County Correspondents.

Misenheimer's Ford.

Wheat and oats are coming out in heads. Wheat will not be more than half a crop, but oats are looking well.

Corn is coming up slowly, and many farmers will have to plant over.

G. W. Holshouser and wife visited D. A. Weaver Sunday.

THUNDERBOLT.

Jackson Schoolhouse.

Farmers are beginning to need rain in this vicinity.

Rev. J. L. Morgan preached at St. Matthew's E. L. church last Sunday.

Rev. J. J. Eads will preach at Liberty next Sunday at 11 a. m.

There was singing at Moses Goodman's last Sunday evening. Miss Flora Ribelin furnished the instrumental music.

Harvey Frank of Crescent, visited Miss Maudie Trexler last Sunday evening.

Misses Flora and Carrie Bame visited Miss Amanda Goodman last Sunday.

SUSIE.

Reader Branch.

There will not be more than a half a crop of wheat raised in this community unless there is a great improvement on present prospects.

Our farmers have commenced cultivating their crops.

Corn is coming up badly, and many will have to plant over.

Jos. Eagle visited P. N. Trexler Friday night and Saturday.

Bro. Dandy Jim, of Crescent, visited home folks last Saturday and Sunday.

Some of our farmers have laid away their tools until it rains, as the ground is so dry and rough they can't work to their satisfaction.

The little son of P. N. Trexler, who has been very ill, is able to be out.

Hello Zeke, what has become of you? Have you let Victory out-do you. Come along and give him some more lessons in photography.

Texas Jack is working in A. H. Graf's mill, near Craven.

There are seven private boxes at Liberty X Roads, counting the corner box.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Basinger were pleasant callers at J. A. Brady's last Sunday.

J. Travis Eagle has bought an organ.

There will be preaching at Liberty M. E. church, June 7th, at 3 p. m.

TOM DODGER.

Buy a watch, clock, a piece of china or silverware, at Gorman & Green's while they are selling at a reduction. 2t.

Dutch Creek.

Coming, coming, and we will soon be here. The minstrel at Pool's schoolhouse May 21st, Ascension day. It is composed of such plays as "Patsy O'Whang" which is full of fun from end to end; the joke on Squire Hans Von Smash, a regular Irishman; "Black Breach of Promise Case;" (a Mook Trial) which will certainly take well, also many other side busters and rib splitters. The Stoner string band will furnish music. Come out, everything will be free. Don't forget the date, May 21st, 1908. Bring the baby to assist in the yelling.

It's no use to say anything about Victory this time, as I have him hacked already. He has called on Lee to know what to do.

The Backwoods boys are putting up their saw mill on Calvin Agner's place. I think they will change their name to "Bachelors' Town."

Don't forget the exercises at Pool's schoolhouse May 21st, but come along.

ZEKE.

Rockwell.

A. W. Shuping is suffering from illness. Hope he will soon recover.

Solomon Peeler, of Dutch creek is building a new barn.

Alex. Holshouser visited Wm. Reeves Saturday night.

Miss Fallie Bost, of Salisbury, was visiting Miss Mary Holshouser Saturday night and Sunday. She left for Bessemer City Monday evening.

Mrs. J. McCombs is very ill. We hope for her early recovery.

J. D. McCombs and B. A. Fesperman have made some improvements about their premises. They are helping old Rockwell out. Let us see some more good work.

A bell has been purchased for Ursinus Reformed church and it will be put up soon. It is thirty feet high and will be heard a considerable distance. I think the bell will be in position and ready for use next Sunday.

The mine between Rockwell and Crescent, known as the Holshouser mine, is being worked. Some buildings will be erected soon. We hope to see the mine prosper.

Mrs. O. M. Holshouser and son visited P. A. Peeler Saturday night and Sunday.

Julius Frick and Brian Beck, with their families, were visiting J. A. M. Peeler's Sunday.

There was communion service at Christiana Sunday, and the church was filled.

Come Sister Dick and let us hear from your side again. Our side has been well represented, but we don't plant cotton up here, we sell the cotton and plant the seed.

A. A. Trexler is cutting clover and making hay. He has the finest piece of clover we have seen.

NOBODY'S HONEY.

Gold Knob.

Wish it would rain. Corn can't come up, people can't plow, and what are we going to do?

Wheat is heading very well. Oats are looking fine.

P. C. Barger has the finest piece of oats we have seen.

Peaches are falling of the trees considerably.

T. J. A. Barger lost a fine Jersey heifer last Tuesday.

Moses Kluttz has bought a fine young horse from Mrs. Charlotte Davis.

Archie H. C. Holshouser treated himself to a new buggy.

T. J. A. Barger who runs a stock and poultry farm has in his farm a gander that will dance a jig while the little geese feed on dough. All who doubt this call on Mr. Barger who will be pleased to entertain you.

Miss Frances Trexler is still confined to her bed with typhoid fever.

Jno. L. Trexler is working at Spencer this week at the carpenter's trade.

So they are going to have an exhibition at Pool's schoolhouse. Guess we'll have to go, won't we Barlette? Say yes.

Ray B. Drury is on the sick list this week.

Chas. Misenheimer Jr., visited his brother Saturday night.

The Biltmore and Crescent baseball teams crossed bats on Biltmore diamond on Saturday, May 2nd. The score was 18 to 16 in favor of Crescent.

Ellen Florence Trexler was born October 18 1890, and departed this life May 10, 1908, aged 12 years, 7 months 27 days. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James M. Trexler. Florence was one of the brightest little girls in St. Peter's Sunday school. Death was caused by spinal meningitis. The funeral was conducted from St. Peter's church, Rev. R. L. Brown officiating. The pall bearers were bouquets of white roses which were cast into the grave when the casket was lowered. After the grave was filled her teacher and classmates marched in with a number of friends and the grave was covered with 18 wreaths of roses. The bereaved family has our warmest sympathy.

A Little Early Riser

now and then at bedtime will cure constipation, biliousness and liver troubles. DeWitt's Little Early Risers are the famous little pills that cure by arousing the secretions, moving the bowels gently, yet effectually, and giving such tone and strength to the glands of the stomach and liver that the cause of the trouble is removed entirely, and if their use is continued for a few days, there will be no return of the complaint. Sold by James Plummer.

Will Look After You

The officers of the city have received instructions to look closely after vagrants, and to take in custody all persons who cannot show up that they have an honest way of making a living, and are on at least speaking terms with work. If this rule be rigidly enforced it will shut off much of the devilry resulting from a class of people that has made itself very obnoxious to the community, and has occasioned the officers of the law much trouble. When young men have nothing to do but loaf around the saloons and hold up people on the street in broad daylight, cut them, shoot them, or beat them into insensibility because they object to being robbed, it is certainly high time to adopt measures which will discourage such cattle.

Last of the May Term.

The May term of court adjourned last Wednesday evening. Among the matters disposed of, are not previously reported, are the following:

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Don't Know it.

How To Find Out.
Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; if it stains your linen it is evidence of kidney trouble; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

What to Do.
There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in 50c. and $1. sizes. You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful discovery and a book that tells more about it, both sent absolutely free by mail, address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper.

Don't make a y mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

If you want to buy or sell a farm or town lot, write to us first. No charge for advertising unless a sale is made. TRUTH-INDEX.
