SALISBURY, N. C., WEDNESDAY, MAY 11, 1904.

ESTABLISHED 1867.

SALISBURY'S GROWTH.

What the Southern Railway is Doing for a town. A Great Number of Manufacturing Enterprises.

Though Salisbury is one of the oldest cities in the State, and possible in the South, it renews its youth vigorously. The city and suburbs are all on an immense scale of development. Many new buildings are going up and new additions are being laid out. The prime cause seems to be the enlarged scale upon which the Southern Railway seems to be entering with its improvements. The population, though now 14,000, is daily increasing rapidly. The shops of the Southern are at Spencer, three miles from the city, now being connected by electric car line under construction; for strange to say, no street-cars are yet found here.

Spencer has 3,500 inhabitants, yet it is not seven years old. The new shops going up at Spencer are upon the largest scale of any railway shops in the State, probably. The yards have 20 miles of track and 50 tracks laid. The company employ 1,200 and pay them $70,000 each month. When the new shop is completed (the foundation of which alone is costing over $50,000) the outlay will have been over half million. Newton Heights and Oakland Park, suburbs of Spencer, are on an immense boom also, judging from a buggy ride delightfully taken over the grounds, and noting the recent sales made. Mr. Chas. B. Jordan kindly pointed out to us very much of the city in a 20 mile buggy ride. I judge he would be glad to answer questions as to real estate about Spencer. Newton Heights and Oak Grove Park are the two latest additions. They have streets graded, sidewalks (plank) laid, trees set out, etc. This is all done by the Spencer Developing Co. of which Mr. Chas. B. Jordan is general manager.

Salisbury has three cotton factories, two foundries, two roller mills and a 30,000 knitting mill. A $20,000 addition to the public school building is being erected and one equally costly to the Whitehead-Stokes Sanitarium is just completed. The Negro College of Salisbury has 400 students in attendance. It is under the auspices of the African M. E. Church. The professors' homes are quite modern looking and neat.

The new Baptist church is about completed. The congregation are hoping to secure Rev. F. H. Martin, of Salem, Va., as pastor.

The national cemetery, with its 12,700 graves, is a beautiful place of sad memories.

One of the most stately and costly residences in Salisbury, is the palatial home of E. B. C. Hambley president of the Whitney Reduction Co., on Fulton street, which cost $79,000. It is enclosed by a beautiful cut stone wall, and its grounds are well kept and very beautiful.

A meeting is in progress at the Chestnut Hill Baptist church, Rev. Mr. Aycock is doing the preaching. Some interest is being manifested in it.—Charlotte Observer.

MR. SNUCGS IS DEAD.

County Treasurer of Stanly County Died Sunday at the Sanatorium.

Mr. I. W. Snuggs, who was brought here from Albemarle Thursday to take treatment died Sunday morning about 3:30 o'clock. He was in a very hopeless condition when brought here, and it was taking desperate chances on life that he came.

Mr. Snuggs was one of Stanly's best citizens, at one time sheriff of Stanly county, and at the time of his death, was treasurer of it. He had besides interests in the business world that were not inconsequential. Mr. Snuggs was a Confederate soldier and lost his right leg in the service of his state.

One of his great friends, is Mr. J. Calvin Basinger, of Lisk. Mr. Basinger lost his left leg in the army. When one of these gentlemen purchased a pair of shoes, he would send the other to his comrade. Mr. Snuggs was 58 years old. The remains were shipped to Albemarle Sunday night, and the body accompanied by his two sons and a daughter.

THE NEW POSTOFFICE.

It Will be in a Specially Built Room of the Johnston Block.

Since it was determined to move the postoffice from its present quarters, there has been no little interest in the location of the new office. Last week, T. P. Johnson & Company were awarded the contract for building the new quarters and it is expected to have them ready for occupancy by the first of October.

The new building will be what we call a tony affair. It is to be built of fine granite and pressed brick. The location will be adjoining the present Johnston block on the corner of Council and Main streets. The edifice will be 30 by 90 feet, the increased demand of the public requiring the enlargement.

