THURSDAY JANUARY 19.

Ex-President Hayes is dead.

Gov. Clet Carr was inaugurated yesterday at Raleigh.

Now is the time to subscribe the Truth and the Weekly World or any edition of the World. You will save expense and trouble by getting them

The Watuga Democrat's authority for the statement, that R. A.
Thomas, who was shot by Warren, lived nine days after ball had passed entirely through his brain.

In the West and North the cold has been fearful. In this State the thermometer at different points has ranged from zero to ten and fifteen degrees below. The temperature of this year so far is by many degrees the coldest since 1884, if not since the early part of 1857.

While other towns and counties are hustling around to secure good men to fill their postoffices and other positions under the incoming administration, it would seem that no effort is making here to secure proper men to fill the offices to which we are entitled. The Internal Revenue office should be located here, as it is the most accessible and eligible point for those most interested, being the centre of the major part of the business. It might also with great propriety be run by a Rowan man if the proper steps were taken to secure his appointment. We do not know a more suitable or proper man for the place than Kerr, Esq. He would give general satisfaction.

The New York World Almanac for 1893, the most complete compendium of statistics, matters of general interest, is now ready and may be had through us by direct order to the world office for 25 cents. It is a work of about 340 pages and contains every thing you want to know.

The South Carolina liquor bill is a mixture of law and religion, and it is a travesty on both. But nothing else could be expected from Pharisees and pettifoggers. There are hypocritical pietists and there are shyster lawyers. Every profession has its barbares—every age its Pharisees, its hypocrites, its traitors and professional thieves. In this case it is the Scribblers and Pharisees hobnobbing with the shyster, and the petti-fogger mixing theology with his drinks. Matthew tells us what the Saviour thought of these two pests of society. What they were then they are today, only having evolved from the hateful Pharisee into the equally loathsome and bigotted temperance howler. The men who denounced Christ as a glutton, winebibber and friend of publicans and sinners, and who finally crucified him, are still with us in the flesh and spirit, and are meaner, because less excusable, than their precursors, prototypes, of Palestine, in the days of Augustus Caesar. They've learned nothing by age or experience. They live but to crucify the Lord afresh daily under some new reform movement the essence of which is bigotry leavened with hypocrisy.

That able, progressive and interesting daily, the Wilmington Messenger, is now printed on new type. This denotes prosperity, and no paper in the State deserves it more.

The Lenois Topis says that not a democrat attended the recent meeting of the Caldwell count Alliance.

And why should they? Butler, the Gideonite and high priest of ag-rarianism, is at the head of the order in this State now. How can a democrat have anything to do with an organization lead by one so dishonored and patriotic as is the and trickster Marion Butler?
I would not have heard of it, or part of it called the Rowan Alliance, but the delegates of the third parties for the

THE LEGISLATURE.
It is impossible for us to give even a list of the bills that are introduced in the legislature. The majority of them is not worth naming, while there are one of the best an hundred fold too many.

The bill to punish lynchers should become a law, unless the most cowardly and brutal murderers are to be condoned and excused. And there ought to be a provision in it imposing heavy penalties on public officers who fail in the least to discharge their duty on such occasions.

Here is a specimen of the work in the House last Saturday when the bills on the calendar were taken up: A bill to amend the law of 1889, regarding the sale of seed cotton, pass-third reading; to amend section 1077 of and suppress the sale of liquors to minors, laid on the table; to a mend chapter 1478 of the code, pass-third reading; to amend chapter 54 of code respecting usury, laid on the table; to restore the tax list of all lands which have not been thereon for three years and to compel them to pay taxes, laid on the table; to prevent trading to spirituous liquors, laid on the table; to repeal chapter 92 and 956, laws of 1891, relative to executors and administrators pleading the statute of limitation, passed second reading; to amend section 470 of code, passed 3rd reading; to amend the constitution in regard to homesteads and personal property, laid on the table; for the promotion of temperance, laid on the table; to amend section 1799 of code for the benefit of laborers, passed third reading; to extend the charter of the Cape Fear and Yadkin Valley Railroad, passed third reading; a bill authorizing the State Treasurer to pay $6,694.07, balance due for the purchase of patrol steamer Lily, passed.

On Monday the following bills passed final reading in the House.
To incorporate Ashlock, Bertie co., to repeal the act of 1887, authorizing certain certain detectives to carry concealed weapons; to amend the act of 1891 so that deeds may be acknowledged and privy examination of married women may be taken before any justice of the peace, and that the genuineness of the married woman's signature may then be certified by the clerk of the Superior Ct. or the Superior Court judge.

