STATE HAPPENINGS IN CONDENSED FORM

A. C. L. DECLARES DIVIDEND

The second dividend of 5 per cent. of the 25 per cent. dividend declared on the common stock of the Atlantic Coast Line was paid Friday. On January 2 checks were issued for 20 per cent. of the dividend. The work of double tracking on the road is being pushed with all possible haste.

Two Little Children of J. R. Harder of Wilmington had a narrow escape from death this week from an attack of ptomaine poisoning. It is not known how they caught the baffling disease.

Mrs. M. C. Gray, wife of a Wilmington policeman, tried to commit suicide Thursday. She was suffering from an attack of melancholia and shot herself in the fleshy part of her left arm, just below the shoulder. The wound is not dangerous.

Governor Glenn has appointed the following as a committee to arrange for the monuments at Appomattox Court House: H. A. London of Pittsboro, E. J. Holt of Smithfield, Wilson T. Jenkins of Aurelian Springs, C. B. Watson of Winston and A. D. McGill of Cumberland county.

Lee-Jackson day was observed at Asheville Thursday by ceremonies under the direction of the Daughters of Confederacy. An interesting feature of the occasion was the conferring of crosses of honor on old Confederate soldiers. Rev. Father Marion and Hon. Locke Craig delivered appropriate addresses.

In the United States District court at Greensboro, Friday, Judge Boyd adjudged Charles T. Pinkson, a merchant of Mooresville, Iredell county, bankrupt upon his own petition. Liabilities are reported about $7,000, assets $3,300. The case was referred to J. E. Alexander, referee, at Winston.

An automobile hotel bus and a street car collided in Greensboro Thursday night. The auto balked and a negro man was pushing it, when the engine began to work and before it could be stopped, ran on to the car track. A wheel of the machine and its brakes were smashed, but no one was injured.

The officers of the First Regiment of the North Carolina National guards will meet in Charlotte on the 30th instant to elect a colonel of the regiment to succeed former Col. Thomas R. Robertson, who has been appointed adjutant general. The names of several officers are mentioned for the position, perhaps most prominent among them being Major Robert L. Flanigan of Statesville, Lieutenant Colonel George E. Bessent, it is understood, is also a candidate for the colonelship, as are also Majors T. J. Gardner of Shelby and J. C. Besseant of Winston-Salem. In the several towns where there are First Regiment companies, much interest is manifested in the election.—Charlotte Chronicle.

In Franklin county, 20 miles south of Roanoke Thursday evening, James Abshire and his son fought a revolver and shot gun duel with L. A. Pradd and a man named Holley, as a result of which the three first named are dead, and Holley, who escaped injury, is said to be in jail. One of the four men is alleged to have offered an insult to the wife of one of the other three men, and that the four men met at the home of Drury Hanes on the Roanoke and Calloway Pike. After the first round it is said the two Abshires and Pradd were on the ground wounded. One of the Abshires is said to have reloaded his shot gun and deliberately blown Pradd's head off.—Wilmington Star, Friday.

The presence of small pox at the A. and M. college has caused all the students to be quarantined, though only a few have been exposed to contagion, yet no chances are ever taken. Thursday night the police found one of the students up town and promptly locked him up. Friday morning another was found and he was locked up also. The type of the disease is so mild that a man having it feels no discomfort and the first man who developed a case had no idea he had small pox. Those rooming with him who had not been vaccinated took it, but not a man in the crowd is sick in the usual sense. Still, quarantine must be resorted to and the city will keep all of them out of the way.—Greensboro Record.

CARRYING THING TO EXTREME (Peoria Herald-Transcript.) There can be such a thing as carrying strenuousness too far. For instance, there is the ridiculous idea that a state legislative employe should do something to earn his salary.

It hurts a woman's pride to have another woman share with her a man's attention.