MR. A. L. SMOOT.

The above cut is of the Register of Deeds of Rowan county. He is now closing the second term and stands for renomination. Mr. Smoot was elected to follow one of the most popular officers this county ever had, Mr. H. N. Woodson, but the office and the people have not suffered. The present incumbent has never had a superior. He was educated at Trinity College, has taught in Texas, and all that is virile and progressive in the commonwealth, he represents. He will have no opposition in the primary, and when he retires two years hence, he will do it with the elate of his entire constituency.

A Card.

The undersigned desire to correct any impression that the Anti-Saloon League has any candidates or desires to control the Democratic or any other party. The League is non-partisan. Its members belong to any party or no party as individual members may prefer. All unite in opposition to the liquor traffic and each in his party is to work to the end to destroy or effectually suppress it.

The sentiment and action recommended in the circular signed by us represent temperance Democrats, our League being composed almost entirely of such and was intended to reach temperance Democrats all over the county.

It is due to those whose names were suggested as proper candidates to be voted for in the primaries to say that they were used without their knowledge or authority. They being known as true Democrats of the highest character in every respect and eminently worthy of the votes of every true man, had not been consulted nor asked for any pledge, being men whom all can trust to be true to every principle of Democracy and moral right. They are recommended in that circular not as candidates of the League; but as Democrats for whom every true Democrat can conscientiously and consistently vote.

We want it distinctly understood that Temperance Democrats make the contest in the primaries. As Democrats they deem it their duty. Friends of the temperance cause have the right to consult and agree as to candidates for whom to vote for in the primaries. This they will do and attend and vote. Having done so they will abide the result of the convention. Does this make plain where they stand? Surely any reasonable person, who does not insist on misrepresenting them can not fail to understand their position.

The Anti-Saloon League of Salisbury merely advises all Temperance Democrats to act together in the primaries. Respectfully,
J. N. STALLINGS, SR.
I. H. FOUST.

Mr. Frank Dowd, of Charlotte, spend Sunday with Pritchard Carlton, Esq.

A CONCERT TOUR.

Chapter of Children From Oxford Asylum to Tour a portion of the State.

The GLOBE is requested to print the following:

On May 26th the singing class of the Oxford Orphan asylum will enter upon a tour of the eastern section of North Carolina. Concerts will be given in our various towns and cities, usually upon invitations and under auspices of the local Masonic lodges. After an interval of several weeks spent at Oxford the children will begin, about the middle of July, a tour of the western part of the State.

Ten girls, six boys and a lady and gentleman compose the party. The character of these concerts is known. The pure, bright, humorous programme well rendered by the boys and girls makes an unusually attractive entertainment worth, in itself, far more than the admission fee charged. The cause in the interest of which the concerts are given is deservedly claiming more and more of the love and support of our people.

As stated in the past, the purpose of these tours is to afford pleasure and benefit to our people, to impress upon them even more strongly the prime importance of child saving, child-training effort, to secure their even heartier support for the orphan cause, and to raise funds to aid in the maintenance of the Oxford Orphan asylum. This institution is now caring for 250 of the homeless boys and girls of the State. Its benefits are not restricted to the children of Masons. Since its establishment in 1872 nearly 2,000 boys and girls have been under its protection, care and training. The children's concerts grow in favor and our good people are readier to aid the cause each year. Last year the tours were more successful in every respect than ever before. May they be even more successful and valuable this year. We bespeak for them the very heartiest support of all our people.

Political Chat.

With Judge Parker for president and C. B. Aycock for vice-president, at the head of the ticket and the right kind of platform the Democrats have a bright prospect for winning. The Republicans are scared and well they may be for every sign shows that this is going to be a Democratic year from president down to township constable.—Marion News.

The Marion News says the delegates to the State convention in McDowell county are instructed to vote as follows: Davidson 5.15 votes; for Glenn, 1.90 votes; Steadman, .85 votes; and Turner, .10 votes. They were also instructed to cast the whole votes of the county for M. H. Justice for the Associate Justice and for F. D. Winston for Lieutenant-Governor.

