

Local News.

K. OF L. 6066, Yankin Assembly, meets at Salisbury, N. C. every Friday night, at 8 o'clock at K. of L. Hall. 2-9-81 37.

March, begins to-day. Last Monday night was the coldest felt here this winter.

Mr. James Dunham offers Wynecotte hen eggs for sale. Special attention is called to the Sheriff's tax notice in another column.

Mr. Thomas Jones, son of Dr. I. W. Jones, of this county, has returned from Texas.

The Rev. J. C. Price (col.) declines the honor conferred upon him by the President.

Messrs. Roberts & Rice will manufacture tobacco at the building lately occupied by Ford & Rice.

Mr. T. W. Allison has about completed a handsome cottage on the west corner of Ellis and Council streets.

Col. L. L. Polk, Sec'y. of the Farmer's Alliance and editor of the Progressive Farmer, was in the city yesterday.

John F. Eagle, (shop on Inniss st.) claims to be the best boot and shoe maker in town. Give him a trial to prove it.

We acknowledge the receipt of tickets to the Fish, Oyster and Game Fair, to be held at New Bern, N. C. March 13, 14 and 15, 1888.

Messrs. D. A. Atwell, J. Allen Brown, and E. B. Neave were elected elders of the First Presbyterian Church of this place, last night.

Died in Franklin last Sunday, Mr. Jacob Kepty. Aged about 50 years.

Also Mrs. Lee Powlas, about the same age.

Mr. Richard Newson has taken charge of the taffy stand just opposite the opera house, he keeps a full line of the best home-made taffy to be found in Salisbury.

Many features of amusement are promised at the Craven county Fair, March 13th, 14th and 15th. A tournament, parade of the best fire department in the State, glass ball and clay pigeon shooting, and various other things.

As the witnesses in the Hargrave case from Lexington were returning home last Saturday night, a miscreant threw a stone into the car some little distance from here, knocking glass into the eyes of Sheriff Leonard and striking Mr. Painter on the cheek, making painful wounds.

Court Items. Our Superior Court at the present session has been quite lively throughout. Several important cases have been disposed of, besides many of less character. A gang of thieves who have been depreeding for a long time in Litake township, has been broken up and the ring leaders sent to the penitentiary. Those convicted, were Wm. Roseman, 10 years in the pen; Cornelius Newson, 5 yrs; Geo. Newson, 3 yrs; and James Roseman, 3 yrs. All mere boys, except Cornelius Newson.

W. H. Hargrave, charged with horse stealing, (case brought from Lexington) was convicted and sentenced to 6 years. He took an appeal.

The case of Willie Keen for the shooting of John Murphy, was taken up Monday evening and given to the jury Wednesday night; after being out 12 hours they rendered a verdict of man-slaughter.

Afternoon to day the prisoner was brought into court and sentenced to two years imprisonment. An appeal was taken and he was admitted to bail.

Judge Walter Q. Gresham gives this as his idea of the qualifications of a good Judge: "Modesty, knowledge, discernment, integrity, health and sound." By the way, there are a good many people who think these are among the capital qualities for a good president.—Chicago Advance.

It looks somewhat like the irony of fate when a man drops dead while paying his premium on his life insurance in an insurance office. Yet this happened to Mr. Charles Thickett in this city yesterday.—N. Y. World.

"Some stewards in the Northern Methodist Church substitute water for wine in the Lord's Supper, and persist in the substitution, not withstanding the protest of the preachers in charge."—Atlanta Index. Where are the police?

Jackson, Feb. 17.—The Senate to-day adopted the House bill to pay $30 yearly pensions to officers, soldiers and sailors, and their servants, who served in the Confederate army from Mississippi, and who are now unable to labor because of injuries received in the service.

A novel difficulty is exercising the Presbytery at Bloomington, Ill. A church has been erected, but is almost free from debt, but all the members are ladies, and the Presbytery does not know what to do about the elders.—Richmond Advocate.

THE SLEEP OF THE JUST.

THE LAWYER.

I slept in an editor's bed last night. When no other chance to be right; How I thought, as I tumbled the editor's bed, How easily editors lie?

THE EDITOR.