"SI PLUNKARD" WAS NEW

Clever People Produce Swell Show to Large and Satisfied Audience

"Si Plunkard" was the attraction at Meroney's Opera house last night, and the show was good. Good with the big G. This is one rummy comedy with a brand new theme to work on. Every character in the piece was well drawn, and the interpreters were clever people. But there were three who stood out from the rest.

They were Marion Lewis as Dora Simpkins, Frank R. Ginnivan as Robert Denny, the gentlemanly villain, and Joseph P. Ketter as Ezra Plunkard.

Mrs. Lewis was far and away too good for the company she is in. She greatly resembles the late Kate Hasset, and bids fair to be as good an actress. In the first act she sang "Violets," a rather old song, but that was forgotten in view of her rendition of it. This little lady was as sweet, fresh and pretty as the flowers she sang of. She is a finished artiste in every branch of her profession.

Frank R. Ginnivan took a difficult part and handled it in a very acceptable manner, without a trace of staginess.

Joseph P. Ketter as Ezra Plunkard, has Archie Boyd skinned a mile, and he put one in mind of Denman Thompson. As the unrelenting, but religious old foster father of Dora, he showed his ability in a marked fashion.

Alf. Bruce as Thad was above the ordinary.

The orchestra was much better than the average. Specialties were given by several of the company, but the one that seemed to please the most was a very difficult dancing and contortion act by Mistress S. Myers.

Several of the latest songs including "I'm My Own Boss," and "Back, Back, Back to Baltimore," were introduced.

Taken all in all "Si Plunkard" is a very pleasing entertainment.

Shows could be much better appreciated in Salisbury if some of the ladies in the audience would remove their hats while in the theater. The miliary makes a very pretty display, but it has a provoking way of obscuring a man's view of the stage.

SOCIETY'S VICIOUS MEMBERS

(Kansas City Journal.) A school of humanitarian philosophers contends that criminals are the result of conditions not of their own making, and that, therefore, government should be lenient in punishment and share in the responsibility of all wrongs that are done. This might possibly be a plausible theory if it were practicable. But the times are not yet ripe for such benevolent and altruistic practices. The first duty of society is to give itself present protection, and the best and quickest way to do this is by weeding out and getting rid of its objectionable and vicious members.

GUARANTEED BY THEO. F. KLUTTZ & CO.

Hyomei the Only Cure for Catarrh Which Returns Your Money if Not Satisfactory.

It is seldom that a druggist has enough faith in the medicine he sells even when prepared by himself to be willing to refund the money if it does not cure; but Hyomei has cured so many cases of catarrh among the customers of Theo. F. Kluttz & Co., that they offer to refund the money to all who use it and report that they are not satisfied.

Hyomei is the simplest and most convenient remedy for catarrh ever offered to the public. Breathed through an inhaler so small that it can be carried in the vest pocket, for a few minutes four times a day, it will absolutely kill all the germs of catarrh and cure the disease. Catarrh cannot exist where Hyomei is used. It has a two-fold action, killing all the germs in the air passages and lungs and soothing and healing the irritated mucous membrane.

Some of the most prominent men and women of the country have gladly given testimonials to Hyomei. After seeking relief in vain for years this wonderful remedy has cured them of catarrh, and it is no wonder that they want others to know of it.

D. O. Groff, Editor of the Nicholasville, Ky., News, writes: "Ever since I was a young man I have been troubled with catarrh, and in later years the disease became unbearable. Hyomei has helped me so much that I wish to publicly speak of its merits, so that others afflicted as I have been may be likewise benefited."

If you have catarrh, accept Theo. F. Kluttz & Co's., proposition and use Hyomei. The complete outfit of Hyomei costs but $1.00 and consists of an inhaler, a medicine dropper and a bottle of Hyomei.

That Arkansas woman who has lost track of her husband continues to offer a reward of $20 for his return, dead or alive. If the $20 cuss sees this, let him come in and get a freight receipt for himself and keep from getting killed for the reward.—Wilmington Star.