They were not instructed as to other candidates. In the congressional contest the delegates were instructed to cast the vote of the county as follows: 19.12 votes for J. M. Gudger, Jr., 2.88 votes for Solomon Gallert and 1 vote for J. H. Merrimon. Thomas Morris was elected chairman of the County Executive committee.

The Chatham Record tells of a Republican primary in that county where only ten persons were present. In Randolph county at the date the recent Republican primaries were called in several townships there were no meetings. In Asheboro township there were only six present. In the county convention which was held on Tuesday of March term of court there were only a few present.—Asheboro Courier.

The Democratic convention in the Tenth district will meet in Hendersonville on the 21st of June.

Miss Esther Shaver.

Morgan Township played a man's part in sending to the World's Fair, a young lady so lovable and so much admired as Miss Esther Shaver. We claim to be the first to propose her name nor did we cease working until her election was assured. The GLOBE has grown weekly in its scope and influence and the paper that has been generous enough to confer a trip upon one of our friends, shall not be deserted.

W. C. L.

CITY OFFICERS RE-ELECTED.

License Granted to Clarke & Sons. Bond of $1,500 Required of Distillers.

At the meeting of the town commissioners Thursday night last, the following officers were re-elected:

Town clerk, H. J. Overman; mayor pro tem, J. D. Heilig, treasurer, J. Samuel McCubbins; city attorney, Walter Murphy; tax collector, and chief of police, J. Frank Miller; subordinate officers, W. A. Monroe, Geo. B. Eagle, J. M. Steele, M. C. Torrence, Frank Cauble, and M. L. Parker; city weigher, Sam Carter; plumbing inspector, J. W. Webb.

H. Clarke & Sons were granted wholesale liquor license for one year, and C. M. Bailey was allowed to change the location of his business.

The distillers were required to give a bond of $1,500 for the proper observance of sanitary rules and regulations.

LOCAL NEWS.

Mr. George P. Beverly went down to Atlanta Saturday night on business.

Mr. Ed. Mears, of Linwood, spent Saturday night with friends in Salisbury.

Miss Margaret Willis, of Charlotte, is visiting her friend Miss Edna McCubbins.

Miss Janie Boyden has returned from Charlottesville, Va., where she made an extended visit.

Miss Virginia Mauney went to Richmond Friday with her sister; Miss Ruth who enters the hospital there.

Rev. William R. Wetmore, of Arden, assisted Rev. Dr. Murdoch in the Episcopal church service Sunday.

Mrs. W. H. Ballew yesterday joined her husband at Lookout Inn, near Chattanooga where they will be sometime.

Mr. Gilmer Witherspoon, an old Salisbury boy who is now traveling, was a Saturday and Sunday visitor with us.

Mr. E. I. Frost went to Washington Sunday night on business and returned to Salisbury this morning. He has decided to remain in this city.

Mrs. Annie Livengood, who has been confined to her bed for the past winter and been so ill, is resting more comfortably this week, but is still very feeble.

Miss Jennie Sullivan, one of the Graded school's very efficient teachers, is in California on a visit, and her place is being filled by Miss Edna McCubbins. The school closes next week and most of the teachers will return.

Quite a large crowd saw the ball game yesterday between the teams of Spencer and Guilford college. The shop boys in their initial fight made a fine showing and have the making of a good team. It was their first game and they were weak with the bat. Guilford has one of the best college teams in the State and won by a score of 3 to 0.

Mrs. William H. Overman has rented that lovely home on Innis street, to Mr. L. H. Conklin, of New York. Mr. Conklin has moved his family here. He has an interest in the Salisbury Hosiery Mill and will be connected with it in the future. "The Willows," one of the most beautiful places in all Salisbury, will be symbolic of Salisbury's sorrow when Mrs. Overman goes to the Orient.