If the lawyer slept in the editor's bed When no lawyer chanced to be nigh, And though he has written and navelly said, How easily editors lie,

He must then admit, as he lay on that bed, And slept to his heart's desire, What'er he may say of the editor's bed, Then the lawyer himself was the liar.

—Martha's Vineyard Herald.

The Democratic papers are trying to alarm their own people by stating that North Carolina will be flooded with republican money this year. That is all moonshine. The less money the republicans have the better they will get along. All we need is money enough to see that our tickets are properly distributed. We do not need any array of speakers nor any big campaign fund. This State is 20,000 republican right now, and will elect a republican legislature. The people will manage this election, and they don't want any money, either. Give them plenty of republican tickets. That is all that is needed.—Greensboro North State.

The news from Washington is that up to date, the bills appropriating money for public buildings will aggregate quite $28,000,000. This is a bad showing for a new Congress, and just on the eve of a presidential election. In the House 123 members have asked for 149 buildings. In the House, bills have been introduced costing nearly $25,000,000, with $3,000,000 in the Senate to yet come to the House. Of these buildings, New England asks for 13 to cost $1,521,000; the Middle States for 23, costing $3,315,000; the West for 20, cost $7,795,000; Territories and District of Columbia 5 to cost $1,180,000. Who will say that a surplus in the treasury is desirable and proper? It acts now as it has always acted—it demoralizes. This is a nice start for retrenchment, economy and reform. North Carolina asks for 5 buildings to cost $625,000.—Wilmington Star.

TWO TOTAL ABSTAINERS—CALVIN GRAVES. John C. Odhoun, it is said, never drank one drop of whiskey or spirits in his life.—Ex.

The same is said about Hon. Calvin Graves, of Caswell county, the man who gave the casting vote, as Speaker of the Senate of North Carolina, in favor of building the North Carolina Railroad. Several years ago a gentleman told us that when Mr. Graves was dying, the doctors wanted him to take some stimulants, but he said no; that he had professed his faith when a young man, never to drink intoxicating liquors of any sort; that he had kept that as a gentleman would not break it at death's door. Calvin Graves was a noble man. He retired from public life, voluntarily after giving that casting vote, for it greatly displeased the people of his section of the State. He wanted no office—the vote was solely, a patriotic one.—Charlotte Democrat.

CALL FOR A REPUBLICAN CONGRESSIONAL CONVENTION. As Chairman of the Republican Executive Committee of the 7th congressional district in North Carolina, all Republicans and persons, without regard to past political affiliations, who are in sympathy with the principles of the Republican party, in this Congressional district, are hereby invited to meet in Convention as soon as practicable, in their respective counties, and appoint at least two delegates as their respective counties are entitled to members in the House of Representatives of the General Assembly, to meet in District CONVENTION IN SALISBURY at 12 o'clock, TUESDAY THE 22ND DAY OF MAY, NEXT, to select two delegates and two alternates to represent the district in the National Republican Convention, to meet in Chicago, Ill., on the 19th of next June, 1888, and to transact any other business of a political nature, that may come before them.

J. G. RAMSAY, Chairman.

OLNY "TEN MINUTES." A touching story is told of the late Prince Napoleon. He had joined the English army, and was one day at head of a squad riding horseback outside of the camp. It was a dangerous situation. One of the company said: "We had better return, if we don't hasten, we may fall into the hands of the enemy." "O," said the prince, "let us stay here ten minutes, and drink our coffee." Before ten minutes had passed, a company of Zulus came upon them, and in the skirmish the prince lost his life. His mother, when informed of the facts, in her anguish said: "That was his great mistake from his babyhood. He never wanted to go to bed at night in time, nor to arise in the morning. He was ever pleading for ten minutes more. When too sleepy to speak, he would lift up his little hands and spread out his ten fingers indicating that he wanted ten minutes more. On this account I sometimes call him 'Mr. Ten Minutes'."

How many have lost not only their lives, but their precious, immortal souls, by this sin of procrastination! When God calls we should promptly obey.—Selected.

