A new postmaster will have to be appointed for this place. There are a number of candidates out, but we all hope that J. D. Brown, son of our late postmaster will be the lucky one.

Rev. G. W. Reed preached at Calvary Sunday. He is a good, earnest speaker. His text was: "What shall I do with this man Jesus, called the Christ?" He stated this question was first asked by Pilate when Christ was brought before him for trial and that it has become one of personal responsibility to every man and woman from that day to this, that it is a question that would not be down and could not be settled by proxy nor until it was settled right. He was listened to with close attention by all.

Joseph Alexander Brown was born Nov. 12, 1846 and departed this life Mar. 31, 1902, age 55 years, 4 mos and 19 days. It will be remembered that Mr. Brown had been very sick for quite a while with heart trouble.

Mr. Brown has always been a gentleman of good moral character and was loved by all who knew him, was confirmed and joined St. Peter's E. L. Church about the year 1860 at which time he was about 15 years of age. He was a man of ability and had a wide reputation, a consistent member of St. Peter's church for over 35 years and was our postmaster for 16 years, giving us his best service all the while. Mr. Brown died Monday morning at 9 10 o'clock and was buried Tuesday. His funeral was conducted from St. Peter's, his pastor, Rev E. W. Leslie, officiating. Mr. Brown was the father of seven children. A wife, and six children and five grand children survive him. Mr. Brown had only one sister, Mrs. Monroe Poole, who lived in Texas. He will be missed.

A Lockout Threatened.

Columbia, S. C., April 8.—All cotton mills in Augusta, Ga., and five factory towns on the South Carolina side of the Savannah River, posted this notice, signed by all presidents this evening:

"Owing to a demand made this day on the John P. King Manufacturing Company for advance of ten per cent in wages, accompanied by a notice that if not granted its operators would refuse to go to work after Saturday, April 9, said demands having been refused, notice is hereby given to employees of this company that should such a strike be inaugurated this mill will close indefinitely on the evening of Tuesday, April 8."

Operatives in many of the mills have no grievances. The threat of a lockout is disturbing them.

Strange Deaths in Yadkin.

A letter to the Journal from Flynt Hill, in Yadkin county, states that very much of a sensation was produced on Saturday morning when it was known that Misses Susie Speer and Martha Logan, two aged maiden ladies who lived together, had been found dead in the same bed.

Miss Speer was 60 years of age and Miss Logan was 65. They had been in feeble health for some time, but were not known to be dangerously sick, and it is not known when they died.

It was reported that there were grounds to suspect that the old friends, tiring of life, had committed suicide, but there is nothing to justify this conclusion. The old ladies had a large circle of friends and any want would have been relieved that could have been known.—Winston Journal.

Plans are under way for the erection of two magnificent fireproof hotels in the burned section.

FOR THE SENATE.

I hereby announce myself a candidate for the State Senate, subject to the action of the Democratic primaries.

R. LEE WRIGHT.

Lady Gets Whole Town.

The Raleigh correspondent to the Charlotte Observer says:

The Supreme Court decides the interesting case of Mrs. Scott vs. Ingram, involving the title to the whole town of Star, in Montgomery county. Mrs. Scott, a married woman, living in South Carolina, sold the land on which the town now stands, for a trifle, it seems. The town was built, and it is said the land is now worth $70,000 or thereabouts. The Supreme Court decides in favor of Mrs. Scott and so the property owners lose it.

Weak?

"I suffered terribly and was extremely weak for 12 years. The doctors said my blood was all turning to water. At last I tried Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and was soon feeling all right again."

Mrs. J. W. Fiala, Hadlyme, Ct.

No matter how long you have been ill, nor how poorly you may be today, Ayer's Sarsaparilla is the best medicine you can take for purifying and enriching the blood.

Don't doubt it, put your whole trust in it, throw away everything else.

Ask your doctor what he thinks of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. He knows all about this grand old family medicine. Follow his advice and we will be satisfied.

If it succeeds with the bristled hog, we might try it on the hog that takes a paper several years, never pays for it, and finally has it marked "refused" and sent back to the publisher.

We have added several correspondents to our list lately and hope to add more. It is our wish to cover every foot of the county, if possible, with correspondents so that nothing worth printing will be missed. This of course will make the TRUTH-INDEX a welcome visitor to every home and will assist us in putting it into the hands of every man who wishes to keep posted on current events. In this particular we hope our friends will take occasion to speak a good word for us as they have opportunity, if they can conscientiously do so, which will help us to gradually improve the paper, possibly enlarge it, thus giving much more general satisfaction to all.

Senator Jas. K. Jones, of Arkansas, will be succeeded at the close of his present term by former Governor James P. Clarke. A number of our exchanges in talking of the change, have remarked: "We don't know anything about this man Clarke," but intimate that most any one would be preferable to Jones. Our esteemed contemporaries will know something about Clarke before he has been in the Senate a great while. Mr. Clarke has been prominent in public life in his state for many years. He was a member of the legislature for several terms, and ably filled the office of president of the senate. Later he was elected attorney general, and then governor. Mr. Clarke is one of the brainiest men in his state and his ability is unquestioned. He is a fine speaker, is a man of very commanding presence, tall, smooth faced, and has white hair, though a man yet in the forties, if we are not mistaken. He is a native of Mississippi, a Democrat of the strictest and straightest sect, and is absolutely fearless. When he gets into the United States Senate Mr. Clarke will make his presence felt and he will be a valuable acquisition to the Democratic minority in that body.

WANTED.—A correspondent and agent at every postoffice in our county. We would be glad if our friends at the postoffices would assist us in the matter. Liberal commission paid to agents.
