

to the mountains. Dr. R. L. Ramsay and family returned this morning from a trip represented at the Congressional

Mr. and Mrs. Harris will receive Rowan county will' be largely a warm welcome from their friends on their return to Salisbury. OVERCOME BY HEAT.

bruised by fall, not considered se- her husband to the grave in a few, rious; Fireman Frank Owens, leg short months after his death. broken; Fireman I N Chandler, of At the time of his death Col Salisbury, slight bruises; Charles Brown's remains were brought to Barnhardt, colored brakeman, bad- | Salisbury, his old home, and inly bruised; Frank Madison, colorterred here. The same disposied brakeman, injured on leg and tion is to be made of Mrs. Brown's hip ; Hayes Brown, of Burke counremains and immediately after her ty, face lacerated, left arm broken death preparations were made to in the shoulder joint. send the body to Salisbury. The other members of the crew Mrs. Brown was quite an aged and the passengers on the local lady, being about 76 years old, and freight escaped without injury. had been sick for some time. Her death was due to a general giving Neither engine left the track, but ten cars and both engines were deaway of the human mechanism. molished. She had only two living children,

Synod meets in Salem church Thursday and Friday. The conference will open Thursday mornin Washington. They have Pushed Washington, Aug. 14 .- It is believed that the forces are advancing to Pekin. They have reached Ching Chiawan, twelve miles from Whereas, our Heavenly Father, in His all-wise providenc, has removed by death one of our devoted honorary members, Mrs. Ala Carmilla Ketchie, whose long and faithful helpfulness brought its meed of success to our missionary Resolved 1. That in the departure of our beloved member, Mrs. Ketchie, we sincerely feel our loss; and we pray God to sanctify this

2 That we desire to leave on permanent record the helpful service and consecration of our beloved co-worker, whose hand was ever ready to assist, and whose heart was ever ready to endorse every effort made to extend the Lord's kingdom. 8 That we tender to the bereaved husband our sincere sympathy, and invoke the Divine Spirit's influence to uphold and strengthen him in his sore bereavement. 4. That a blank page of our minute book be dedicated to the memory of the deceased, and that a copy of these resolutions be sent to the bereaved husband, and to the Lutheran Visitor and the Salisbury papers for publication.

left last night for Jackson Springs to spend ten days.

Clerk of the Court Melton, of the county will be in attendance Stanly county, was in the city this at this convention. morning on his way to Charlotte.

Mrs. John Summers and Mrs.D Haneline returned this morning from avisit to Asheville and other points West. tion.

Misses Grace and Margie Ritch returned to Salisbury this morning after visiting here for several weeks, says the Concord Standard.

Rev. Weber's Iliness.

barrus, and Walter Murphy, of The TRUTH-INDEX is deeply Salisbury. pained to learn of the continued and serious illness of Rev. Gerny Weber, pastor of the German Reform church. Mr. Weber has been confined to his bed for several weeks with fever and his condition has grown alarming.

An aged horse.

Mr. John Kester has what probably the oldest working horse in the county. Mr. Kester traded for the horse in 1873 and he was 4 years old then, making his age 31. He works regularly every day.

Suchassful Fishermen.

Mean J. Robert Monroe, Henry Monroe, Linker and Rhosies Guffy went to Boone's Ford yesterday afternoon. They returned about daylight this morning and report a catch of 140 fish.

Salisbury wants another game.

The Salisbury base ball team requests us to state that they desire to play another game with Spencer next Saturday afternoon. If the game can be arranged it will be a good one.

Rev. Atkins Speaks to-day.

Rev. H. L. Atkins left last night Speaking Thursday Night. for China Grove. This morning at 10 o'clock he spoke on the Twentieth Century Movement. Wright, Esq., and perhaps others convention at Statesville tomorrow. A large crowd from Salisbury and several delegates from fice Yesterday. It is a settled fact that there will be no opposition to Hon. T.

Mr. S. W. McDuffie, manager F. Kluttz, our present able and eloquent congressman, and he will be re-nominated by acclamaafternoon. He was sitting on a chair when

There will be a contest over the he suddenly keeled over- and fell nomination for elector for this disto the floor. trict, those having been mentioned are Col. Williams, of Catawba, J R Blair, of Montgomery, R L worse today from the incident. Smith, of Stanly, S E Williams, of Lexington, L T Hartsell, of Ca-of the first.

A BANKRUPTCY CASE.

Mr. Rendleman Appears For Greditors Against C. J. Hudson, of Albemarle.

