

TRAGEDY AT PITTSBURG, PA.

J. E. Kuntz Shot His Wife Patally and Then Killed J. E. Walsh.

J. F. Kuntz put two bullets into the body of his wife, from the effects of which she may die, and then shot to death J. E. Walsh, a wealthy contractor of this city, of whom he was jealous. Since the death of Mrs. Walsh, six or eight months ago, Mrs. Kuntz has been employed as Mr. Walsh's housekeeper. To-night Walsh and Mrs. Kuntz were walking down the street together and Kuntz coming up behind the couple put a bullet in Walsh. Mrs. Kuntz tried to escape and Kuntz fired at her, the shot bringing the woman to the ground. Walsh had been prostrated by the bullet that struck him and Kuntz put three more bullets into him to make his work sure. He then turned his attention to his wife and shot her a second time. Walsh was dead when picked up and Mrs. Kuntz was taken to a hospital, where the physicians say she can hardly recover.

Kuntz was arrested on the spot by the citizens, who were attracted by the shooting. He will make no statement, but it is believed that divorce proceedings instituted by his wife precipitated the trouble.—Pittsburg, Pa., dispatch.

Tale of a Bale of Hay.

A very unpleasant, also a funny incident happened at Inanda on Friday night. It concerned a bale of hay which nobody wanted—not even the cattle it is said. The bale of hay was hauled back and forth over the road most of the night and two men, J. D. Drake and P. J. Alexander, spent a good many hours in trying to foist the said bale on each other. They had finally to give up out of sheer weariness and the hay is supposed to be lying in the road now without an owner and without any one to eat it. The tale of the bale is briefly this: Mr. Drake sold the hay to Mr. Alexander, and the latter (not being satisfied with it) hauled it back and left it at Drake's place. Then Drake, concluding that he was not going to be burdened with the care and responsibility for what he did not agree to take back hauled it once more to Alexander's. Then Alexander, being determined that he should not be made to take what he did not want rehauled it to Drake's, and so the hay went back and forth. Alexander claims the hay is no good—that cattle won't eat it and that it is not fit to make beds for a dog. Drake claims he sold the hay and it is all right and if Alexander throws it away it is his loss.—Asheville Citizen.

He Shot the Lawyer.

Grand Junction, Col., May 12.—Because District Attorney McMullin refused to prosecute the betrayer of W. Downing's daughter, Downing today shot McMullin in the arm, inflicting a severe wound. Downing fired again, but a bystander struck his arm and the bullet went wild. Downing was arrested.

Claude White caused the trouble. He admitted betraying Miss Downing and offered to marry her but she demanded a bond for five years support. McMullin advised waiving the bond condition, and when she refused he dropped the prosecution. Downing did his shooting because McMullin refused to renew it.

TRIED TO END LIFE.

Ex-Policeman Weddington Swallows Poison But His Life is Saved.

J. Frank Weddington, for many years a member of the police force of the city of Charlotte, tried to end his life last night at his home, No. 311 Liberty street, by taking an overdose of some kind of drug.

Mr. Weddington has been in poor health for some time and his physical condition coupled with the fact that he recently lost his position on the police force produced melancholia from which he has been a sufferer for some time.

During the day, yesterday, Mr. Weddington talked with the members of his family. While he seemed low spirited it did not appear that he intended any rash act.

He retired last night and in a short while, Mrs. Weddington noticed that there was something wrong. She called in her nearest neighbor and in a short while a physician was summoned. Just as soon as a hurried examination was made, the fact was made known to Mrs. Weddington that her husband was suffering from poison and that his condition was very serious.

Heroic efforts were resorted to and after hours of hard work, the poison was extracted and the man's life was saved.

Today, Mr. Weddington was still in a serious condition but the attending physician thinks his patient will recover.

Friends of Mr. Weddington today say that they firmly believe that his mind is unbalanced. This, they say, has been known to the family for some time.

This morning, after Weddington recovered from the effects of the drug he made an assault on his wife. Mrs. Weddington fearing that her husband would do her some bodily harm telephoned to the police and had her husband taken to the station where he is now confined.

Those who have talked with Weddington today say his mind is badly off.—Charlotte News.

Newman says two Women Robbed him.

Walter George Newman, promoter of North Carolina gold mines, who has gained notoriety in Wall street by inducing some of the sharpest traders of the stock exchange to pay $80 a share for Union Copper stock, which had sold freely at a dollar a share, complained in the Jefferson Market police court today that he had been robbed by two women. He charged Mamie Doyle and Fannie Wilson, who said they lived in West Thirty-eighth street, with having held him up at Fifth Avenue and Thirty-seventh street and stealing his wallet containing more than $200. "I've been around the world five times, and I never saw the like of these women," said Newman. The hearing was set for Thursday next at the request of defendant's counsel and both women were held in $1,000 bail.—New York dispatch.

A PANIC RESULTS.

Oil Tank Explodes and Does Damage.—One Man Is Missing.

New York, May 12.—A wild panic and ten thousand dollars damage to property was caused this morning by the explosion of an oil tank in the yards of the Standard Oil Company in Long Island city.

