A CHILD BURNED.

The four months old child of Mr. U. G. Scott, manager of the Salisbury Telephone Exchange, was painfully burned yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Scott had left the room for a moment when the child managed to free itself from restraint and fall upon the hearth. The hot brick left what at first appeared to be very serious scars but which later proved to be only slight injuries.

Rev. Stickle's New Charge.

Says the Lutheran Visitor: "Rev. V. R. Stickle has entered upon his work in the Shenandoah pastorate, having preached in each of the congregations and met a number of the church people. All he has seen and heard so far seem well pleased. His health continues to improve, but his wife contracted quite a cold on their recent trip from North Carolina to Virginia. She is improving, however, and we trust will soon be well."

BALTIMORE FULL OF HOBOES.

Ernest Murphy Says That 25 Stand on Every Street Corner. "There is 25 hobo on every public street corner in Baltimore," said Ernest Murphy to a Sun representative who took his statement with reference to the indictment against him for robbing Atwell's store and shooting two officers. "I got a job," continued Murphy, "at $1.25 per day without any trouble but every boarding place in Baltimore required cash in advance and that's what let so many fellows down. Didn't have the cash in advance, couldn't work without eating, so they did not work."

TOLD IN BRIEF.

Items Personal and Otherwise Picked Up on the Rounds. Mr. P. B. Beard went to Statesville this morning. Fetching fixtures to fetch business. Butt's Shoe Store. Mr. Thomas Robinson went to Greensboro this morning. Mr. L. A. Peebles left today for South Boston, Virginia. Mrs. Eugene Hauser, who has been desperately sick, is very much improved. Mr. P. H. He is finding a ready market for this water in Salisbury. Young Moore's Condition. Mr. M. L. Cline, of No. 5 tells us that his little 10 year old grandson, Fred Moore, son of Mr. Chas. Moore, of Granite Quarry, got his right eye put out on the 22nd and his face badly cut, due to a discharge of dynamite. The little fellow struck the cap on an anvil, and it exploded with the above result. He was taken at once to Salisbury for medical attention. The sight of the eye is destroyed, and the boy is in a serious condition.—Concord Times.

ROWAN UNIFORMLY RIGHT.

Says the Charlotte Observer editorially: The Salisbury Sun says: "Messrs. T. C. Linn and Walter Murphy, who were in Raleigh last week, were asked as to their preference for President and both declared unqualifiedly for Cleveland." We honestly believe that the Rowan folks come nigher being uniformly right than any other people in the State.

"They act gently and without any unpleasant effect, and leave the bowels in a perfectly natural condition." Sold by Jas. Plummer. Inflammatory Rheumatism Cured. William Shaffer, a brakeman of Dennison, Ohio, was confined to his bed for several weeks with inflammatory rheumatism. "I used many remedies," he says. "Finally sent to McCaw's drug store for a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm, at which time I was unable to use hand or foot, and in one week's time was able to go to work as happy as a clam." For sale by Jas. Plummer.

RUSSIANS STARVING. PORT ARTHUR'S BAD CONDITION.

Another Attack of Japanese Expected in a Few Days. Chefoo, March 25.—A Japanese newspaper correspondent who visited Port Arthur, in disguise has returned. He says provisions are short, prices exorbitant and the supply from the outside practically cut off. He thinks the Russians will be compelled to give up Port Arthur without resistance, owing to starvation. He estimates the garrison at five thousand. The town has suffered much through Japanese shells and hundreds of houses are in ruins. St. Petersburg, March 24.—The Russian fleet under Admiral Wirnenius has been ordered to remain at Port Arthur.
