VERY TRYING TO WOMEN

Are the Peculiar Ills Brought on by Catarrh of the Pelvic Organs. (Pe-ru-na is a Tonic Especially Adapted to Their Peculiar Diseases.)

Catarrh is a very frequent cause of that class of diseases popularly known as female weakness. Catarrh of the pelvic organs produces such a variety of disagreeable and irritating symptoms that many people—in fact, the majority of people—have no idea that they are caused by catarrh. A great proportion of women have some catarrhal weakness which has been called by the various doctors she has consulted by as many different names. These women have been treated and have taken medicines, with no relief, simply because the remedies are not adapted to catarrh. It is through a mistaken notion as to the real nature of the diseases that these medicines have been recommended to them. If all the women who are suffering with any form of female weakness would write to Dr. Hartman, Columbus, Ohio, and give him a complete description of their symptoms and the peculiarities of their troubles, he will immediately reply, with complete directions for treatment, free of charge. "Health and Beauty," a book written especially for women, sent free by Dr. Hartman, Columbus, Ohio.

Miss Alice Dressler, of No. 1813 North Bryant Ave., Minneapolis, Minn., writes as follows concerning Peruna: "I was suffering from catarrh of the throat and head. One of my college friends, who was visiting me, asked me to try Peruna and I did so and found it all and more than I had expected. It not only cured me of the catarrh, but restored me to perfect health."—Alice Dressler.

Miss Mamie Groth, Plattville, Wis., writes: "I have for several years suffered with frequent backache and would for several days have splitting headaches. Several of my friends advised me to take Peruna and I asked my physician what he thought of it. He recommended it and so I took it and am entirely without pain of any kind now."—Mamie Groth.

In a recent letter from No. 2 Grant Ave., Denver, Col., Mrs. Ida L. Gregory writes: "Some six years ago my husband suffered with nervous prostration, and advising with a friendly druggist he brought home a bottle of Peruna. His health was restored from its use, his appetite was increased and restful sleep came to him."—Ida L. Gregory.

Miss Florence Murphy, No. 2708 Second Ave., Seattle, Wash., writes: "I suffered for over a year with female trouble, and although I tried several physicians none of them seemed to be able to help me permanently. It only took a little over three bottles of Peruna to make me well and strong. I never have backache, headache or bearing down pains any more."—Florence Murphy.

Mrs. Louise Westbrook, No. 9 East Columbia St., Detroit, Mich., Secretary of the West Side Lotus Club, writes: "For several years I suffered with leucorrhoea and painful menstruation, which was followed by general debility, until I was but a wreck of myself. Thanks to Peruna I am a well woman to-day."—Louise Westbrook.

Miss Jessiemene Westland, No. 787 Respublic Ave., Detroit, Mich., writes: "After the heavy winter diet, the whole family will be safeguarded against fevers, headaches and diarrhoea by using few doses of Vick's Little Liver Pills—A perfect vegetable laxative and tonic to liver, bowels and kidneys. Twenty-five cents, at Druggists."

STILL CAPTURED (From The Sun of Thursday.) A small still and two barrels of whiskey were captured by revenue officers last night a few miles West of Salisbury. The liquor and still are now at Arey's saloon on East Council street. The still which is a very small affair is on exhibition in front of the saloon with two placards, one bearing these words: "Owned and operated exclusively by Uncle Sam, and on the other, "Out put all sold last night."

"One ounce of prevention is worth a pound of physic," is very true about Vick's Croup and Pneumonia Cure—The Mother's Comfort the Child's Friend in every household—Rub it on, and the disease is checked promptly. Twenty-five cents, never fails, at druggists.

Beef is going down daily—in restaurants.

BADLY FOOLED COON Started With a Message Early This Morning and is Going Yet (From The Sun of Saturday) About as good an April fool trick as has been played heretoday was worked off on George Maxwell, an Council street section. George appeared early this morning in Hoover's saloon and was just loafing around when Proprietor Teeter saw a chance to have some fun. Hastily scrawling a note, he folded it up and started the poor nigger on his travels by requesting him to give it to Charles Arey. Mr. Arey read the note and sent the coon to another saloon, where he was directed to take it to one of the luminaries of lawyers' row. Just where he went next doth not appear but George has been seen on every street in Salisbury and has made one or more trips to Spencer. A late bulletin says he was headed for China Grove at three o'clock. If he ever gets back from there, the choice of any drink in Hoover's saloon awaits him as some compensation for getting it so generally in the neck. George has an idea that the mysterious message has something to do with the little still captured yesterday and now on exhibition at Charles Arey's, and he may be a tired and thoroughly fooled darkey, but he certainly has felt himself an important one as he hurried from place to place.

I lost flesh and grew thin and emaciated, nervous and exhausted, so that I could neither work or enjoy life. I began taking Peruna and can now eat and enjoy everything."
