After some time spent in filibustering, the bill was sent back to conference. Mr. Holman presented the disagreeing report on the sundry civil appropriation bill and immediately demanded the previous question on the report. It was ordered and then there was half an hour's debate rum. upon the conference report as far as it recommended an agreement. Then came up the world's fair amendments, and Mr. Holman gave notice that on Wednesday he would demand the previous question upon the main proposition and amendments thereto. Mr Bankhead was the first member to offer an amendment, and this amendment was to reduce from $5,-000,000 to $5 the appropriation for the world's fair. Mr. Outhwaite opposed the appropriation made by the bill. He denounced the appropriation of $5,000,000 for the fair as the most outrageous piece of legislation ever attempted in the house. Then came as an interruption another conference report on the general deficiency appropriation bill. The report was agreed to and the dry civil bill. Mr. Wheeler, of Alabama, was recognized and continued his remarks in a discussion of the force bill. Mr. Otis, of Kansas, made a free silver and Farmers' Alliance speech. Messrs. Taylor and Wike, of Illinois, and Boatner, of Louisiana, in brief remarks fawored the appropriation. Mr. O'Neill, of Pennsylvania, thought the appropriation should not be a gift, but a loan. The house then adjourned.

WEDNESDAY-In the house, Wednesday, it was expected that a vote would be taken on the world's fair amendment to the sundry civil bill without debate, but the friends of the fair at the last moment concluded that it would be better to have more talk and, when at 12:30 o'clock the sundry civil report again obtained the floor, Mr. Caruth, of Kentucky, was given an opportunity to explain why he had decided to change front at this time for the appropriation. His reason was that the fair had become a national matter. Mr. Hopkins, of Illinois, closed for the appropriation, his strong point being that by ordering Sunday closing the house had diminished the fair receipts. Mr. McMillin closed for the opposition, urging the necessity for economy. The debate being concluded Speaker Crist announced that he was satisfied that his ruling Tuesday should be changed. The effect of the ruling was to give Mr. Holman entire control of the situation unless the house should take it away from him by voting down some proposition he makes. The first senate amendment proposed to increase the appropriation for the government exhibit, and, on Mr. Holman's motion, the house, without division, insisted on its non concurrence in this amendment. The same course was followed as to other amendments of minor importance to the five-million-dollar appropriation, the world's fair managers not caring to force the fighting until the big appropriation was reached. In this way, without division, all the senate word's fair smendments were sent back to conference until the five-million-dollar appropriation was reached. Mr. Holman, in accordance with the opposition programme, yielded to Mr. Bankhead to offer the five milliondollar amendment and the previous quesion being ordered, the clerk began to call the roll on Mr. Bankhead's amendment. On the first roll call the amendment was defeated by a vote of 77 to 141. Mr. Holman demanded the yeas and navs and a second roll call was ordered. When the clerk finished the calling of the roll it was noised around that the motion had secured a majority of nearly twenty. Mr. Holman immedistely changed his vote from the the affirmative negative ~ to in order that he might be entitled to move a reconsideration. Several votes were withdrawn, and the speaker finally declared the motion carried by a vote of, yeas 117, navs 105. All of the republi cans voted to concur in the senate amendment. Mr. Outhwaite, of Ohio, moved an adjournment and pending that moved that when the house adjourn it be to meet Friday next. This was supplemented by Mr. Bailey, of Texas, with a motion for an adjournment until Saturday. Seventyseven of the opponents of the world's fair proposition refrained from voting and Mr. Bailey's motian was lost-yeas, 2; nays, 143. The point of no quorum was raised and Mr. Bingham moved a call of the house, which was ordered, but only after the filibusterers had wasted some time by demanding tellers. Two hundred and eight members responded to their names. Mr. Bingham offered a resolution revokling all leaves of absence except those granted on account of sickness and directing the sergeant-at-arms to notify absent members to attend to the sessions of the house immediately. The resolution was subsequently withdrawn and the house adjourned. When the matter again comes up the pending vote will be on Mr. Bingham's motion to table the motion made by Mr. Holman to reconsider the vote by which the house receded from its disagreement to the world's fair amendment. THURSDAY.-McMillin, of Tennessee, called up in the house a joint resolution that congress adjourn Saturday, at 2 o'clock.