The spectacle of the great Lord of All shrinking from no office however menial, whereby humanity might be cleansed and elevated, and enabled, has given a new ideal to the world. A new form of beauty rises on the vision of mankind. "He that would be the servant of all, let him be the servant of all." These are creative words. Out of them have come the philanthropy, the benevolent enterprises which the pious ingenuity of the church has devised for the relief of suffering humanity, the sweet charities which minister

LIST OF FARMING LANDS IN ROWAN COUNTY FOR SALE BY J. M. HADEN, SALISBURY, NORTH CAROLINA.

No. 1.—Farm 150 acres in a mile of Water station on West. N. C. R. R. good house and other improvements can be bought for $1,100 on easy terms. This is a chance for some one wanting a good home at a very low price. Possession given at once.

No. 2.—A farm of 62 acres, 6 miles from Salisbury, 20 acres in cultivation, 20 acres cleared, 22 acres in timber, oak and hickory; orchard of apples and peaches, a good farm house, 18 by 16, good barn 18 by 30. Price $650, 1/2 cash, balance in 12 months.

No. 3.—Farm of 346 acres, 10 miles from Salisbury; 130 to 150 acres in Cultivation, cleared 210 acres, 130 in timber, oak, hickory, pine and poplar; 1/2 acres of peach and apples, 120 acres of pasture fenced; improvements, house 40 x 20; 2 stables, 6 rooms, smoke house, large barn, grainery, well and well house, 44 miles from R. R. station at Third Creek. Price $320,000; 1/2 cash, balance in 12 months.

No. 4.—Farm of 62 acres, 40 acres in cultivation, 56 cleared, 6 acres in timber, oak and pine; orchard of apples; house with six rooms, barn, corn crib, etc. Distance from Salisbury 4 miles. Price $900, 1/2 cash, balance in 12 and 18 months.

No. 5.—Farm of 150 acres, 4 miles from Salisbury, 100 in cultivation, 50 in timber, fine residence and other improvements. Small amount in cash, balance easy.

No. 6.—Farm of 60 acres, 6 miles from Salisbury, 40 acres in cultivation, 50 cleared, 10 in timber, fine orchard, good farm house, and all necessary out buildings. Price $550, 1/2 cash, balance in 12 and 18 months.

No. 7.—Farm of 10 acres, 34 miles from Third Creek, R. R. Station, 11 miles from Salisbury, 57 acres in cultivation, 50 acres in Oak, Hickory, Pine, and Walnut, an Old Orchard, 2 tenement houses, stables and barns. Price $1500, 1/2 cash, balance 1, 2, and 3 years.

No. 8.—Plantation of 900 acres, 6 miles from Salisbury, 600 acres in cultivation, 600 cleared land, 300 in timber, 300 acres of this land, in cultivation, 50 acres in timber, 4 acres of Peaches Apples, &c.

Improvements: 7 room house, nearly new, a Brick building, 40 x 40, 2 stories, good barn, grainery, and all other necessary out buildings for a first class farm. Stock farming implements etc. Price $25,000, 1/2 cash balance 2, 3, 4 years.

No. 9.—A Farm of 50 acres, 54 miles from Catawba Station on W. N. C. R. R., 8 acres in cultivation, 42 acres in timber, Oak, Hickory, and Pine. Orchard of Apples, peaches, cherries, and grapes. A new building of 4 rooms, and all necessary out buildings. Price $600, 1/2 cash, balance on easy terms.

No. 10.—100 acres, 6 miles from Salisbury, 1/2 mile of water station on R. R., 50 acres cleared, 50 acres in heavy pine timber, 4 room house, good barn, etc. Price $550, cash. A bargain.

No. 11.—150 acres 8 miles from Salisbury 3 miles from water station on R. R. 75 acres in cultivation, 25 in woods, 30 bottom land. 2 story house 4 rooms barn, stable, corn crib, and tenement house. Price $1300, 1/2 cash balance in 12 months.

No. 12.—46 acres, 3 miles from Salisbury, all in cultivation, 4 room house, good barn, etc. Price 550, 1/2 cash, balance on easy terms.

No. 13.—A farm 117 acres, 6 miles from Salisbury, 85 in cultivation, woodland 32 acres; 7 room house, all necessary out buildings. Price $1,500, 1/2 cash, balance in 1 and 2 years.

