JACKSON'S PLANT LOST

DESTROYED LAST NIGHT BY FIRE Mr. Jackson Estimates His Loss at $3,000.

Mr. M. L. Jackson's storehouse and a great portion of the contents were destroyed about 10:30 on the first of April for Shelby Mr. Comann, of Lenoir. Colork last night by fire. The fire, Mr. Jackson thinks, originated in the smoke house and was of accidental origin. The sausage factory, smoke house, store house and slaughter pen were destroyed. The splendid refrigerator was also damaged. About $400 worth of beef was saved from the fire.

Mr. Jackson stated this morning that his loss was about $3,000, with no insurance.
