THE T. G. WILSON CANNER,

The only Complete and Perfect Canner.

Does its work without the aid of a cook stove or furnace

Opens the doors of a big monopoly to Farmers and Fruit Growers, by Saving Time, Fuel and Labor. Cooks Fruits and Vegetables perfectly. Does not cook the operator. Made of Galvanized Iron. Fire-box Surrounded by Water. Can't burn out nor rust out.

Do you know there are $25,000,000 worth of canned goods sold every year in the United States, and that the farmers get only one-eighth of this large income, while the "big manufacturers" pocket the balance? Many of you are painfully aware of this unequal distribution of a profitable industry, but the canners heretofore in use were unable to correct it.

Now, by the invention of the T. G. Wilson Fruit Canner the farmer steps to the front and claims his share of these profits. For with this invention in hand his fruits and vegetables must command the market and outsell all others for two reasons: 1st. The heating capacity of the Wilson Canner is unequalled. The fire-box being surrounded by water, the water boils in a few moments, and the boiling point is kept up all the time without any trouble; and the secret of first-class canned goods is to have the water at boiling point when the cans are first put in, so as to close the pores of the fruit, thus retaining the flavor and preventing its being its being tasteless and soggy, and that degree of heat must be kept up. 2nd. The canner is portable and can be used in doors, out under the fruit trees or in the garden, and no one doubts the superiority of fruits and vegetables freshly gathered, free from bruises and injury by handling and hauling. The Wilson Canner reduces expenses to a minimum, makes the work of canning easy, quick and successful.

Canning is no hidden science. Proper heat, especially for the first few minutes and vegetables of good quality, proper handling and air-tight cans, insure success. Then why not turn your fruits and vegetables into cash?

AFFAIRS IN RUSSIA.

Attempt to Assassinate the Police Prefect of Moscow.

The police prefect of Moscow, M. Trepoff, had a narrow escape from assassination yesterday. While receiving visitors, a governess named Allart suddenly drew a revolver, placed its muzzle at the official's breast and pulled the trigger. The weapon, however, missed fire. In the subsequent excitement the woman tried to escape, but was arrested. It is believed that the attempt was connected with the recent student troubles.

The students are organizing a fresh revolutionary meeting and have succeeded in mailing 10,000 circulars, mostly addressed to persons belonging to the educated classes, imploring them to attend, armed if possible, a revolutionary demonstration in front of the Kazan Cathedral today.—St. Petersburg dispatch.

Arrested in California.

Robert E. Ford, who is wanted at Florence, S. C., has been arrested here by Detective Walker on a charge of making away with some goods which did not belong to him. When the prisoner was searched it was found that he was wanted on a more serious charge. He is accused of a forgery and the authorities of South Carolina have been sending out descriptions and making strong efforts to capture him. Ford is wanted at Florence on charges of forgery and bigamy. He was a tobacco grower. In 1897, it is alleged, he forged a small check on a warehouseman. He gave bond for trial and disappeared. He married the daughter of Brant Ham, a prominent citizen of Florence, who claims to have discovered that Ford had been married before. The sheriff of that county is in communication with the California authorities.—Stockton, Cal., dispatch.

Will Retire Miles.

Washington, D. C., April 3.—The correspondent of the New York Evening Post advises his paper that in order to prevent the development of an army controversy similar to the Schley case in the navy the president intends to carry out in a week or so his determination to retire General Miles. Section 1298 of the revised statutes empowers the President to retire any officer who has served forty-five years or reached the age of 62.

Leading Issue in Congress.

Washington, April 3.—What promises to become the leading issue of this Congress has been raised by the unanimously favorable report of the House Committee on Territories on the omnibus bill for the admission of Oklahoma, Arizona and New Mexico, to statehood. The speaker and older Republican leaders are alarmed over the probable passing of the measure which will add materially to the preponderance of the influence of the Senate in legislation.

"An attack of pneumonia left me with muscular rheumatism, headache, and pains that seemed to be all over me. I was scarcely able to move for about a month when I decided to give