No. 14.—A farm of 68 acres, 18 miles from Salisbury, 29 acres in cultivation, 34 cleared, 34 in woods, good orchard; smoke house, etc. Price $550, 1/2 cash, balance on easy terms.

No. 15.—A farm of 112 acres, 3 miles from Salisbury, 56 acres in cultivation and 56 in woods; 4 room orchard, 4 room house, and all necessary out buildings. Price $1,100, 1/2 cash, balance in 6 to 12 months.

No. 16.—A farm of 100 acres, 9 miles from Salisbury, 60 acres in woods, 40 acres in cultivation, ordinary improvements. Price $1,000, 1/2 cash, balance in 2 or 3 years.

No. 17.—A farm of 135 acres, 8 miles from Salisbury, 40 acres in cultivation, balance in woods; 4 room house, stable and outhouses, well of good water, mill house, good corn and flour mill complete. Price $2,000. Easy terms.

No. 18.—A farm of 93 acres, 17 miles from Salisbury, 43 acres cleared 30 acres in cultivation, 50 in woods. 3 room house double b a r n, 4 room house, and a tenement house. Price $1,000, 1/2 cash, balance in 1, 2, and 3 years.

No. 19.—About one hundred acres lying in the New Concord road, one mile from Salisbury. This land is heavily wooded and has on it vein of free gold, and within 1/2 mile of Brooklyn and Dixonville. This property belongs to Brunwell & McCaden, of Charlotte. Price $20 per acre.

No. 20.—Situated on the West. N. C. R. R. and adjoining the property of J. B. Lanier, are Johnson and others, being one of the very best neighborhoods in town, a few nice lots remaining unsold on this plat.

No. 21.—Situated between Council and Liberty streets, adjoining the graded school, on the West side of the W. N. C. R. R. This property is only 4 squares from court house. About 20 lots remaining unsold on the plat. A desirable neighborhood. Lots sold on instalments.

No. 22.—Situated on the Mocksville road, containing about 4 squares. Lots can be bought on this plat for $30 to $100 each, 50 x 200 feet. Good opportunity to invest money. It will pay 20 per cent.

No. 23.—Lots situated on east side old Mocksville road, containing 2 acres each. This is a splendid location for small tract farms, and will increase in value every year. Can be bought on easy terms.

No. 24.—Four lots containing 5 acres each fronting on the West side of the Old Mocksville road. Can be bought on easy terms.

No. 25.—2 large building lots on Main st., 100 x 223. Price $200 each, or both for $350.

WANTED.

A LARGE lot of ONION sets AT J. H. ENNIS'S Drug Store. Jan. 11/87.

TO ALL NEW SUBSCRIBERS AND TO ALL OLD SUBSCRIBERS Who renew their Subscription to the SALISBURY TRUTH

52 STANDARD POPULAR WORKS IN ONE YEAR

By the best authors—No. 1. Poets, Historians, and General Writers. The books will all be printed from the best type and bound in the most durable manner. Each work will be published in 12 weekly installments. It is only necessary to send your name and address to each week as published, and you will receive the book free of charge. You will also obtain a large increase of new subscribers that we EXTRAORDINARY OFFER.

Old subscribers should renew at once to secure the full amount of the books. Our paper will be sent for the full time from the date your present subscription expires. The books described below are among the number to be issued, and show the high class of popular and standard literature published. Our liberal offer assures you a LARGE SAVING IN THE PRICE OF THE TRUTH.

Home and Juliet; by WILLIAM BRAY. This author's stories are simple and full of telling points. His "Home and Juliet" is an exquisite sketch of two foolish lovers who mingle tender sentiment with the ludicrous in a way to make everybody smile.

Enoch Arden; and other gems; by Alfred Tennyson. For purity of style, genuine emotion, and touching pathos, the great poet has never surpassed his "Enoch Arden." In this poem a husband's affection, love, and courage, and how he overcame the post-lavate without knowing it.

Miss Toosey's Mission; and Lottie. Two of those rarely conceived and charmingly told stories of home and duty which refresh and inspire. They can be read by every young person who has the world to face.

William Shakespeare's How, When, Why, and What he Wrote; by H. A. TAPP. There never has been composed into such brief space so much of the immortal genius of Shakespeare as in this work by the brilliant French author. It is a gem of the drama, and a thousand things never before dreamed of.