Mr. J. L. Rendleman goes to Lexington tomorrow to appear before Referee in Bankruptcy J. R. McCrary in behalf of the creditors of C. J. Hudson, of Albemarle. Mr. Hudson has failed in business and hence the bankruptcy proceedings.

The sick.

J M Monroe, J F McCubbins, There is no change in the condition of Mr. Charles Pace, who has been sick for the past two weeks with fover.

Mr. W. G. Crutchfield had word to-day from Waynesville that his little son is not quite so well as he has been for the past week.

Help the Cause

Every patriotic Salisburian who feels any sympathy for free Americanism should patronize th Daughters of Liberty at their lawn party on the lawn opposite the Methodist church next Monday night. Several handsome prizes will be gived away on this occasion.

Hon. Theo. F. Kluttz, R. Lee

Mr, McDuffie Overcome by Heat in his Of-of the broker's shop on Main street was overcome by heat yesterday

He was brought around all right in a short while and is none the

Mr. McDuffie fell on the streets of Reidsville Sunday and yesterday's attack was partly the result

THE RAILROAD ASSESSMENTS.

number of Salisbury Witnesses are summoned to Charlotte The matter of the assessment of the property of the Southern Railway by the Corporation Commission is to be heard by Judge Si-and may come up to-day. The following witnesses from this county, most of whom went down this morning, were summond in the matter:

J L Rendleman, W C Lisk, Hon Jno S Henderson and D R Julian. Horse Pulled His Tooth.

Mr. James Moyle has a horse that has probably placed a feat to his credit which no other horse can claim. This particular horse got a hind foot fastened in hi mouth Saturday and when he with drew the foot an upper tooth was withdrawn with it. When Mr Moyle reached the horse he found the tooth daugling by a small piece of skin to the gum. This is pro bably the first horse that ever pull-

It is important that every member of the band be present at the Matone Wheless, of St. Louis; one of whom is Capt. Frank Brown, Keiser, of Louisville and WA of this city.

Townsend, of Morganton, were When the pennins arrived here passengers on the local freight. on the 10:30 train this morning Dr. Moran, the Southern's surgethey were taken to Capt. Brown's on, assisted by Drs. Anderson and residence, where they remained Laxton dressed the wounds of the until 5 o'clock this afternoon.

injured, who were afterwards At 5 o'clock the funeral services brought to Morganton. were held from the First Presby-A misunderstanding as to the terian church. Rev. Bostian offici orders of the east-bound local is ating, and the remains were inter said to have caused the accident. red in Chestnut Hill cemetery.

MR. HORTON BURNED OUT.

His house and all household effects de-Mr. Fred Sink and Miss Mary Cecil ma ried at Graham Yesterday.

life's joys,

A Bad Gash.

"Dude" Chambers, the helper at the Southern Express Company, open when a bar fell across his

LEXINGTON COUPLE ELOPES,

Mr. John Horton, of Mt. . Ulla Mr. Fred O. Sink, local edite township, had the misfortune last of the Lexington Dispatch, and Friday to lose his house and all of Miss Mary Cecil, daughter of Mr his household furniture and effects D. K Cecil, of Lexington, arriv ed in Salisbury last night after

None of the family were at home romantic marriage yesterday. when the fire broke out ' and it is They went to Greensboro Sunnot known exactly how it origday but were unable to secure inated. license there. They caught the

Everything was consumed in the midnight train and went to Graflames and the loss is a hard blow to Mr. Horton, who is an industerday morning. trious and highly, respected citizen. His loss is estimated at $500. Mr. J. J. Page, a neighbor of couple proferred a quiet affair. Mr. Horton, is in the city to-day endeavoring to raise by popular the time of the marriage. Any contribution made will be Important meeting of Adoniram Council No. 2, Royal and Select Masters tonight at 8 o'clock. Rehearsal preparatory to conferring the Select Master's degree. All members urged to attend. forehead cutting a gash about ing at 11 o'clock with a sermon by the president, Rev. B. S. Brown. On Friday Rev L E Busby will preach:

WM. B. SMOOT,

The visiting brethren who are expected are Dr. Holland, President Lutz, Revs. Cox, V R Stickley and C B Miller.

On Saturday the celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of the church will take place. The music will be an important feature of this day.

