PEACE TALK THIS TIME WON'T DOWN

England and France said to Have Memoranda the of Terms Acceptable to Russia

MAY LEASH WAR DOGS BEFORE END OF APRIL

Japanese Forces Pushing Rapidly to Cut Harbin off From Vladivostock, St. Petersburg is Alarmed

Shanghai, February 26.—(Special Correspondence.)—Shanghai is overrun with Russians. From Port Arthur 2,000 and over have flocked to the Chinese port via Nagasaki and Chefoo. Officers on parole with their sailors and soldier servants, civil officials, merchants, refugees of all sorts, Greek camp followers with their women, Burians, Circassians, Siberians, men from every province of the Russian emperor's wide realm. They throng the streets unkempt, uncared for. Long lines of Jirikshas roll up and down the bund dearing booted burdens.

Women, their heads kerchiefed, their dresses sagging through the roadways, slush and mud, drag shivering children here and there aimlessly. All day long the crowds are blocking the sidewalks in front of the Russo-Chinese bank and the Russian consulate. From early morning till long after sunset the strange procession shuffles to and fro without guidance, unheeded. No one seems to know or care what becomes of the waifs from the north. From Port Arthur some of them have gone to Chefoo by steamer; many of them have made the trip in junks, their one desire being to leave the stricken fortress. On the bund the Russians are everywhere in view. They stand watching the passing river craft, dressed in skin lined coats Astrakhan caps and rusty top boots. Now and then there is an officer, sunken cheeked, talking in a whisper, gasping almost a limping as he leans on his rough stick. More often they are healthy enough in smeared gray overcoats, the wealthier men in shining uniforms. They crush by four in a carriage smoking, talking, gesticulating. The better class of refugees have been distributed among the hotels; the poor folk sleep on park benches in the light horse riding school.

Birmingham, England, March 28.—The Post says it has excellent authority for the statement that a memorandum of the outside terms that would be accepted by Russia in the event of peace has been received from St. Petersburg at the foreign office in Downing street and that a similar note has been sent to Paris. Significance is also attached to the statement made by the ambassador of a great power Friday that he would bet five to one that peace would be declared before the first of April.

St. Petersburg, March 28.—Reports from the front coming through Chinese sources, states that the Japanese forces are being rapidly pushed toward both the northeast and north west. Tssalikar, about 200 miles northwest of Harbin, is reported to be the Japanese objective point in that direction and Ninguta, which is half way between Harbin and Vladivostock, the point toward the northeast. If these reports are true, this is wide flanking movement than has ever been considered possible by experts here and the reports are causing considerable uneasiness.

RALEIGH NEWS

Raleigh, March 28.—Judge Walter Neal announces his decision to allow the continuance of the case against Raymond D. Bynum, for the murder of J. H. Alford, his business partner, the continuance being on the ground that counsel for the defense have not had opportunity to confer with the prisoner for the preparation of the defense on account of the protracted quarantine of the jail for smallpox. Bynum is looking very well indeed, showing little if any wear from his long confinement.

Governor Glenn is very anxious to get up a party of twenty gentlemen to accompany him to the unrolling ceremonies at Appomattox April 10th. He wants the party so that they can take a special sleeper and, leaving here on the afternoon of April 9th go straight through to Appomattox by Lynchburg.

The Raleigh Chamber of commerce has issued a call for a special meeting to see if $2,000 can be raised for the A & M Summer school, the discontinuance of which has been announced on account of lack of money. The meeting will be held tonight.

The Confederate flags returned to North Carolina by the federal Government arrived yesterday and have been turned over by Governor Glenn to Col. F. A. Olds, in charge of the Hall of History of the state museum, who is having them placed in especially prepared glass cases. There are thirty two flags, eleven of them on staffs.

Judge Purnell, in the Federal court issues an order appointing A. F. McLean of Maxton a United States Commissioner.

An order has been placed for handsome new furnishings for the executive office of Gov. Glenn in the capitol. It includes a handsome specially designed desk and fireproof mahogany file cases.

