chattanooga. They will return by way of Atlanta and will be gone about ten days. On their return they will board with Dr. Miller in the East ward.

R. Lee Wright, Esq., and Burton Craige, Esq., spent Thursday at China Grove, where a most interesting matter was brought up for adjudication before Esquire C. A. Linn.

The funeral will be held tomorrow.

JAMES CASE IN COURT.

Argument Before the Supreme Court Yesterday Afternoon.

The Washington correspondent of the Charlotte Observer says: Argument was begun this afternoon in the James case before the Supreme Court. Senator Overman, of counsel for the plaintiff, was engaged in making the first speech, when the hour for adjournment arrived, and the Senator will conclude his remarks shortly after noon tomorrow. General Henderson, Capt. Price and Mr. Busbee are here as representatives of the railroad. This is one of the most interesting cases that ever came from the State, and the ultimate disposition of it will be a matter of universal interest.

Numerous questions were propounded today by associate justices, but none were of such a nature as to indicate how the case is regarded by the court. The question is of jurisdiction, and to determine whether the Federal Court has authority to enjoin a sheriff in North Carolina from selling property of the railroad company to meet a judgment obtained by Mrs. James and Mrs. Howard. Senator Overman and Mr. Small arranged for Capt. Price and Mr. Busbee to attend a reception at the White House tonight in honor of the judiciary, but Capt. Price decided at the last moment that he would not leave his hotel, as he has not been well for some time. Mr. Busbee went along with several members of the delegation and members of their families.

THE NORMAL'S LOSS.

President M'IVER'S STATEMENT

All the Homes of Greensboro Open to Young Women.

Dr. McIver yesterday afternoon issued the following statement: To the Public—The main dormitory of the State Normal and Industrial College was burned this morning about 4 o'clock. No student was injured in any way though a number of them lost their trunks and all their clothing. The citizens of Greensboro have opened their homes to the students, and comfortable temporary arrangements have been made. There will be no suspension of the college. The students have shown perfect self-possession, and there has been at no time anything bordering upon a panic. The three other dormitories together with the temporary equipment of rooms in the main college building, the Students' Building and the Curry Building, its work for the present. In two or three weeks some permanent and better arrangement can be made.

The board of directors meets today. They will lay plans looking to the erection of a new dormitory. This will probably be built in time for use next fall. This spring, the Students' Building, Curry Building and private homes will afford sleeping accommodations for such students as cannot be accommodated in the other dormitories. Work on a temporary kitchen and dining room has been commenced and in a short while all the students can be cared for at the college. Four committees of the faculty have the arrangements in hand; Committee on kitchen and dining room, committee on clothing for students, committee on providing meals, committee on homes.

CHARLES D. McIVER, President.

TEXAS STEER TONIGHT.

An Amusing Comedy That Comes to Salisbury.

The company playing "A Texas Steer" arrived in Salisbury this morning and will be seen at Merozey's opera house tonight. One of the unoriginal things Mr. Hoyt said is "that nothing succeeds like success;" but it is so aptly quoted to "A Texas Steer" that the application can be easily forgiven. This is quite certain—no comedy of its class has better or more worthy claims to its great popularity than "A Texas Steer." These claims, like its success, are well founded. This, too, can be said while comparing "A Texas Steer" with Hoyt's other successes. Some special reasons for this standing of the play are its wholesome wit, its always well tempered satire, its brisk, natural and continual movement and the unceasing laughter provocation of its lines, characters and situations. No one is ashamed to confess to having laughed for two hours at a time after seeing "A Texas Steer" for he can show good cause for having done so.
