BRIGHT'S DISEASE AND DIABETES!

Have their origin in an Inactive or Disordered Liver. The most stealthy and fatal diseases confronting medical science, claiming more victims, annually, than war and famine combined. A puffiness under the eyes, paleness and scanty or too copious urine mark the beginning of Bright's Disease. When the liver is diseased, the kidneys in their effort to perform double work become affected. A simple "liver regulator" will not cure Kidney disease, for although it corrects the first cause, the Kidneys are still affected. A Kidney remedy will not do it, because the source of the disease is not reached. A cure is a remedy combining both, and because it removes the cause and at the same time cures the Kidneys. It is the only preparation now on the market that actually cures. Weakness in the small of the back, pains in loins and groins, numbness of the thighs, high colored or scalding urine, milky or bloody urine, frequent desire to urinate, nausea, vomiting, colic, constipation, hot and cold flashes, furred or unnaturally red tongue. These are the symptoms of diseased Kidneys-don't neglect them. Only one remedy contains all the curative properties, scientifically combined, required in the treatment of Liver and Kidney diseases, and that is Dr. Thacher's Liver and Blood Syrup. A free sample and "Dr. Thacher's Health Book," with confidential advice, for the asking. Write today. All druggists, 50 cents and $1.00 per bottle.

Tribune. The Egyptian's Lesson. Some years ago an Englishman was coming down the river Nile, in Egypt, on a large boat loaded with grain, and the birds came off from every village and ate the grain piled on the deck. The Englishman asked the Egyptian captain of the boat, "Who owns this grain?" The Egyptian captain said, "I own it." Then the Englishman asked, "Why let the birds eat up the grain?" The Egyptian asked the Englishman, "Who made the birds?" The Englishman answered, "God." The Egyptian asked whether grain was a food which God intended birds to eat. again. Thank you, mon enfant, you The Englishman said it was. The Egyptian said, "Can the birds sow and raise the grain for themselves?" The Englishman said, "They cannot." From their "find" the two men contracted the disease, and it spread through the town and worked fearful havoc.

DANCING PILGRIMS.

The Annual Carnival of the "Saints" of Echternach.

On every succeeding Whitsun Tuesday from time immemorial 19,000 to 20,000 pilgrims of both sexes and of every age and condition of life dance for four or five hours at Echternach, in the grand duchy of Luxemburg, to an unmistakable polka tune and an apparently nonsensical refrain. The central figure of this great Echternach "springprozession" is St. Willibrord, who migrated from Northumberland to the frontiers of the Black forest twelve centuries ago. Emperors and kings have in vain forbidden the "saints" of Echternach to indulge in their annual carnival.

With the peasantry of East Luxemburg and Eiffel the "springprozession" is as popular today as it was in 1131, when King Lothaire came to pray at St. Willibrord's tomb. The simple minded dwellers on the banks of the Sure and the Moselle are firmly convinced that their best hope of freedom from nervous diseases in this world and eternal salvation in the next lies in this mystic dance of five steps forward and two backward, by which, after three hours' indescribable toil, they cover the two or three miles intervening between the starting point, at which the pilgrims receive the episcopal blessing and the goal at the steps of St. Willibrord's shrine.

The Two Do Not Necessarily Walk Hand In Hand.

High marks in examinations depend upon a trained memory and a power of acquiring irrelevant information. Culture, on the contrary, is a sympathetic assimilation of the best in the realm of thought and achievement. Culture is a slower process and a deeper, and its reward strikes further in. changed horrified glances and looked Assimilation of the best that has been on pityingly. The lesson finished, the thought and accomplished affects not merely the brain, but the characterthe whole spirit of a man. Culture implies a soil plowed and fertilized. where whatever seed falls has the better chance for growth. Information even in vast quantities, so long as it remains mere information, used for purposes of passing examinations, need not affect the manners nor the morals of a man; both may remain hopelessly lax in an encyclopedian mine of facts. But culture affects time he was in the town he suffered primarily the manners and the morals. A cultured gentleman has external methods of getting on with his kind; he has the true sense of relationship, the feeling that all he can learn to feel or to be is not for himself, but for service; he knows himself in a network of human inter-relations.