PANIC IN NEW YORK FACTORY

Needless Cry of Fire Causes Mad Rush for Escape

New York, March 28.—Three hundred girls were thrown into a panic at the shirt waist factory of Max Roth at 48-50 Walker street this morning by one girl setting up a cry of fire. The girls who are mostly Jewish and Italians were standing on the stairs of the building on the arrival of the police and firemen, tearing one another's clothes and pulling hair in a mad scramble to get out. Men trampled on many girls and lost no time carrying for any one else except themselves. No fire was discovered and the reason for the alarm is not known. Many were taken to the hospital, suffering from bruises and fright.

TO MEET IN SALISBURY

Prof Eckles of Philadelphia to Be Present at Undertakers Meeting.

Prof Harry S. Eckles, of Philadelphia, one of the leading demonstrators of America on embalming will meet here on May 9, 10 and 11 with the undertakers of the state. Lecturers will be delivered by some of the most prominent undertakers and physicians of North Carolina and a pleasant as well as profitable meeting is anticipated.

The morgue of G. W. Wright will be used at this meeting for the demonstrations.

Mr Wright deserves a large share of the credit for getting this meeting in Salisbury, he being untiring in his efforts to bring them here.

It would be well to remark that Mr Wright has one of the finest undertaking establishments in the state and carries a very fine line of coffins and caskets ranging in price from a few dollars to $1,000.

His display of caskets and the manner in which they are displayed and the beauty and design of his room speaks well for the way which he keeps up-to-date with his business.

TRIAL APRIL 10 FOR NAN PATTERSON

New York, March 28.—On motion of counsel for Nan Patterson, Recorder Goff this morning directed that the third trial for the murder of Caesar Young begin on April 10.

THE SOLDIER OF THE CZAR

(New York Evening Post)
Hitherto his faith has been simple and childlike. A phrase, "God and the czar," has covered for him both religion and philosophy—and helped him to endure his frightful trials patiently and bravely until the end. The czar he has up to this time been willing to hold blameless. Will it continue, so much longer? If the Russian soldier's eyes are once opened, if his imagination is ever stimulated by a knowledge of a better and freer life outside of Russia, these very staying qualities which make him so wonderful a soldier in adversity may yet be equally worthy of admiration in a struggle against his oppressors.

Nell—He always seems so interested in what he is talking about.
Belle—Naturally. He is generally talking about himself.

MONEY TAKEN BEFORE FUSS WAS RAISED

Part of Rockefeller's $100,000 Gift is already in Treasury of Foreign Mission Board

Boston, March 28.—While a storm of indignant protests against the acceptance of $100,000 from John D. Rockefeller by the American Board of Foreign Missions, is at its height, nearly half the sum has already been accepted and is now in the treasury of the Mission Board. The fact that $41,500 of the sum has been in possession of the Board was made public today by Dr. James L. Barton, foreign secretary. The acceptance makes it exceedingly doubtful that the balance will be refused. Dr. Barton said that when the Board confirmed the gift it was accepted and an order for the amount now in the treasury at once was made. The prudential committee meets at two this afternoon and is expected to take final action on the matter.

WITH THE BUSINESS MEN

H. Z. White and Co., the new and enterprising grocery firm, will start tomorrow a three days' sale of groceries at reduced prices. Their ad on page 4 tells about it and people who look for money-saving opportunities should not miss reading it.

Oestreicher has a change of ad today on page 8.

The Globe Department Stores new ad should have appeared yesterday but had to be omitted for lack of space. The special prices offered for today hold good tomorrow, and they are eye openers. Don't fail to read about them on page 5, where they occupy the lower half of the page. Porch blinds and rockers at W. B. Summers'.

CONVICT MURDERS ANOTHER

Pittsburg, Pa., March 28.—Charles Turner, aged 23, a convict at the local penitentiary, was found murdered there today. Turner and another convict, Paul Kruger, had a quarrel while at work in the prison bakery and heated words followed. The keeper was absent and Kruger drew a knife, stabbing Turner in the stomach and back. How the knife came to be in Kruger's possession is unknown. Turner was serving a year for larceny and Kruger a five and a half years' sentence for entering a building and committing a felony.