Doorn; An Atlantic Episode; by Justin McCarthy. A powerful and thrilling story of life on an American liner. The situation is natural, the plot intense, the incidents gripping. The hand of a master is visible from the beginning at Liverpool to the landing at New York.

The Lady of Lyons; by Sir E. BURTON LYNN. This is the Lady as seen in the celebrated play of the same name. It ranks as the greatest piece of devotion and sincerity, and of the "tender passion" ever placed on the stage. The genius of the drama is in the scene of the meeting to admiring audiences.

David Christie Murray. A specially told story of human character, yet not a bit overdone. Buildings and battles are all around us. The author clothes his realism in garbs of pleasantry and humor, and his stories sail.

The Trial of Pickwick; by Charles Dickens. This is the first time the story of the famous Pickwick's adventures, with the immortal Mr. Bazzell has appeared in condensed form. It is a masterpiece of wit and mirth-provoking incidents, which interest in the reader to the end of the immortal Sam Weller.

Clouds and Sunshine; by Charles Reade. A happily told story of farm life, of progress, rural pictures and grandeur, and incidents. An ingenious plot, a stirring narrative, and all in all, one of the most interesting and readable stories of the present time.

Sweet is True Love; by "The Duchess." A touching story of a disappointed lover, and a beautiful girl, who, in the end, are united in a happy marriage. A very pretty sketch of situation and character. A warm and pleasing narrative. One of the author's best.

The Haunted House; by Sir E. BURTON LYNN. This is a story of a haunted house, a quality of a ghostly and happily told story. Weir and his readers to the end of the story.

On Her Wedding Morn; by Bertha M. Clay. A very strong and charming story of a young girl, who, in the end, is united in a happy marriage. A very pretty sketch of situation and character. A warm and pleasing narrative. One of the author's best.

Jack of All Trades; by CHARLES READE. A wonderful trial of an artisan who claims to be a master in every trade. Full of incidents and a thrilling narrative. Everybody reads it with feelings of delight.

Dr. Marigold; by CHARLES DICKENS. One of Dickens' most interesting and moving sketches of a quaint and curious character. He is a master in every trade. Full of incidents and a thrilling narrative. Everybody reads it with feelings of delight.

On Her Wedding Morn; by Bertha M. Clay. A very strong and charming story of a young girl, who, in the end, is united in a happy marriage. A very pretty sketch of situation and character. A warm and pleasing narrative. One of the author's best.

Jack of All Trades; by CHARLES READE. A wonderful trial of an artisan who claims to be a master in every trade. Full of incidents and a thrilling narrative. Everybody reads it with feelings of delight.

Dr. Marigold; by CHARLES DICKENS. One of Dickens' most interesting and moving sketches of a quaint and curious character. He is a master in every trade. Full of incidents and a thrilling narrative. Everybody reads it with feelings of delight.

On Her Wedding Morn; by Bertha M. Clay. A very strong and charming story of a young girl, who, in the end, is united in a happy marriage. A very pretty sketch of situation and character. A warm and pleasing narrative. One of the author's best.

Jack of All Trades; by CHARLES READE. A wonderful trial of an artisan who claims to be a master in every trade. Full of incidents and a thrilling narrative. Everybody reads it with feelings of delight.

Dr. Marigold; by CHARLES DICKENS. One of Dickens' most interesting and moving sketches of a quaint and curious character. He is a master in every trade. Full of incidents and a thrilling narrative. Everybody reads it with feelings of delight.

On Her Wedding Morn; by Bertha M. Clay. A very strong and charming story of a young girl, who, in the end, is united in a happy marriage. A very pretty sketch of situation and character. A warm and pleasing narrative. One of the author's best.

Jack of All Trades; by CHARLES READE. A wonderful trial of an artisan who claims to be a master in every trade. Full of incidents and a thrilling narrative. Everybody reads it with feelings of delight.

Dr. Marigold; by CHARLES DICKENS. One of Dickens' most interesting and moving sketches of a quaint and curious character. He is a master in every trade. Full of incidents and a thrilling narrative. Everybody reads it with feelings of delight.