THE POPULIST GOVERNOR OF KANSAS in his inaugural address says "the people are greater than the law or the statutes." That's the old Republican idea which was expressed in the "higher law" declaration of Mr.
Seward as far back as 1854. But the trouble is that the men who talk that way have about as little regard for the people as they have for "the law and the statutes."—Wilmington Star.

VANCE AT THE JACKSON BANQUET.
Senator Vance, of North Carolina, in answering the toast, "Andrew Jackson, citizen and an American," made one of the witty speeches for which he is famous. He said that Andrew Jackson was either born in Union county, N. C., or so close to it that he derived from it all the virtues for which the section is famous.
After being born there, he removed to Tennessee, "the daughter of North Carolina," for the three Presidents Tennessee has given to the country, Andrew Jackson, James K. Polk and Andrew Johnson, were born in North Carolina.

"Whether the art of creating Presidents is denied to North Carolina or not," said Mr. Vance, "there is no doubt it is a happy breeding place for persons who move away and aspire to greatness, and I may be excused from saying that had I gone to some other State like Tennessee I would have so overshadowed the other citizens that there is no telling what I might have become."

Continuing, he said there were two kinds of greatness—the greatness that is written in books and sung in history and the greatness that is kept alive by traditions in the hearts of the people. Measured by the latter, Andrew Jackson will be found to be one of the greatest, if not the greatest, Americans who has ever lived. There was greatness of intellect and greatness of moral qualities. Will and will power went far to make up moral greatness, and in the possession of these characteristics no one could be mentioned in the same breath with Jackson.

While he did not have the keen intellectual eyesight of Calhoun or Webster, when he did see he acted and he leaped like a thunderbolt, and did what was needed while they were considering ways and means.
Senator Vance modestly claimed resemblance with Jackson, and spoke of the coming administration in growing terms. Regarding the office to be distributed, he exclaimed: "If the horse has faithfully pulled the plow, for God's sake let him have some hay."

stantly.

It is useless to ask if the Legislature will not do something much needed in behalf of sheep-raising and wool producing. A Legislature as now constituted is not equal to such a demand. It lacks "sand in its craw." It has not got enough to withstand the howlings, not of the dogs that kill, but of the foolish owners who keep them. In Tennessee, in spite of excellent pastures, climate, etc., the sheep business fails, and all because of the destroying dogs. It is a disgrace to any civilization and is on a par with bad roads and poor schools.

Just after the election "these reform concerns," printed about over the state, masked their faces with a sickly smile and tried to swindle and cajole Democrats back into ranks and to get their names on the payroll. They failed ignominiously and are falling back on their "reserve force," and will tug at the tails of what third party cattle they have left as long as they have any left.

SECRET SOCIETIES, MILITARY MATTERS.
Your short paragraph on "a military organization by the Farmer's Alliance" and on "secret political societies," induces me to send you a few reflections on the same lines.

I was in the convention of 1875 and was active in securing the ordinance forbidding "secret political societies." It passed without a vote against it. My personal feeling and business interests all favor the Farmer's Alliance and, but for the "secret" feature, I would possibly have joined. I think, too, it was the secret one-sided influence that led the organization into such extreme and even dangerous measures, never fully exposed.

But, to speak the whole truth, I think all strictly (so-called) "secret societies" more or less objectionable.
I never belonged to but one, and even that one, though purely social and benevolent, had a constant tendency to political feeling and action. I soon withdrew. This was before the war in the days to have known so called "clubs." I often move on party lines. All this, in my opinion, alike destructive of free thought, free speech, and freedom of action, and tends both directly and indirectly to weaken the proper influence of the church, the State and the family—the only three divine powers.

In this direction the great Chicago University, with its high scholarship and broad culture, has lately declared against even the "fraternities."

THE TIME TO EAT.
There has been a good deal of discussion as to the best time for eating certain articles of food. For instance we advised not to eat meat late in the day not to take fruit just before retiring, and to avoid tea and coffee in the evening if a wakeful night is not desired. Men of mature years

THE MOORE COUNTY ROBBER-MURDER
Riddled by a Posse.
Raleigh, N. C., Jan. 6.—Randall McDonald and two sisters, all old and unmarried, lived together in Puckett township, Moore county. On the night of December 18, an unknown colored man demanded of McDonald that he give up his money. The two sisters, Mary and C.
Christine, raised an alarm. The negro opened fire on the women, killing the other, and mortally wounding the other. McDonald was outright and mortally wounded by the other, and all his money.
There was no clue to the murder for a long time but recently it was suspected that Bob Itay, colored, was the murderer, and a posse was formed to capture him. They learned that Ray was in a negro hut, about a mile from Reysers, Moore county, waiting to get out of the State. About 7 o'clock last evening he came out of the hut to start for
