KLUTZ--THOMASON.

A HOME WEDDING LAST NIGHT.

Two Much Esteemed Young People Are Married.

At 7:30 o'clock last evening Miss Georgia Ernestine Klutz was married to Mr. Watson Thomason at the home of the bride's father, Mr. George A. Klutz at 420 East Innis street. The ceremony was simplicity itself--none the less but more beautiful on this account. The parlor, in which the couple were united was tastefully decorated, and the assemblage of invited friends of the contracting parties gathered in a circle in the room and hallway. Mrs. Turner, formerly Miss Myrtle James, played the wedding march as the bride and groom entered the room. Miss Klutz was attired in a becoming white costume while the groom was dressed in conventional black. They were preceded by Rev. Dr. F. J. Murdoch, of St. Luke's Episcopal church, who pronounced the vows. After the ceremony congratulations were tendered by all present after which Mr. and Mrs. Thomason took No. 35 for Atlanta, where they will spend a week. On their return they will make their home at Mr. Thomason's former residence at 23b.

Mrs. Thomason is a splendid young woman, possessing attractions of person and character that have won for her many admiring friends. Mr. Thomason has been a resident of Salisbury about three years, lately being bookkeeper for the Brown Furniture Factory. He is a fine type of the industrious, aggressive and worthy young manhood of this section. Both Mr. and Mrs. Thomason have hosts of well wishers in this community and the many handsome bridal presents received by this young couple attest to more than ordinary popularity.

Col. Henderson spoke for more than an hour and expressed an unalterable conviction of the necessity for the organization of labor. He traced the simultaneous development of society and the prosperity of the artisan and declared that oppression would necessarily attend disregard of self interest. Mayor Boyden stated at the conclusion of Col. Henderson's speech that as it was growing late he would defer his address until some future time.

SURRY PRIMARIES.

They are Said to Have Been Really Against Blackburn.

The Winston Sentinel says: A Surry Republican reports that the primaries held in that county last Saturday were not a victory for Spencer Blackburn, as he and his friends claim. This Republican says that only 4 out of 110 delegates to the county convention were instructed for Blackburn. Thirty were instructed.

The Mt. Airy Leader this week is a red-hot number. It claims that Blackburn carried every township in Surry, except Westfield, which went for Linney, and part of the other townships were divided between Linney and Blackburn, and Mt. Airy No. 1, which is contested. It claims that Blackburn has 78 votes in the county convention, Linney 17, 15 contesting. The paper goes on State Senator Samuel Marshall with gloves off.

REPUBLICAN PRIMARY.

CONGRESSIONAL PRIMARY TODAY.

The Contest in Salisbury Township is Warm.

The Republican primaries in Rowan county which are being held today to determine upon this county's choice for a nominee for congress in this district, are being held today. The Salisbury boxes will be opened at 7 o'clock with the exception of the North ward precinct, at which voting began at 2 o'clock.

At 3:30 o'clock this afternoon it was stated by Mr. Jno. L. Reddeman that the North ward precinct had gone for Price by a large majority.

It is not believed that any of the county precincts will be heard from before night, but it is well known that a fight, the like of which has not been known among the Rowan Republicans in years, is being made.

A former well known Democrat who recently went to Republican ranks has been engaged this week in canvassing Atwell and China Grove townships in Blackburn's interest and a letter received here this morning says he has done effective work.

HEAVIER RAILS.

Southern to Lay Heavier Rails on the Main Line.

Says the Charlotte Chronicle: "It is reported that the heavy 90-pound rails on the main line of the Southern, between Washington and Spencer, are to be replaced by 100 pound rails both on the main line and the double track. The rails at present in use will be distributed among the branch lines in this section that are now equipped with lighter rails. The Southern is constantly improving its trackage and rolling stock to the point."

THREE JOLLY SENATORS.

How Overman, Simmons and Clarke Enjoy Senatorial Life.

Says the Washington Post: "In the rear row of seats on the democratic side are three jolly senators. These are Mr. Clarke, of Arkansas, whose snow-white hair and clear-cut features add to his picturesqueness; Mr. Simmons, who is short of stature, his hair and mustache being black as a raven's wing, and Mr. Overman, tall, robust and slightly gray. "All during the morning hour the faces of this trio are wreathed in smiles. Generally, they are on hand when the senate convenes, Clarke leans over to Simmons and says a few words. Overman also draws near. Then there are signs of suppressed laughter. Overman has something in reply, the three senatorial heads, white, black and gray, come close together again and again separate, while their owners have another hearty laugh. Soon Mr. Simmons takes a turn, for he, as well as his two colleagues, is good at story telling. It matters not what weighty business the senate is engaged in. These southern senators enjoy their own scintillations. Not a sound do they make to disturb the proceedings. From the galleries it is like merriment in the pantomime. When their fun gets strenuous they adjourn to the democratic cloakrooms and the swinging doors of glass close behind their jolly figures."

Tien Tsin, March 24.—The Russian government has instructed its military attaché of the legation at Peking to ascertain the number of troops and strength of the movement of Chinese near the Manchurian frontier. Dear Sir: Mr. Frank Robinson, Titusville, Pa. bought Devos with a good deal of feeling against the whole tribe of mixed paints. Our agents there, Messrs. Kernouhan & Co, got him to do it. He says: "I am more than pleased with the job. I had one-third of the paint left over; I know of several other jobs, a year old or more, painted with Devos, that are wearing well. What a pity we have to all go through the same school, to find out what paint to put on a house! Experience teaches. Isn't there any easier way to learn?"
