The men / Rooseveltism, with all of its conhad been at times business and so cial intimates and up to two months ago were on the best of terms. A difference arose between them, however, and Mr. Grubb was advised that the dead man had threatened to have satisfaction in blood at the first opportunity. Mr. Davis was in Salisbury Friday but the two men did not meet. Mutual friends and partisans of either man have been apprehending trouble and there was no little satisfaction among them when Mr. Davis re ty had brought prosperity to this severe attack of jaundice. turned home.