This week, Mr. Theo. F. Klutz, Jr. goes to the Charlotte Observer as a member of its staff. He will be Sunday and telegraphic editor. The Observer has the ablest young staff in the South already, and the pace that they have set is none too fast for Mr. Klutz. He is a newspaper man in every sense of the word, writes beautifully and accurately, has intellectual and physical vigor in abundance. The Observer has no man with whom it will be more pleased. But for the love Salisbury has for the paper, it would object to losing Mr. Klutz.

Leonard, McCrary & Co., will run their first popular excursion from Concord to Greensboro on Saturday, May 28th. Fare for round trip from Salisbury only 90 cents. Train leaves Salisbury at 9 o'clock, a. m.

A NEW UNDERTAKING PARLOR.

One of the Handsomest Rooms in the Country. Much of it Home Industry.

The reporter was shown Monday what is undoubtedly one of the handsomest rooms in the entire South. It is Mr. G. W. Wright's undertaking parlor which he has recently fitted up. Traveling salesmen accustomed to seeing the prettiest thing in architectural skill, pronounce it unsurpassed. Nearly every feature of it presents a striking illustration of the industrial excellence of North Carolina. Some of the finest caskets are made in Charlotte, High Point and Burlington. The glass cases in which the caskets are an exhibit, are made by Mr. John F. Yorke, of Concord. They have the finest quarter oak columns and with palms by their side and reaching the ceiling, they make a pretty appearance. These cases were put together by Mr. C. R. Propst, a Salisbury contractor, who has done his work skillfully and beautifully.

Undertaking establishments are not "a joy forever," of course, but this one is pre-eminently "a thing of beauty."

FRUIT NOT ALL KILLED.

Weather was Spasmodic. Our Correspondent Says He has Plenty.

Correspondence of the GLOBE.

New Gilead, May 10—The farmers of this section ought to be thankful for the nice rains during the past week.

There was no preaching at New Gilead the second Sunday, the pastor being away attending classes. There will be preaching the 4th Sunday by Rev. Paul Barringer. We will be glad to hear Paul once again.

Mrs. J. W. Barnhardt returned from Lexington today where she spent the past week visiting her father.

Mr. Grover Patterson, from Crescent spent Saturday night with home folks. We notice some of the writers to the GLOBE say the recent cold weather killed all the fruit. We have plenty in No. 5 yet.

We would like to hear from Sister Crab once again. Sister wake up and tell us why you haven't been writing for the GLOBE. Have you been busy tending rose buds shut?

Young man can you tell why you are feeling so bad? It's because you haven't subscribed for the GLOBE. Therefore you don't get the news. Hustle about and send in your subscription and see if you don't feel better. YOU KNOW.

A Novel Blind Tiger.

An entirely new scheme of whiskey peddling has just been discovered in the Indian Territory, and it seems to have been going on for months. The officers of the district northwest of Herbert have known for some time that whiskey has been sold to various parties, but not until yesterday were the peddlers caught. They had traveled around the country in an old wagon drawn by a poor span of Indian ponies, and were, presumably, buying eggs and poultry. They would sell small bottles of liquor to farmers and Indians through the neighborhood, and $1 a pint was the usual price. The officers discovered that both axles of the old wagon were of iron and very large. These axles were hollow and would hold about four gallons each. The peddlers would remove a small bolt and insert a pump and draw the desired amount of whiskey.

One of the peddlers admits having sold whiskey in this way for five months, and has made enough money to buy a farm in Texas. He says he will serve his time in jail and then buy a farm.—Ex.

For Linn and Hall.

A good Democrat asks us to make a short announcement for him. He proposes the name of Mr. T. C. Linn from the city and Mr. J. S. Hall, at present a member of the Board of County commissioners, from the county, as most desirable and deserving men. This gentleman believes the county is entitled to a representative and sees none better than Mr. Hall. And both would adorn the position to which their friends would like to elevate them. Now, Messrs. Linn and Hall, we have announced you, and we are mercenary, venal and utilitarian enough to ask you for your cards. Most all the county reads the GLOBE and it would help you.