On Her Wedding Morn; by Bertha M. Clay. A very strong and charming story of a young girl, who, in the end, is united in a happy marriage. A very pretty sketch of situation and character. A warm and pleasing narrative. One of the author's best.

Jack of All Trades; by CHARLES READE. A wonderful trial of an artisan who claims to be a master in every trade. Full of incidents and a thrilling narrative. Everybody reads it with feelings of delight.

Dr. Marigold; by CHARLES DICKENS. One of Dickens' most interesting and moving sketches of a quaint and curious character. He is a master in every trade. Full of incidents and a thrilling narrative. Everybody reads it with feelings of delight.

On Her Wedding Morn; by Bertha M. Clay. A very strong and charming story of a young girl, who, in the end, is united in a happy marriage. A very pretty sketch of situation and character. A warm and pleasing narrative. One of the author's best.

Jack of All Trades; by CHARLES READE. A wonderful trial of an artisan who claims to be a master in every trade. Full of incidents and a thrilling narrative. Everybody reads it with feelings of delight.

Dr. Marigold; by CHARLES DICKENS. One of Dickens' most interesting and moving sketches of a quaint and curious character. He is a master in every trade. Full of incidents and a thrilling narrative. Everybody reads it with feelings of delight.

On Her Wedding Morn; by Bertha M. Clay. A very strong and charming story of a young girl, who, in the end, is united in a happy marriage. A very pretty sketch of situation and character. A warm and pleasing narrative. One of the author's best.

Jack of All Trades; by CHARLES READE. A wonderful trial of an artisan who claims to be a master in every trade. Full of incidents and a thrilling narrative. Everybody reads it with feelings of delight.

WANTED.

A LARGE lot of ONION sets AT J. H. ENNIS'S Drug Store. Jan. 11/87.

TO ALL NEW SUBSCRIBERS AND TO ALL OLD SUBSCRIBERS Who renew their Subscription to the SALISBURY TRUTH

52 STANDARD POPULAR WORKS IN ONE YEAR

By the best authors—No. 1. Poets, Historians, and General Writers. The books will all be printed from the best type and bound in the most durable manner. Each work will be published in 12 weekly installments. It is only necessary to send your name and address to each week as published, and you will receive the book free of charge. You will also obtain a large increase of new subscribers that we EXTRAORDINARY OFFER.

Old subscribers should renew at once to secure the full amount of the books. Our paper will be sent for the full time from the date your present subscription expires. The books described below are among the number to be issued, and show the high class of popular and standard literature published. Our liberal offer assures you a LARGE SAVING IN THE PRICE OF THE TRUTH.

Home and Juliet; by WILLIAM BRAY. This author's stories are simple and full of telling points. His "Home and Juliet" is an exquisite sketch of two foolish lovers who mingle tender sentiment with the ludicrous in a way to make everybody smile.

Enoch Arden; and other gems; by Alfred Tennyson. For purity of style, genuine emotion, and touching pathos, the great poet has never surpassed his "Enoch Arden." In this poem a husband's affection, love, and courage, and how he overcame the post-lavate without knowing it.

Miss Toosey's Mission; and Lottie. Two of those rarely conceived and charmingly told stories of home and duty which refresh and inspire. They can be read by every young person who has the world to face.

William Shakespeare's How, When, Why, and What he Wrote; by H. A. TAPP. There never has been composed into such brief space so much of the immortal genius of Shakespeare as in this work by the brilliant French author. It is a gem of the drama, and a thousand things never before dreamed of.

Doorn; An Atlantic Episode; by Justin McCarthy. A powerful and thrilling story of life on an American liner. The situation is natural, the plot intense, the incidents gripping. The hand of a master is visible from the beginning at Liverpool to the landing at New York.

The Lady of Lyons; by Sir E. BURTON LYNN. This is the Lady as seen in the celebrated play of the same name. It ranks as the greatest piece of devotion and sincerity, and of the "tender passion" ever placed on the stage. The genius of the drama is in the scene of the meeting to admiring audiences.

David Christie Murray. A specially told story of human character, yet not a bit overdone. Buildings and battles are all around us. The author clothes his realism in garbs of pleasantry and humor, and his stories sail.

