FROM SHAVERTOWN.

What the People in This Section of the Rowan County are Doing.

Harvest is about over. Wheat is as light as the straw itself, but we think there will be more than last year, although hundred bushel crops will be scarce.

Corn is moving up now and the people are hustling.

Mrs. M. L. Earnhardt is quite sick. Hope she will be able to be out soon.

Mrs. T. Fry, who has been ill for several days, is not improving fast.

W. C. Lisk, of Lisk, says he had peaches to eat on the 25th of May that were raised on his place, and beans and cabbage on the 1st day of June.

Miss Sattie Taylor, the popular saleslady of the firm of Taylor & Sons, visited home folks recently.

Mack Shaver contemplates taking a trip near Pool. That's right Mack, beat 'em out if you can.

Mrs. Mollie Beaver, of Salisbury, visited friends and relatives in our locality last week, and returned home Monday.

Mrs. C. W. Keith, of Salisbury, visited J. T. Fry's last week.

R. Mack Miller, of the adjoining neighborhood, has the largest tomatoes the writer has seen.

Some say there was frost the other night. I expect there was, for potato vines look as though they were bitten.

It has certainly been a fine time for harvest.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Lisk, of Lexington, spent a few days with home folks.

A shower of rain would do good in this community at present.

Come on Bro. Tom Dodger, let us hear from your town.

We learn that a number of our citizens have ordered a threshing machine which will run by steam. That's something we have been needing in our section for a good while.

D. D. Shaver has the finest corn the writer has seen.

Our R. F. D. carrier has had a photograph of himself, horse and wagon taken. Zeke was the photographer.

There will be a public debate at Pond's schoolhouse, Saturday night before the first Sunday in July. All are invited.

One of our farmers says his reaper isn't any good. It is nearly new and he didn't use it any this harvest.

Mr. and Mrs. Nathan G. Arey, of Liberty X Roads, visited D. C. Arey Sunday.

John B. Shaver states that as he was returning from his watermelon patch recently, he came in contact with a mink and they had a lively chase. He grabbed up a stick and fired into him knocking him down. But he jumped up and ran off with John after him. John finally knocked the mink's eye out and captured him.

Gentlemen can't you scrape up a few old rusty quarters and come around and subscribe for the TRUTH-INDEX.

There is not many peaches or apples in our section, but I think there will be a good supply of blackberries.

LADDER.

Will Not Recognize Mitchell.

W. H. Gearhart, a coal operator of this city, stated this evening that the conciliators for the operators will not recognize John Mitchell when he comes before them to represent the miners. Gearhart says that any one who appears before that board must represent the miners in the anthracite region, and Mitchell does not, the non-union men being much opposed to him.—Scranton, Pa., dispatch.

Figgerclose—Isaac Idle which would you rather do, wear the seat out of your pants waiting for customers, or wear the soles off your shoes chasing debtors?

We were out of a certain size of "BURT SPECIAL" Oxford when a lady called for it. The clerk offered her what he believed was just as good.

"Oh, no!" said she,

"THERE ARE NONE JUST AS GOOD, and I will wait until they come in again."

She certainly was right, at $2.50 and $3.