PROMINENT DIVINE HERE

Rev Dr. R. J. Williamson in the City Last Night.

Rev Dr. R. J. Williamson, corresponding secretary of the state missionary board was in Salisbury last night.

Dr Williamson is one of the most prominent divines in the south. He was on his way home from Hickory where he raised $400 for the missionary board.

ON VISIT TO LEXINGTON

Charles M Cutting recently of The Sun, but who resigned several days ago leaves today for Lexington where he will spend a week or two.

Mr Cutting will return to Salisbury after his visit to Lexington and engage in the life insurance business here.

Even the matrimonial knot is apt to come untied.

CARD IN POCKET

Seems to Identify Negro Who Was Killed Yesterday.

From a pay slip found in the pocket of the negro who was killed by No. 7 yesterday afternoon at Spencer, would seem to identify him as Bert Morehead recently employed by contractor Propst of Charlotte.

The body still lies in the morgue at G. W. Wrights undertaking establishment and the head is so badly mangled as to make absolute identification almost impossible.

The wheels passed over the negroes head about his mouth completely severing the upper part of the head from the lower.

His right arm was cut off between the elbow and shoulder and part of the fingers on the left hand.

MT. ULLA HAPPENINGS

Mt. Ulla, March 28.—The people of this section are into spring life in earnest. The continued pretty weather is doing much to make amends for the severe weather endured, during the winter.

Our burg is rather quiet this week, but some people are on the move.

Mrs. Tom Hall from Mooresville was visiting Mrs. J. R. Goodman, who, we are glad to note, is improving, yesterday.

Mrs. W. S. Terrell of Canton, N. C., who has been visiting her son Mr. T. V. Terrell of Cooleemee and daughter in wakefield arrived at Mt. Ulla yesterday to spend several days with her daughter-in-law Mrs. J. M. Terrell in the family of Mr. C. W. Vanberges. Mr. Lemuel Henry left the burg the twenty-seventh on business.

VALUE OF GOOD HUMOR

(Sioux City Journal)
A thing always to be cultivated is good humor. No prop to trouble has yet been discovered the equal in strength of good nature. It is just as much an obligation of men to fight against depression as it is to fight against oppression, and yet men yield readily to depression and say they will die before they will submit to oppression. They begin at the wrong place with their heroics. Good humor is the safety valve. It provides a way for unnecessary and harmful steam, which if confined, may result in a ruinous explosion. Good humor dwells in the house of comfort; it waters the plants feeds the canary, draws the curtain to admit the sunlight and at evening time it lights the lamp.

BAND FOR COMMENCEMENT

Manning School People Plan for Big Time Friday.

Manning, March 28.—The Chestnut Hill band has been engaged to furnish music at the School Commencement here next Friday evening. This excellent band is noted for its good music and the rendition of their select and popular pieces will be a treat for the hundreds of people who will be here. In fact the addition of this band to the program is one of the great, if not the greatest, features of the entertainment. The Salem school is to be congratulated. The exercises according to the program which is divided into two parts, being 2 p. m. and 7 p. m. News has been received that the people are coming from a distance by the wagon loads. Every one is anticipating a great, grand and glorious time.

RIBS BROKEN

Cook Loftin, Has Three Ribs Broken by a Falling Smoke Stack

A young white man, Cook Loftin, sustained quite a painful injury a few days ago by a smoke stack falling on him.

He with some fellow workmen were raising the stack at the new water works plant of Spencer, near the river when it kicked and caught him on a pile of cross-ties breaking three of his ribs.

The young man is getting along nicely and expects to be out again in a few days.

"Night caps have quite gone out of date, have they not?" "Yes, used externally."—Houston Post.

Ostend — Pa, what's an infernal machine? Pa—Why, a phonograph running after midnight, my son.—Columbus Dispatch.
