CONSISTENCY AND OTHER THINGS.

The Charlotte Observer heads an editorial upon the nefarious scheme to reduce the representation of the South in Congress with the caption, "No Reason to be Frightened" and in the course of the editorial practically recommends that policy.

The same day, the same paper went out of its way-and its district-to condemn the Democrats of the Eighth district for Blackburn's election. If consistency be a jewel, there is a large and conspicious gap in the diadem worn by the editorial writer on said publication.

Reduced representation or a prospect thereof may not be a reason for alarm, but any man with red blood in his veins can not refrain from indignation both at the proposition and that any North aught but bitter condemnation for the project.

But for a newspaper whose avowed object is to build up a Republican party in North Carloina, a paper Democratic the six weeks before election and doubtful the rest of the year, it is, perhaps, too much to expect anything different. But if the name of said newspaper were changed from the Charlotte Observer to the Charlotte Russe, it would be more appropriate.

We have been on the verge of extending congratulations to the Hon. E. Spencer Blackburn who has shown himself a smart politician and deserving of some admiration from his opponents. If he has been elected fairly, it is creditable to him; if unfairly, the Democrats are not to blame. We cannot retract our recent declaration that his speeches are the prattle of a parrot, the cackle of a Carolina newspaper should have goose. And we prove this from a paper by which Mr. Blackburn has sworn often, the Charlotte Observer. It says:

Mr. Blackburn is a handsome man and about the best dressed man in the State. THE SON U.S. MINISTER TO ENGLAND

Commends Pe-ru-na to All Catarrh Sufferers.

Hon, Louis E. Johnson is the son of the late Reverdy Johnson who was United States Senator from Maryland, also Attorney General under President Johnson, and United States Minister to England, and who was regarded as the greatest constitutional lawyer that ever lived.

In a recent letter from 1006 F St., N. W., Washington, D. C., Mr. Johnson says "No one should longer suffer from catarrh when Peruna is accessible. To my knowledge it has caused relief to so many of my friends and acquaintances, that it is humanity to commend its use to all persons suffering with this distressing disorder of the human system." --- Louis E.