Master Gowen Livengood was badly scalded last Saturday morning by the overturning of a kettle.

A FORGER JAILED.

Joseph Williams, a Davidson County Man, Does a Neat Piece of Work, but is Caught.

A rather well dressed young man appeared at the store of Mr. C. C. Sanford, of Mocksville Monday and presented a check to be cashed. He was unknown but talked so learnedly of local affairs that he was accorded attention. In payment of $25.50 worth of goods, he gave a check for $47 and took the balance in money. Before Mr. Sanford cashed the check, he noticed its being endorsed by Mr. B. R. Bailey, a man of wealth, and his signature was so well imitated that even the most intimate friends at Mr. Bailey could see nothing criminal about it. The fellow talked too much, he had told Mr. Sanford that he was a miller and had worked over him in Horn's mill. Mr. Horn was interrogated about this, denied it and Mr. Sanford went after the crook. He caught him at Barber, Williams then betting in the act of putting on the clothes he had bought. He gave back willingly the money and soon after was arrested by Deputy E. A. Barber. To both of these gentlemen, he confessed the crime, and declared to Mr. Barber that he would kill himself. This he evidently meant to do after being brought to Salisbury. Not knowing that he was under arrest, Mr. J. B. Isenhour sold him three grains of morphine which the officers took from him.

About 11 o'clock Monday night, Esq. D. M. Miller heard the case and committed Williams to jail. He renewed his confession, but declared that he was drunk when he did it. If this was true, it is well for his victims that he was. Any man who could do a piece of work like that when he was drunk, could steal the earth from under your feet if he happened to be sober.

Williams was taken to Mocksville yesterday morning and placed in jail. He had another check for $16 that he did not use. This had the name of J. D. Welchman (himself) as payee, and given by J. L. Zimmerman on the Peoples National Bank of Winston.

TEACHER HAD MUMPS.

"Much to the Joy and Gratification" of Several of the Patrons.

Correspondence of the GLOBE.

Manning, May 9.—Master Gilmer Best is nursing a scalded foot.

Read axes are coming in head, also wheat which is very promising now.

X gathered strawberries from his patch May 1st, and three days later served them upon his table. Who can beat that.

Jim Segrazes, of near Barber, visited S. B. Colley last week.

Crawford Freeze and family, of Sandy Ridge, visited relatives in our vicinity over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus Barnhardt, of China Grove, spent Saturday night and Sunday with J. B. Lingle and family.

Sunday school at Salem was re-organized yesterday with the following officers: Supt., W. L. Sifford; Asst. Supt., N. A. Lippard; Sec-Treas., Mrs. E. R. Cross.

Rev. H. A. Trexler and delegate, Ed Sifford, leave Wednesday for Christiana church to be present at the opening of the N. C. E. L. Synod.

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Safrit left Sunday for Chestnut Hill where they will reside. Mr. Safrit holds a position in the Brown Furniture factory.

A new public road is being surveyed today across the Lingle bottom, connecting the Lincoln and Sherrill's Ford road.

In perusing the pages of the record belonging to the school district, No. 5, your correspondent found this interesting inscription, which is calculated to keep our memories fresh for years to come, of an incident that took place before the teacher in charge of the school at that time. The little "remembrance" is written in a bold hand and occupies prominent space on page 10, and is as follows: "The teacher had the mumps (bad) very much to the joy and gratification of three or four patrons of the school."

A Card.

I think that it is but justice to myself to make public announcement of the fact that the endorsement of my candidacy by the "Anti-Saloon League" was made without my knowledge, an unaccompanied by any pledge or promise whatsoever from me. I propose to stand by the Democratic party and its platform, and its promises are my promises, and promises other than these have never been made by me.
W. L. KLUTZ.

Mrs. Thomas Wetmore of Arden, who has been at the Sanatorium for sometime, is improving. Rev. Mr. Wetmore is with her now.