The church is being decorated and the names of the pasto.s who have served this church during the past 50 years will be placed above the pulpit. They are as follows:

Rev. B N Hopkins 1845-50. It was under the ministry- of Rev Hopkins that the congregation was organized on August 11, 1850. Immediately after Rev. Jenkins was called. He served four years. Rev J S Heilig 1854-59; Rev. Ja cob Crim 1859-62; Rev S Scherer 1862-68; Rev S Rothrock 1868-75; Rev V R Stickley 1875-82: Rev D Shirey 1882-89; Rev HC Haithcock served for seven months; Rev B W Cronk 1889-93; Rev V Y Boozer 1893-95; Rev H N Miller 1895-97; Rer H O Trexler 1897. Seven of the above have passed into the great beyond.

On Sunday there will be at least two sermons. On the whole this will be an eventful occasion in the history of Salem church.

ham and were married there yes-Mr. S L Elliott, our popular vocalist, is teaching a series of sing-It is stated that there was no ing lessons both at Zeb and Grace.

objection to the marriage but the The annual Sunday school convention of Steele township, meets Mr. Cecil, the father of the today in St. Luke's church.

bride, was in South Carolina at Mr. Deal, cf Steele township, and Miss Bettie Fleming, of Saw, The TRUTH-INDEX wishes th will be married the 20th of Auyoung couple at full measure of gust.

> The Atwell township Sunday school convention meets today in Concordia church.

was quite painfally injured yes- One of The Injured Here. terday. He was pushing a door importers and Charles Bernhardt, colored, a brakeman on the Western, who was in the wreck near Morganto

Respectfully submitted MRS. A. W. WINECOFF. MRS. L. E. BUSBY.

To Make Better Roads.

The Piedmont Toll Bridge Company will shortly begin building better roads on either side, one mile of which will be built in Davidson and one mile in Rowan county. The business of this concern continues to increase and it is fully meeting the expectations of the stockholders.

COTTON MARKET.

New York, Aug, 14 .-- Cotton bids: Aug 985, Sept 876, Oct 56 Nov 45, Dec 41.

Texas Democrats nominated J D Savers for Governor last Friday.

SHUCKS WANTED. Nice dry shucks wanted at G. A. Taylor's mattress factory in East Salisbury.

PEAS.

A few more peas at Tyson & Co Call and see them and get prices.

Wholesalers,

GREENSBORO, N. C.

subscription a purse to help him. worthily given. important Meeting.

ed a tooth.

Important Band Meeting Tonight.

poting tonight as the listic a by fire.

	 spoke on Sunday school work. Mr. Thompson inproving. Mr. Ernest Thompson, who had several violent hemorhages of the lungs last week, is improving, we are glad to learn. As soon as he is able to travel he will leave for the mountains. Chip off The Old Block. Says the Charlotte News: Mr. A. H. Price, one of the bright lights of the Salisbury bar, and therefore a chip off the old block, 	STRAYED-A red pig from E. K. James' stable weighing about 75 pounds. Reward will be paid for return to M. L. Jackson. For SALE:-A lot of first class tar. Apply to J. C. Hamilton, Carmel, N. C.	plete and the men will be assigned to the different parts at once. Meeting of Bible Society. Mrs. S. S. Cole left last night for Black Mountain, where she will attned the meeting of the Bible Society of North Carolina. The Salisbury High School will re-open on Monday Sept. 3. Terms on application. Miss Josephine Coit, principal; Miss Eleanor Watson, assistant. da The Coit home school . will re- open on Monday. Sept. 3rd. For	Bad sight for Gas. The consumers of gas were in a predicament last night. On ac- count of repairs being made on the main no gas was to be had in the early part of the night and some of the patrons who were entirely dependent upon it had to contend with the darkness. For SALE—The cleanest and best plastering sand near the city. Apply at this office for further in- formation.	Rev. Marr Here. Rev. and Mrs. T. F. Marr and children were in the city this morning on their way to the mountains to spend about a month. Rev. Marr held a sort of informal reception among his numerons friends here during his brief stop in Salisbury this morning. FOR SALE. Magistrate's blanks, trespass notice, mortgage and trustees' sale notices, blank re-	yesterday afternoon, was brought to Salisbury this morning and taken to Spencer. He was given medical attention and will pull through all right. We learn to- day that the party who was killed was beating his way on the train. Mr. Lafferty Improving. We are pleased to hear that Mas- ter Parks Lafferty, of China Grove, is still improving and his recovery from appendicitis is very promis- ing, says the Concord Standard.	We solicit trade of Mer- chants only, and sell nothing at retail.
1924	therefore a chip off the old block, spent yesterday here, stopping at	Farm for rent: Good two horse farm for rent. Bottom land and	open on Monday, Sept. 3rd. For		trustees' sale notices, blank re- ceipts, drafts, chattle mortgage blanks, etc., at TRUTH-INDEX OF-		elsewhere