Be an honest man, the pride of the world, and pay your just debts, if you have to eat acorns and wear fig leaves. We publish to-day an interview by the Charlotte Observer's Raleigh correspondent, with the Democratic state chairman Jas. H. Pou. It is timely, it is the statement of an honest and worthy public servant. He has opened the campaign in the right way and at the right time. He has struck the popular Democratic chord to which all true Dem ocrats should tune. We do not endorse his free silver views or any thing leading to or from them, but we do endorse Jeffersonian Demogracy and all that leads to and from it, and party harmony.

If the Democratic party declares for silver at 16 to 1, or anything less than its intrinsic value, an invitation to defeat will be issned.
