CHINA GROVE NEWS.

School Closing There This Week. Death of Mr. Ritchie.

March 15.—Mr. Junius Rose went to Charlotte Sunday evening, to begin work Monday morning in the office of the Southern Express Company at that place.

Mr. Everett Setzer returned to his work this morning. Mr. Setzer has spent a couple of months with us in the recovery of his health. He left this morning on No. 33 for Monroe, Ga., his home. We are sorry to see him leave us so soon. We were hoping to have him with us all summer.

Mr. M. L. Ritchie was buried at Concordia Lutheran church on last Sunday morning. Concordia was his old home church and there still held his membership. Mr. Ritchie will be missed very much. He was a man of splendid intellect and a very interesting character. To his sorrowing family is due the sympathy of all.

Mr. B. A. Foreman and wife went to Salisbury last night to attend the funeral services of her aunt, Mrs. Stephen Foreman, to be buried today. They will return this evening on No. 7.

Mr. J. B. Brown returned Sunday from Faith where he attended the marriage of his sister who was married on last Thursday to Mr. Luther Fisher.

Mr. F. E. Wright is with us again and has resumed work after having for several weeks gone through with a real good case of measles.

The Foreman-Lentz Co. have had an awning put in front of their place of business, which adds greatly to the appearance of it.

Mrs. S. F. Patterson and son, Bernard, are visiting Mrs. Dr. Stevens of Asheville, she being the mother of the latter.

Mr. Harry Hoover returned to Salisbury Sunday night where he has again resumed work. Mr. Hoover has just recovered from a case of measles.

Mrs. C. J. Kimball is visiting relatives in China Grove, Mr. Kimball having accepted the Southern agency at High Point. Mrs. Kimball will later join him at that place.

The public school will close at Harris Chapel school house on next Friday night. A ball game is to be played in the afternoon and a public entertainment at night given by the pupils. Mr. R. M. Ritchie, the teacher, tells us he has had a very pleasant and a successful year. Trust his efforts will be appreciated by a large attendance and words of cheer given.

FROM MILLERTOWN.

Mrs. Doby and Child Have a Narrow Escape.

Farmers are preparing their land for corn, cotton etc. The weather though makes it go slow.

R. E. Reid, of Davidson visited at Jas. A. Miller's Saturday night and Sunday.

Miss Linda, Johnny and Charlie Fraley had a quilting last Saturday. All the young people were there. Guess they had a nice time. Some one hid Edgar Harris' lap robe at Mrs. Fraley's Saturday night. He didn't find it that night. Mrs. Fraley found it next morning.

School at Parker school house closed with a spelling match Wednesday night. The school at Oak Grove academy will close Wednesday, Mar. 16. They are going to have a game of base ball in the evening and a spelling match that night.

We noticed Josiah said something about smoking cigars and throwing goods boxes at the sale some time ago. I want to explain that, it wasn't Josiah smoking, because he doesn't take up bad habits. But Josiah is becoming famous as a match-maker; think he will marry off two or three couples before long. But he prepares them first. He does, all he can, sell them houses and lots etc.

Mr. Doby and wife, of Salisbury are visiting at Mrs. Charity Morgan's this week. While on their way from Richfield Saturday night one of the surrey wheels ran off a small bridge over a ditch and threw Mrs. Doby and her baby out but didn't hurt either very much.

A MIDNIGHT BURGLAR.

Shoots Chief Frank Miller twice and Officer Cauble once.

Saturday night late, Officer Frank Miller's attention was called to a peculiar noise in D. A. Atwell's hardware store. James Plummer, the druggist, who does business in an adjoining store first heard it. Mr. Miller made an investigation and found a robber in the store. In response to the Chief's signal for assistance, officers Monroe and Cauble responded. Mr. Monroe was stationed at the front and the Chief and Mr. Cauble went to the rear. In the glare of the electric light, the robber discerned them and opened fire from second story. Mr. Cauble returned it in five rapid successions. The Chief then remarked "He has shot me Frank" and after taking a few steps, sank in his tracks, being painfully hurt by two balls in the leg and foot. Officer Cauble was also hit near the shoulder and the ball ranging downward, grazed the skin but doing no other damage than burning him slightly.

The burglar then made his escape by leaping into a tree and climbing down it. He lost his revolver, a Colt's make, and also his cap. The cap has been identified as one sold Ernest Murphy by Wallace & Sons. Other circumstantial evidence against Murphy is that he was seen at Spencer late Saturday night and his hand was bandaged. The burglar had cut his hand and blood was found in several places. There is of course, no positive proof that Murphy did it. He wrote a card from Greensboro Saturday night to his mother, but this may be a hoax. He had been arrested the day before on a charge of assault and robbery, but was released on insufficient evidence and promise to leave.