The Trial of Pickwick; by Charles Dickens. This is the first time the story of the famous Pickwick's adventures, with the immortal Mr. Bazzell has appeared in condensed form. It is a masterpiece of wit and mirth-provoking incidents, which interest in the reader to the end of the immortal Sam Weller.

Clouds and Sunshine; by Charles Reade. A happily told story of farm life, of progress, rural pictures and grandeur, and incidents. An ingenious plot, a stirring narrative, and all in all, one of the most interesting and readable stories of the present time.

Sweet is True Love; by "The Duchess." A touching story of a disappointed lover, and a beautiful girl, who, in the end, are united in a happy marriage. A very pretty sketch of situation and character. A warm and pleasing narrative. One of the author's best.

The Haunted House; by Sir E. BURTON LYNN. This is a story of a haunted house, a quality of a ghostly and happily told story. Weir and his readers to the end of the story.

On Her Wedding Morn; by Bertha M. Clay. A very strong and charming story of a young girl, who, in the end, is united in a happy marriage. A very pretty sketch of situation and character. A warm and pleasing narrative. One of the author's best.

Jack of All Trades; by CHARLES READE. A wonderful trial of an artisan who claims to be a master in every trade. Full of incidents and a thrilling narrative. Everybody reads it with feelings of delight.

Dr. Marigold; by CHARLES DICKENS. One of Dickens' most interesting and moving sketches of a quaint and curious character. He is a master in every trade. Full of incidents and a thrilling narrative. Everybody reads it with feelings of delight.

On Her Wedding Morn; by Bertha M. Clay. A very strong and charming story of a young girl, who, in the end, is united in a happy marriage. A very pretty sketch of situation and character. A warm and pleasing narrative. One of the author's best.

Jack of All Trades; by CHARLES READE. A wonderful trial of an artisan who claims to be a master in every trade. Full of incidents and a thrilling narrative. Everybody reads it with feelings of delight.

Dr. Marigold; by CHARLES DICKENS. One of Dickens' most interesting and moving sketches of a quaint and curious character. He is a master in every trade. Full of incidents and a thrilling narrative. Everybody reads it with feelings of delight.

On Her Wedding Morn; by Bertha M. Clay. A very strong and charming story of a young girl, who, in the end, is united in a happy marriage. A very pretty sketch of situation and character. A warm and pleasing narrative. One of the author's best.

Jack of All Trades; by CHARLES READE. A wonderful trial of an artisan who claims to be a master in every trade. Full of incidents and a thrilling narrative. Everybody reads it with feelings of delight.

Dr. Marigold; by CHARLES DICKENS. One of Dickens' most interesting and moving sketches of a quaint and curious character. He is a master in every trade. Full of incidents and a thrilling narrative. Everybody reads it with feelings of delight.

On Her Wedding Morn; by Bertha M. Clay. A very strong and charming story of a young girl, who, in the end, is united in a happy marriage. A very pretty sketch of situation and character. A warm and pleasing narrative. One of the author's best.

Jack of All Trades; by CHARLES READE. A wonderful trial of an artisan who claims to be a master in every trade. Full of incidents and a thrilling narrative. Everybody reads it with feelings of delight.

Dr. Marigold; by CHARLES DICKENS. One of Dickens' most interesting and moving sketches of a quaint and curious character. He is a master in every trade. Full of incidents and a thrilling narrative. Everybody reads it with feelings of delight.

On Her Wedding Morn; by Bertha M. Clay. A very strong and charming story of a young girl, who, in the end, is united in a happy marriage. A very pretty sketch of situation and character. A warm and pleasing narrative. One of the author's best.

Jack of All Trades; by CHARLES READE. A wonderful trial of an artisan who claims to be a master in every trade. Full of incidents and a thrilling narrative. Everybody reads it with feelings of delight.

Dr. Marigold; by CHARLES DICKENS. One of Dickens' most interesting and moving sketches of a quaint and curious character. He is a master in every trade. Full of incidents and a thrilling narrative. Everybody reads it with feelings of delight.

On Her Wedding Morn; by Bertha M. Clay. A very strong and charming story of a young girl, who, in the end, is united in a happy marriage. A very pretty sketch of situation and character. A warm and pleasing narrative. One of the author's best.