The blazing oil flowed from the tank into a creek in which a number of barges and lighters were moored, which were set on fire, but were towed into the middle of the stream by tugs and the fire extinguished.

The oil in the great tank was allowed to burn out, the twenty streams of water played on the blaze being of no avail.

John Quinn, an employe of the Standard Oil Company, is reported missing and it is supposed he was killed in the explosion.

Charlotte Journalists to be Reinforced.

Charlotte is to have two new newspapers. Closely following the announcement by the Observer this morning that it would shortly issue an afternoon edition to be called the Evening Chronicle, came the news that a new morning paper would be established.

The Observer, in announcing the new enterprise, says it feels that an independent afternoon newspaper will fill the long-felt want, and that on May 25th the first issue of The Evening Chronicle will make its appearance.

Today's News asserts that the need of a Democratic morning daily has long been felt in this community, and to gratify this would be started. It is understood that $25,000 was subscribed by several prominent business men this morning. The name of the new daily is to be The Charlotte Democrat. The date of its inauguration is not stated.—Charlotte dispatch.

Oldest Odd Fellow is 96.

Bethel, Conn., May 12.—The oldest Odd Fellow in the United States lives here. He is John McDowell, 96 years of age, and is a brother-in-law of Mrs. Ashley Spring, of Geneva, O., a well known Rebekah.

Mr. McDowell joined Samaritan Lodge No. 7, I. O. O. F., at Danbury, Conn., in June, 1843, and he is still a member of that lodge. He held the office of Noble Grand, the highest in the lodge, only three years after he became an Odd Fellow.

He is rather deaf but his sight is good for a man of his years. He has been treasurer of the Hat Makers' society for many years, and not long since they presented him with five twenty-dollar gold pieces.

Will Not Be a Candidate.

Grover Cleveland, twice president of the United States, will not be a candidate for nomination to the presidency before the Democratic National Convention. This is the opinion stated by William F. Vilas, former senator from Wisconsin, postmaster general and later secretary of the interior in Cleveland's cabinet and one of the closest political and personal friends the ex-President has in the country. Senator Vilas has recently visited the Cleveland home in Princeton and passed several days in the company of the ex-President. He has also recently corresponded with Cleveland, but neither the visit nor letter received disclose any purpose on Mr. Cleveland's part to be a candidate.—Madison, Wis., dispatch.

BY TRAMPS.

Plant Accidentally Burned.—A Total Loss.

of the Standard Oil Company of this State destroyed by fire this morning. It is supposed that the fire started by tramps breaking headquarters in the plant for some time.

Tramps were arrested. The tank and would have died if the police had not found them. The plant, formerly used for a graining mill and also for packages, belong to F. Southerland and J. J. of Mt. Olive, and worth $5,500, which is the insurance had the plant suspended.

But Buys a Monument.

Brother B. C. Trexler went over in Stanley and sold a nice large monument to a man who is not yet known by all the old people of the surrounding country. The old gentleman is now in his 80th year, but has been in his bed for four years.

He bought the monument for his first wife and his son, who yet lives and is 70 years old. The old man that he has bought the monument for, was shot but Usual Talk From the Bench.

Asheville, N. C., May 7.—Judge James E. Boyd, who, during the last session of Congress bitterly opposed the establishment of a term of federal court at Wilkesboro, today gave utterance from the bench to varied and remarkable sentiments with respect to creating the court. Without calling names, he declared that those who were responsible for the court, meaning former Senator Pritchard and Congressman Blackburn, had put through Congress a silly piece of legislation. Judge Boyd declared he did not propose to suffer either in mind or body with dirty hotel accommodations at Wilkesboro and he would not put up with anything of the sort if changes had not been made.

Negroes Killed in Race Riot.

New Orleans, May 11.—There was a little race riot in St. Tammany parish, about 50 miles from this city, Saturday night. An insolent negro was beaten with an axe handle by a white grocery clerk. The negroes armed and sought to cause trouble, but the whites rallied and a pitched battle followed in which four negroes, all members of the Florant family, one of whom was the aggressor, were killed. Peace was then restored and the trouble is over.

The affair took place in the logging camps out of the line of communication.

An Entertaining Batch of News.—What the People are Doing.

We are needing some rain now. Some time ago the farmers were grumbling about too much rain, and now they are complaining of too little.

We still have fruit in some sections. If it is not injured any further there will be plenty.

The farmers are about through planting cotton and corn.

Jas. Holschouser is working at his new house near Granite Quarry.

Another of J. D. Trexler's children is very low with typhoid fever.

Strawberries are ripening, and I think there will be a good crop.

Cleveland's Check For Monument.

Richmond, Va., May 11.—A check was received tonight from former President Grover Cleveland for the benefit of the fund for the erection of a monument to General J. E. B. Stuart, the famous Confederate cavalry leader. Accompanying the check is a letter in which Mr. Cleveland says the country is again one, and all sections can join heartily and conscientiously in honoring the memory of an American hero, no matter whether he belonged to the north or to the south, east or west.