The officers who daringly risked their lives when put to hopeless disadvantage, received high praise, and the chief and his assistant have the sympathy of everybody in their misfortune.

AN OLD CONTRACT.

Rev. Stokes's Foards Obligation For One Year.

Readers of the GLOBE may not have heard of Rev. Stokes Foard, the colored preacher, who in the twilight of a long and useful life won fame by having his favorite 10 year-old rooster George stolen from him. Rev. Foard gained such publicity from this theft that he didn't have the heart to prosecute the guilty ones. He is a well-preserved, fat, greasy colored man, a fact easily explainable when the following contract is read. The white parties to it were well known here, Mr. Trott being a half-brother of Rev. Thos. Trott, of South River, and Mr. Reeves was also known well. Both have long since died. The contract is printed without a change.

Newton.—Charles Campbell, waiting trial on the charge of murdering "Silver Creek" Sam Pearson, has escaped from the Catawba county jail. Campbell had been ill and his wife had been serving as a nurse. He had been removed to the jail residence, and no guard kept over him. When Mrs. Campbell returned from supper Thursday evening Campbell could not be found. She immediately notified the sheriff.

PROGRESS OF THE WAR.

Russians Seem Still to have the Hot end of the Argument.

The war for the past week has been productive of no startling events. Japan has rather the advantage and Russia's streak of ill luck abides with her. Dispatches from Tokio, Japan, from both private and official sources indicate at Admiral Togo's fourth attack on Port Arthur on the 10th instant was the most effective since the first assault of a month ago. One Russian torpedo boat destroyer was sunk and several Russian torpedo boats seriously damaged. The fortifications and city were submitted to a heavy bombardment lasting nearly four hours. It is said there was much destruction in the city and some damage to the land batteries. Nine Japanese were killed five seriously and seventeen slightly wounded. The Japanese fleet was not damaged.

A dispatch from Tien Tsin, China, says a Russian refugee who has arrived from Port Arthur reports that 20 soldiers and two civilians were wounded at Port Arthur during the Japanese bombardment. The governor of Port Arthur was slightly wounded.

Dispatches this morning state that Russia has abandoned Port Arthur. The Japanese fleet has not been seen for 48 hours and there is nothing to indicate where hostilities will next break out.

Chinese reports are being received which state that the whole of Manchuria is in a state of utter confusion, owing to the Russians having seized all food supplies and other commissariat necessities. The natives are streaming south toward the ports and suffering great hardships. The late military governor of Kirin has committed suicide, owing to his inability to relieve the people's distress or stop the Russian depredations.

A. M. BROWN DEAD.

Supt. of the County Home Died Last Night. Funeral To-Morrow.

A. M. Brown, who for the past 26 years has been Superintendent of the County Home, died last night at 7 o'clock. He had been ill a long time and consumption with a multitude of complications caused the end. The funeral services will be held tomorrow morning at ten o'clock from St. Paul's Lutheran Church.

Mr. Brown was a most excellent citizen. He had long been serving the poor and his superintendency was marked by kindness to them and faithfulness to his country. He died in their service.

A wife and eight sons survive him. He died at the age of 67, not the allotted age, but the few years would not have added to his life which filled the measure of honest true manhood.

IN MEMORIAM.

A Tribute to Mrs. Lucy Cooper Jacobs.

Mrs. Lucy Corper Jacobs departed this life at her home near Mt. Tabor on Sunday, February 14th. On that solemn vesper day the farewell sigh of her departing spirit was breathed. A smile of peace was on her lips, impress of the angels kiss, as they bore away the happy soul from the shores of life, out on the ocean of eternity. Oh! how we will miss her. Time may heal the wound, but we cannot forget one whom we have loved from her school days, but she is no longer "tossed by contending waves of fate." Our sympathy goes out to the dear mother in the loss of her only child. The vacancy in her heart is as fathomless as death. Her life and character have been sweet and pure. The singing birds, the blue sky, and shifting clouds are all messengers of her love for us. The icy fingers of death have never stilled the throbbing of a warmer heart, in the clouds of the valley covered a purer woman. But we shall meet again in heaven and we shall see and know those again we have loved and lost on earth. This thought soothes our weary hearts, beguiles our cares and leads our souls to that home of eternal delight.

ITEMS FROM FAITH.

Venus at a Wedding Party. His Request for More People.

Correspondence of the Globe.

Luther Fisher, son of M. G. M. Fisher, and Miss Cora A. Brown, daughter of Rev. R. L. Brown were married Thursday at the home of the bride's parents. Rev. Mr. Bodie officiating. The attendants were John Brown and Miss Annie Brown; Marion Fisher and Miss Roxie Lingle. After many hours eating good things and a big belling at night, there was another large table and dining room packed full of all kinds of cakes, custards, jellies, candies, pork, two turkeys, seven chickens and many other good things by Mrs. Fisher, the bridegroom's mother, who is known to be one of the best cooks in the county. There were five preachers and two magistrates in the crowd. At dinner there four tables filled, and ten at each table, making forty besides ten little ones. Venus, with a large number of friends wish them much joy and hope they will live a long and happy life and settle in Faith and help build up the town.

Venus now wishes that 5,000 young ladies between 12 and 35 years of age, and 5,000 young men between 14 and 37 years old would come and settle along the granite belt. So there would be a wedding at least once a week, and they would all spread a table like Mrs. Fisher's, then Venus would have some good items every week.

The union granite cutters expect to finish up the three big engine beds and get them on cars this week.

Lumber is being put on the ground to enlarge McNairy, Farmer & Co's store and market another story higher.

Mrs. J. T. Wyatt is in Atlanta, Ga., among the Southern Railroad people and Southern capitalists, working for a railroad for Faith.

The free school will close at Faith Saturday the 19th. Some good speakers are to be on the ground and a good time is expected as usual.

THE GLOBE'S INCREASE.

Many More Names Added to the List. The Delay of the Paper.

Since last week, the paper has added many more names to its list and it grows in strength from the financial view-point. The increase in subscriptions has been little short of remarkable, and we are mighty grateful to our constituency. We are somewhat delayed this week on account of setting up the mailing list. It has taken an enormous amount of work for the printers and the editor too. We hope any one failing to receive his paper, will be sure to let us know, for it is next to impossible to get the mail perfectly correct the first time. Below is our new list of subscribers: N S Varner, C A Sloop, E W Bost, L S Shirey, R L Lyerly, J E Goodnight, C H Cross, A G McNeely, J F Bost, H W Belk, J F Brown, J H Link, C E Barger, J F Freeze, S R McLoughlin, Hugh Belk, R W West, S W Hart, W D Smith, V C Edmiston, S O Morrow, D A Deity, J T Horton, J S Sifford, Alex McCorkle, H M Graham, J T Eudy, H E Nail, J T Chambers, J A Knifers, G L Baker, R A McLaughton, P H Snider, H A Foster, W J Koontz, J W Patterson, J T Fink, S A Rudicil, W R McDaniel, E W Teague, J Lyerly, E A McDaniel, W C McCubbins, E A Wilhelm, L C Kluttz, J A Lippard, R L Cline, W P Barber, A W Kluttz, William Canup, Jesse Hellard, A D Thomas, Lee Morgan, A C Frick, G W Park, Jno A Morgan, C J Earnhardt, E I Lentz, T L Pool, C G Sowers, C M File, M T Cauble, D L Cauble, G M Edwards, R T Wray, F M Houlhouser, J A Setzer, A A Trexler, Frank Park, Roland Kirk, Tobias Miller, Chas L Earnhardt, Thos Rimer, L D H Brown, Jno A Loflin, W A Cross, Tobias Houlhouser, Jno M Brady, D H Hinson, C A Sloop, G H Litaker.

BUYS A BIG FARM.

H. Clay Grubb Purchases Land in Rowan. Boat Club at Ragle. Regal March 18.—Measles has made its appearance among our Davidson neighbors.

The Boat Club, of Salisbury, was out at this place last Saturday evening and rigged up their boat, the Yarkin, and made a trip up to Hannah's Ferry. This will be a source of much enjoyment to many of the towns-people as the days grow milder.

We learn that H. C. Grubb has bought out M. W. Barber's entire farm, for which, we learn, the consideration was about nine thousand dollars. Mr. Grubb having sometime back bought what was known as the widow's dower in the J. W. Haden lands. Mr. Grubb took over a load or two of up-to-date farming implements, which of course means success to the farmer.

PLUMBLOS.

No Picnic at Faith.

In our county correspondence on the inside of the paper, a notice of a picnic occurs. Owing to a recent outbreak of measles, the promoters of the affair have called it off. Prospective attendants will take notice.

Drug Store Assigns.

The firm of Isenhour & Bean assigned Monday and Judge Allen appointed T. C. Linn Esq., as receiver. The liabilities are little in excess of the assets, and it is believed that the business may be continued. At any rate, these young men who deserve success in everything they do, will have the hopes of many and good friends, who believe with real merit there can be no such word as ultimate fail.

Miss Kluttz-Mr. Thomason.

Cards were sent out Monday announcing the approaching marriage of Miss Georgie Kluttz and Mr. Watson Thomason. The ceremony will take place at bride's home on Wednesday, March 23. Both Miss Kluttz and Mr. Thomason are known well here, the prospective bride being a life-long resident, unusually popular and pretty. Mr. Thomason came here from Zeb and has made many friends. He is a splendid young business man and is making his mark rapidly. They will live at his home in the country.
